

TRIED TO SHOOT MOTHER THEN FOUGHT THE POLICE

Edward O'Connor, Jr., Arrested After Creating the Wildest Excitement at His Home.

POLICEMAN DAWSON'S NARROW ESCAPE

Temporarily insane, the result of excessive drink, Edward ("Teddy") O'Connor, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Connor, Monroe street, made a desperate effort to kill his aged mother with a revolver last evening shortly after 8 o'clock, and when Officer Clifford Dawson approached to place him under arrest the frenzied man drew a Winchester rifle, pointed it at the policeman and pulled the trigger.

As a result of his actions O'Connor was lodged in the city jail. He pleaded guilty this morning to a charge of disorderly conduct and was fined $10 and costs. Mayor Weaver then allowed him to depart, but he will be arrested again on a charge to be sworn to by Officer Dawson, who alleges that O'Connor attempted to kill him. On this charge it is likely that prosecution will be vigorously made.

The scene of O'Connor's cowardly actions was at his home and in that usually quiet section of the city there was more confusion last evening than upon any previous occasion of which there is record. The wildest excitement prevailed for more than an hour and even today the neighbors were not calmed. The story of the affair as given by Officer Dawson is believed to be an unprejudiced report and true in every detail, notwithstanding that members of the O'Connor family seek to portray it as only a matter of trifling consequence.

O'Connor is nearly 25 years of age. He has been the idol of his parents and they have never refused to provide everything he could wish for comfort and happiness, and several months ago when he asked his mother to buy him an automobile she readily consented to do so and purchased for him one of the best that has traversed the streets of the city. The young man is of a very reckless disposition, and

MAYOR ARRANGES HEARINGS FOR OFFENDING SALOONISTS

The saloonists against whom charges have been preferred during the past few weeks for violating the screen, Sunday and after hour ordinances, will all be given a hearing before the end of the week. Mayor Weaver has delayed the trials for the purpose of gaining all the evidence possible and is now ready to give the accused an opportunity to prove themselves innocent.

For more than two hours the chief executive was busy yesterday afternoon hearing the stories of Alphonso Kenny, James Walters and Mike O'Malley. Kenny was charged with having his saloon on West Market street open last Sunday. He denied the charge and his story, to the effect that he was simply letting his bartender out of the saloon when the person who preferred the charge was passing, together with the general good reputation of the saloonist, prevailed upon the mayor, who dismissed the case.

Walters and O'Malley were charged with violating the screen ordinance. Both of them pleaded not guilty and the mayor dismissed them upon their own recognizance to appear for trial at any date chosen by himself. It is understood that the men intend to fight the case to the bitter end.

A warrant was issued this morning for the arrest of John McFadden, who is charged with keeping open his Walnut street saloon on last Sunday. McFadden was notified to appear by Officer Dunn and at 11:30 o'clock he entered a plea of not guilty. His trial will be heard at a later date.

James Walters, the saloonist of Franklin street, was arraigned on a charge of violating the screen ordinance. He pleaded not guilty and will be heard later.

A GREAT CUSHER IN THIS COUNTY

WELL NEAR COLUMBIANA GOOD
FOR 100 BARRELS.

Oil Excitement on the Increase And the Prospects Are Most Alluring.

Lisbon, July 29.—(Special).—Oil excitement in the vicinity of Columbiana is increasing, and it is said that the leases of the Ohio Knob & Gas company, of that village, have taken a big jump in value as a result of the big showing of oil on the Gongaware farm. A. J. Hylands & Co., of Pittsburg, have been steadily pumping the well on that farm since it was shot two weeks ago, and about 9 o'clock Monday it developed into a regular oil gusher, a heavy stream of oil taking the place of the water.

Mr. Hylands, who had been superintending the work, was in Pittsburg at the time and the inexperienced youth who had been left in charge, fearing an explosion, extinguished the fire and shut down the pump. Before the pump could be started again the stream of oil subsided after flowing for an hour and a half, and the flow of water continued. Pumping was renewed vigorously as soon as possible.

People have visited the scene in large numbers, including some oil speculators who have pronounced the well good for 100 barrels. It is estimated that 25 barrels of pure crude oil escaped Monday while the well was pumping oil.

The additional well that was started on the adjoining Betz farm a few days ago has reached a considerable depth. Mr. Hylands has ordered a huge tank sent to the field immediately.

INSPECTION OF MINES IN THIS DISTRICT

State Inspector and Deputy to Make a Tour of Neighboring Coal Districts.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, July 29.—State Mine Inspector Elmer G. Biddison, accompanied by Deputy Inspector James P. Davis, of Salem, will inspect the mines of Columbiana and Mahoning counties next week. They will go to Mahoning county first and visit a block of small mines about eight miles southwest of Youngstown which are on fire. It is thought they can be extinguished without much trouble. Lisbon will be the first place visited in Columbiana county, after which they will go to Salineville, which will be the state inspector's first visit to that place. He made his first trip to the two counties about six months ago, was much impressed with conditions generally and pronounced the coal found in both counties to be of high quality.

"I am taking this trip more to get acquainted with the territory than for any other purpose," said Mr. Biddison. Last week, aided by Deputies Davis and Thomas McGough, of Bridgeport, he inspected the La Belle shaft, near Steubenville, one of the largest mines in Ohio, and found it to be in a dangerous condition. There was so much gas in it that it was at once apparent to the officials that if something was not done at once the mine would be the scene of an awful explosion, with probable great loss of life and property. This condition was due to improper ventilation. The owners of the mine were ordered to either close up the mine or install it with the necessary ventilation and open up all air courses.

Small Blaze Under Postoffice.
The fire department was called out last evening for a slight blaze in the basement under the postoffice. It was extinguished before the firemen arrived.

MAYOR'S VETO OF POLICE BILL

Council Will Have Time to Deliberate
Before Taking Up

REASON FOR DISAPPROVAL

As predicted in the News Review, Mayor Weaver's veto of the police ordinance was read by Auditor Davidson to council at its regular meeting held last evening. President Horwell and the following members were present: Johnston, Smith, Cannon, Bullock, Crossall, Barlow and Moon. When the veto was read, by motion of Bullock, it was unanimously adopted. The veto, which it will be seen alludes to but one section of the ordinance, follows: To the City Council:

Gentlemen—I herewith return unsigned and with my disapproval the ordinance passed by you July 29, 1903, entitled "An Ordinance Fixing the Number, Salaries and Bonds of the Members of the Police Department." My objections are solely and entirely to the provisions of the second clause of section one of this ordinance, viz which you have undertaken to reduce the patrolmen on the police force from eight to seven men.

In view of our rapidly increasing population and the manifest need of even better police protection such a course is inexplicable. A proper enforcement of the laws and the peace and security of the city demand that you reconsider your action and the ordinance is returned in the hope that you may do so.

I would respectfully call your attention to the fact that we have a population of nearly twenty-five thousand, scattered over a large area, covering almost all of Liverpool township, no part of which is given adequate police protection, our miles of river front, our geographical position, the proximity of state lines is such that we have often to subdue the lawless element of contiguous territory. These facts all go to prove that an increase in the number of patrolmen would be a more reasonable recommendation than a decrease.

Respectfully submitted,
W. A. WEAVER.

Mayor. Though it was expected by many that council would take immediate action on the ordinance it was not referred to after its adoption. It was learned this morning that the reason of non-action was because of a provision of the code that prohibits the passage of an ordinance over the veto of the mayor until after the expiration of 10 days. Whether or not council will meet in special session in 11 days is not known, but it is generally believed that no action will be taken until the next regular meeting, which falls on the evening of August 11.

Executor Brings Suit.

Lisbon, July 29.—(Special).—William J. Kountz, of East Liverpool, as executor of the estate of the late Peninah W. Kountz, has brought suit here against John T. Kountz to enforce the payment of a judgment for $217.41, secured in the circuit court in Bon Homme county, S. D. Walter B. Hill is the plaintiff's attorney.

RAILROAD ISSUES NOT DISPOSED OF

Council Simply Appointed a Committee to Confer With Service Board.

THE WISHES OF THE C. & P.

Are to Be Ascertained and Reported.
Manager Healy Ordered to Repair
Car Tracks—Much Routine Business Acted Upon.

Though in session but a little more than an hour last evening city council ground out an unusually large amount of business. President Horwell permitted no delay and the wheels revolved with such rapidity that more than was expected received attention.

One of the most important matters introduced was the agreement practically decided upon between the board of public service and the Pennsylvania railroad officers. However, there was no action of a definite nature taken, simply a committee being appointed to confer with the service board. The committee named by the president is composed of Bullock, Cannon and Barlow. Mr. Bullock stated that a meeting had been held by a number of councilmen and the service board and there were several propositions of the railroad company that both bodies could not agree upon and for that reason asked that a committee be appointed to further consider. President Horwell advised the committee to ascertain exactly what the railway officials want and what they are willing to concede for any grants given them.

A communication was received from the board of public service, stating that an investigation had proved the track of the East Liverpool and Wellsville street railway within the limits of the city is in urgent need of repair, both by re-paving and re-setting of ties. The board recommended that council notify Manager Healy to repair the track and that if he does not comply with the notice within 10 days proper legal proceedings should be instituted. Council looked upon the communication with favor and a resolution was passed to carry out its provisions.

Attorney R. G. Thompson was present in behalf of the West End pottery and made the request that council pass an ordinance providing for the laying of an eight-inch main to the pottery. Mr. Thompson stated that the cost would not be more than $1,600 and that the pottery would furnish the money at 3 per cent interest, the money to be paid back in water rent. Council looked upon the proposition as a fair one and the ordinance was passed by a unanimous vote.

Attorney E. D. Marshall presented a bill of $53 for C. B. Bowers, who alleges that the city owes him the amount as the result of an accident on Virginia avenue. The complainant states that while he and a young lady were out driving on the above named thoroughfare one of the horses stepped into a hole, became frightened and running away caused the occupants bodily injury and the rig was badly broken. The bill was referred to the finance committee and the solicitor.

City Bill Poster Bridge while laboring under the false impression that the board of public service had drafted an ordinance that would allow transient men of his trade to work in the city without license talked at length to council. He protested that he should have protection and demanded it. Council referred him to the city solicitor and the board of public service.

The street committee instructed to investigate the condition of Cadmus street reported that no work should be done on the street until every abutting property holder signed a waiver for any claim to damages. The recommendation was adopted. The committee also reported that in its opinion the bid of Harrison Rinehart for the paving of the sidewalks on Fifth street in front of the Metch property should not be paid until the orders of the city engineer are complied with.

The bill of Contractor Ryan for $4,627.61, the amount due him for paving Robinson street, was discussed fully and it was finally decided to place it in the hands of the finance committee, city solicitor and the city auditor. The latter reported that the money from the abutting property holders along the improved street should be in by August 20, and he could not see how the money could be obtained any sooner. Mr. Ryan demanded that some provision be made for the payment of the interest on the money. It is likely that council will reimburse him to the amount.

Council was asked to change the grade line on Pearl alley, but it was decided to do nothing with it until the alley is dedicated to the city. When that is done the grade will be established to suit those who have petitioned for it.

President Grafton wanted council to take immediate action on providing a place of safety for the books and other valuables of the board of public safety. He said he did not care whether the board had a place to meet or not, but he thought the books should be cared for. The matter was disposed of by a motion to the effect that the auditor draft an ordinance appropriating sufficient money to repair the city building and to make several other needed improvements. Council will likely pass the ordinance at the next meeting.

The garbage question, which the board of health refused to entertain, was acted upon, Mr. Moon succeeding in having a motion passed ordering the auditor to advertise for bids for a period of three years for the disposal of the city's garbage. Mr. Bursner, manager of the Sanitary Reduction company, will be a bidder and feels confident that he can afford to submit the lowest bid.

VOTING CONTEST BEATS POLITICS

Review For Its Generous Offer.

WORKERS ARE HUSTLING

"No political contest in my recollection has created more widespread attention than the News Review's voting contest now drawing to a close," said a prominent business man this morning. "In many respects the battle now going on resembles a political contest, and the several candidates and their friends are employing all the tricks and schemes known to the cleverest politician."

"The lineup of coupon gatherers on every man's staff is even stronger and more numerous than the paid supporters of a political office seeker. The way the friends of the several candidates are hustling indicates that the interest is more intense than it ever was in a political way, and also shows that the News Review made a very popular move when it inaugurated the movement. The generosity of the offer has never been equalled by any newspaper in this section, and the management is being complimented upon every hand for the liberal proposition."

IN THE POLITICAL ARENA

Prof. M. E. Hard, Formerly of Salem,
Is Gaining Much Prominence.

Columbus, July 29.—(Special).—Another former Columbiana county man has jumped into the political arena. He is Prof. Mike E. Hard, superintendent of the Chillicothe schools, who served several terms as superintendent of the Salem schools. Mike was the Democratic nominee for state school commissioner two years ago and he is thinking hard of coming again for the honor this year. If he so elects and lands the nomination, the school commissioner fight will resolve itself into a sort of Eighteenth district affair, as Prof. A. E. Jones, the Republican nominee, is from Massillon. Hard is a giant in stature. He is over six feet tall and weighs more than 250.

Taken to the Workhouse.

MOTORMAN WHIPPED FOR PAYING ATTENTION TO WELL-KNOWN WOMAN

Wife's Relatives Took the Matter Up—Neglected
Spouse Invokes the Law, After Alleged Attempt at Suicide.

Fearing the wrath of the father and brothers of his wife who gave him one severe drubbing last night and threatened to give him another because of his intimacy with another woman and his neglect to his lawful spouse, Wilbur Heidrick, a motorman on the East erpool and Wellsville street car line, resigned his position and is now contemplating a speedy exit from the city.

Heidrick, it seems, has been intimate with a well known young woman of the city. His wife learned of it and when he asked her to go to Steubenville a few days ago to visit friends and implore that she go when she faltered, she became suspicious and decided to catch him. She went to Steubenville, apprised her father and brothers of his actions and early last evening she accompanied them back to this city. They first located the car upon which Heidrick was working and upon its arrival in the East End they entered it, and finding Heidrick in company with a woman, immediately decided to settle the matter.

One of them approached the girl and asked her if she did not know that Heidrick was a married man. She replied that she did not think it was any of his business what she thought or knew.

The brothers and father were so enraged at the retort that it is alleged they rushed at Heidrick and gave him a sound thrashing. After beating him they got off the car and Heidrick, upon the arrival of the car at the power house, went into the office and resigned. Later he came down to the central portion of the city and started to tell his story, trying to impress his hearers that he was being persecuted. He did not talk long, however, after he was informed that the relatives had been at central station for the purpose of preferring a charge against him.

The relatives applied to Chief Wyman, but upon being told that they could not have the man arrested for what they did not know anything of, immediately decided to settle the matter.

POWDER MAGAZINE BLOWS UP CREATING HAVOC AND DEATH

Lowell, Mass., July 29.—(Special).—A catastrophe unparalleled in this city occurred today when a powder magazine at the United States Cartridge company's plant exploded. As a result of the eruption 20 persons were killed, 50 were seriously injured and buildings within a radius of half a mile were torn and shattered, many of them being leveled. More than 30 houses were completely demolished. Suffering in the ill-fated district was terrible and the excitement that prevailed during the stampede which immediately followed the explosion was great. Dozens of families are homeless as a result of the awful disaster and it will be many months before the damage will be repaired. The loss to property will reach hundreds of thousands of dollars.

MILLER TO PLAY AGAIN WITH LOCALS

Does Not Like the City of Stogies And
Will Return to East
Liverpool.

Manager Reark received a letter last night from Miller, the southpaw of the local team, who jumped to Wheeling last week, stating that he had enough of the town of stogies and was coming back to the Crockery City. Miller is taking this step entirely of his own volition, as the trial game he pitched Saturday satisfied the Wheeling manager that he was worth trying out. Miller, however, does not like Wheeling and would rather play in East Liverpool at less money.

The news was particularly pleasing to Manager Reark and will be greeted with delight by the fans.

Clunk has not yet secured bond and was taken back to jail.

Sprained.

C. A. Smith, of this city, was painfully injured in an accident which occurred yesterday afternoon while he was out driving with his wife and daughter. He had gone out to look after some oil interests in the Turkeyfoot field and was near the sulphur springs near Fairview, W. Va., when the horse balked and backed over the embankment.

Mr. Smith struck on his left arm. His wife and daughter were not injured. An examination of his arm showed that it was bruised and scratched and the tendons so badly strained that it will be some weeks before he will have full use of it.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

OLD-TIME METHOD.

The formation of clay vessels by means of the unaided hand is almost as old as the human race. Artificial supports were used at first, such as baskets and woven twigs, but the essence of building is the absence of the wheel as an aid to the development of the form. While the majority of primitive peoples abandoned this method as soon as they became acquainted with the mysteries of the wheel, there remained some tribes and even some nations to whom this knowledge never came. The greater speed of wheel work pushed aside the primitive method of building and, hence, where the wheel became known the earlier work was never studied or improved upon. But in those cases in which the aggression of the wheel was not felt attention was exclusively confined to building, with the natural result that great skill was acquired by the workers.

Prominent among the exponents of clay building were certain of the Indian tribes of North America. They were untaught, and simply followed the bent of their inclination; but the result has been the opening to the modern world of a new avenue of expressive handicraft.

The Indian women were experts in basket weaving, and their method of construction—sewing together an endless coil of twisted cord—may have suggested the coils of clay with which their vases were built. The main difference lies in the adhesion. Basket coils must be sewn together. Clay coils adhere, when moist, until the fire gives them a permanent bond.

Early pottery was, without exception, formed to meet a need. No thought of ornament was present, and such beauty as the work possessed was in the fitness and utility which constituted the main, or indeed the only, claim to existence.

FACTORY SITES SCARCE.

The purchase by the Juniata company, composed of local manufacturing potteries, of a tract of East End land upon which it will erect an extensive plant for the manufacture of flint and spar, recalls the fact that very few factory sites remain within the city limits. The seriousness of this condition is at once apparent, as it is certain to retard the development of industries that would add capital and new industries to the city. It also has something to do with the location of many of the new pottery plants in other cities, although the bonus feature has been the principal factor. East Liverpool will retain her prestige as a pottery center, however, is the opinion of prominent potters. The real development of the industry will come to East Liverpool, Chester and Newell in spite of the many new and isolated plants.

OLD FASHIONS REVIVED.

The prospects in every branch of the pottery trade were never brighter than at present. The decorative trades are reviving many fashions which call for pottery, either of the old Colonial type or of the crude Dutch type. It is a

A MONTH'S MEDICINE FOR 25 CENTS

The Potters' Drug Store is Selling Dr. Howard's Dyspepsia Specific At Half Price.

Every bottle of Dr. Howard's Specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia contains sixty doses of a remedy that is pleasant and easy to take.

Used according to directions, this is sufficient for a month's treatment. Bought on the Potters' Drug Store's special half price offer of a regular sized 50 cent bottle at half price, you get a month's supply of the best medicine in the world for only 25 cents.

Another reason why you should use Dr. Howard's Specific, or at least try it, if suffering with constipation, dyspepsia or liver trouble, is the fact that the Potters' Drug Store sells every bottle under its personal guarantee to refund the money if the specific does not cure.

Many lives are lost by treating the sick for the wrong disease. If you have any of the following symptoms, Dr. Howard's Specific will cure you:

Loss of Appetite, Distress in Stomach, Great Mental Depression, Bloating of Stomach, Flat, Stagnant Feeling, Frecks before the Eyes, Crawling in the Stomach, Pains in Sides and Chests, Fullness in the Head, Melancholy Premonitions, Throwing up Food after Eating, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Belching of Gas, Heartburn, Constipation, Loss of Sleep, Lack of Energy, Choking Feeling, Stomach Cough, Coated Tongue, Bad Dreams.

Begin to get well today. Dr. Howard's Specific will make a permanent cure. It gives lasting health.

common thing among decorators to find that the wall treatment is left unfinished, the completing color details depending entirely upon the plaques or plates, or on the bric-a-brac, or chintz fittings.

In the Arts and Crafts form of furnishings the demand has been so strong for ceramics that the pottery men failing to furnish the proper goods, the tile importers stepped in, and great quantities of tiles have been sold for plate rails, and, indeed, for furniture panels. Where a room is finished in crude Van Dyke brown wood, or in other dull tones, it is manifestly advisable to brighten it. As a result pottery of all sorts that has the requisite strength of color is already in demand, and will be in still greater call for the coming fall trade.

A BAD MISHAP.

Pat Creig, kilnman at the Dresden, met with quite a misfortune yesterday and besides receiving several painful cuts and bruises may lose a very valuable driving horse. Mr. Creig was out enjoying a drive, when at a point near Grim's bridge the horse slipped at a load of hay and began to rear and plunge. Finally the buggy was backed over a steep embankment and a general smashup resulted. The driver was thrown to the ground and was stunned and bruised considerably. The horse was badly injured and it was thought yesterday that its leg was broken and that it would be necessary to kill it. Mr. Creig came to this city yesterday afternoon, returning to the scene with a veterinary.

GAS SUPPLY SHORT.

Local potteries felt the shortage in the gas supply yesterday afternoon, caused by a break in the mains near the source of supply and the firemen who had kilns in were on the anxious seat. There was but very little pressure during the day. A rumor to the effect that the gas company intends to change the potteries from high to low pressure mains has caused the firemen some uneasiness. The change is contemplated to save gas, but well posted firemen state the company has a mistaken idea as to this, as it will require as much if not more gas with low pressure to fire a kiln.

MEET AGAIN THURSDAY.

The supposition was general in the city that another conference between the operatives and manufacturers was to have been held last evening, but this was an error. When the conference adjourned last Tuesday night without the work being completed it was announced that another session would be held this week, but the exact time was not specified. The two committees will get together Thursday evening, when, it is hoped, the matters in hand will be disposed of.

TO START THURSDAY.

The clay hands at the Dresden will probably not start until Thursday, owing to a break in the machinery which will require several days to repair. The decorating department has been in operation and will continue unless the supply of ware becomes exhausted.

AMONG THE WORKERS.

C. C. Smith, of the glost end at the Severs, has returned to work after being laid up for several days from poisoning caused by coming in contact with poison vines. His arms are still badly lacerated and it will be some days before he will entirely recover.

William Hollingshead, of the glost crew at McNeil's, who returned a few days ago from a trip to Atlantic City and New York, has resumed his work.

Tom Wilson, formerly of the decorating department at the Globe, has returned to this city after an extended visit with relatives at Sunbury, Pa.

NO INTERFERENCE FROM THE COURT

THE POINTS IN QUESTION

Discussed at Length and No Warrant Found For Preventing the Construction of the New Street Railway in This City.

Lisbon, July 29.—(Special.)—In his lengthy opinion given yesterday afternoon, Judge Hole dissolved the temporary injunction granted to Monroe Patterson some time ago against the city of East Liverpool, its officials and C. A. Smith, whereby Mr. Smith was enjoined from further work on another street railway line. The petition was dismissed at the plaintiff's cost.

Judge Hole held that a plaintiff in such a case can have relief from a court only when justice and equity require the interference of the court and said he was clearly of the opinion that interference from the court was not necessary in this case.

The plaintiff's attorneys at once gave notice of appeal to the circuit court and will shortly make application for a new trial in that court.

The claim of the plaintiff was that the meeting of council at which the ordinance was passed was illegal, because one of the members of council, George Peach, had not been notified, that the ordinance was invalid because part of the route was over private property, and that C. A. Smith held certain options on a portion of this private right of way prevented competitive bidding; that the bid of C. A. Smith was not the lowest bid for a franchise over the proposed route; that there was a variation between the route named in the original application and the franchise ordinance as it finally passed the council.

The court held that the meeting was a legal one, either considered an adjourned session of the regular meeting held the night before or as a called meeting; that the notice of the meeting, considering it a called one, which had been served at the store of Mr. Peach was notice enough, inasmuch as Mr. Peach was absent from the state, being then in Florida, and that this fact was well known to all the members of council, and that as the law does not require a vain thing the meeting would have been valid even if no notice had been served.

This conclusion was supported by the holdings of the supreme court of Connecticut in a case which was cited by the court.

With regard to the contention that the proposed route passed over private property for a part of the distance the court held that so far as it included the use of the streets the council had a right to pass it, and that unless the circumstances were such as to prevent competitive bidding the ordinance would not be invalid on that account. The court intimated that if it had been shown that such a part of right of way had been selected so as to have made it impossible for any bid the applicants for the franchise to bid, or if there had been any fraud or bad faith shown by the council that this would have rendered the ordinance invalid. The court held, however, that in the case no such fraud or want of good faith had been shown and that, as a matter of fact, there was competitive bidding by the only parties who seemed is always dangerous—do not submit to the surgeon's knife until you have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It will cure when everything else fails—it has done this in thousands of cases. Here is one of them: "I suffered from bleeding and protruding piles for 20 years. Was treated by different specialists and used many remedies, but obtained no relief until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes of this salve cured me 18 months ago and I have not had a touch of the piles since."—H. A. Tisdale, Summerton, S. C. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

Go Prepared.

In preparing for your summer outing a little forethought may save you no end of trouble. Mr. John H. Manly, a dry goods merchant, of Belleville, R. I., while packing an outfit for camping a few weeks on Narragansett Bay, put in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for emergency use. The second day in camp his little boy was taken with cramp colic. The first dose of this remedy gave relief and the second dose effected a cure. Think of the pain and suffering this boy would have had to endure without this remedy at hand to relieve him. Such cases often result fatally. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

EAST END

CONCESSION OF ALLEY WILL BE OPPOSED

East End People Think Thoroughfare
Leading to Proposed Depot Should Remain Public Property.

The fact that the new station for East End has been incorporated by the board of public service in the demands of the city to the C. & P. railroad company is causing general satisfaction. The proposed location at a point near the Laughlin pottery is satisfactory to a majority of the people but the attempt of the railroad company to extort possession of the alley leading to the proposed site will be bitterly opposed. As much as the new station is desired not one citizen could be found this morning in favor of giving up the alley to the company.

Should the railroad company be given possession of the alley every approach to the new station will be over company property, which will leave the corporation free to enforce such rules and regulations as it may care to impose. The alley is also valuable as a thoroughfare regardless of the location of the station. The people of the East End will protest against the alley being given exclusively to the railroad.

Will Hold a Rally.

The officers of the Sunday school of the Second United Presbyterian church have decided to hold a rally on the last Sunday in September and preparations are now being made for the event. Several days ago Superintendent D. Frank White invited John G. Quay, a former East End citizen and the first superintendent of the school, to be present and make an address. This morning he received a letter from Mr. Quay accepting the invitation.

A Nest of Snakes.

Lew Howard, George Harris and W. Wilson, of the East End street department, unearthed a nest of copper head snakes this morning while repairing a culvert near the eastern terminal of Pennsylvania avenue. The snakes which had accumulated in the culvert and when uncovered showed fight. The men had no trouble, however, in dispatching three of them.

Two Real Estate Deals.

The two deals in Chaffinville real estate, mentioned yesterday, have been closed. Miss Nettie Wilson has purchased the second house east of Howard's grocery store, of Alex. Chaffin, the consideration being $1,000. Another residence property near the grocery changed hands yesterday, passing to the control of John Hart. The consideration has not been made public.

Painfully Hurt.

D. Frank White was quite painfully injured last night by falling down a dark stairway, leading to the P. H. C. hall in the Larkins building. He made a misstep at the top landing and plunged headlong down the stairs, receiving several severe strains in his arms from which he has been suffering great pain.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Mrs. J. L. Fulton and children are visiting at Smith's Ferry.

Charles Gallagher moved to his new house in Dixonville this morning.

Mrs. Charles Herbert of Erie street, is reported seriously ill this morning.

Mrs. Porter Herbert, the Misses Temple and Audrey Vale are visiting relatives at Negley.

Mrs. Frank Oswald, of Pennsylvania avenue, is visiting relatives at Beaver Falls and Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Copeland and two children were the guests of Robert Baird and family yesterday.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whithney, of Pennsylvania avenue, is quite ill with cholera infantum.

Miss Ruby Smurthwaite, of St. George street, entertained a number of her young friends yesterday afternoon.

Officer Elza Dunn was a visitor to East End this morning and he called at the East End station for the first time since becoming a member of the force.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the Ben Hur band and last night the street around its room in the Fouts building was crowded with people bent on hearing the music.

Mrs. Seward, the lady who lost $17 in currency yesterday morning, has recovered her property. The purse was found by Wallie Kent of Laughlin No. 3, and returned to its owner.

Women love a clear, healthy complexion. Pure blood makes it. Pure Blood Bitters makes pure blood.

Red Cross Bag Blue should be in every home. Ask your grocer for it. Large package only 5c.

THE NEW WOMAN.

Mrs. EMMA MITCHELL.

Mrs. Emma Mitchell, 530 Louisiana street, Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "For the past five years I have rarely been without pain, but Peruna has changed all this, and in a very short time, I think I had taken only two bottles before I began to recuperate very quickly, and seven bottles made me well. I do not have headache or backache any more, and have some interest in life."

"The coming of what is known as the 'new woman' in our country is not greeted by everyone as if she were a great blessing. But there is another new woman whom everybody is glad to see. Every day some invalid woman is exclaiming, 'I have been made a new woman by Dr. Hartman's home treatment.' It is only necessary to send name, address, symptoms, duration of sickness and treatment already received to Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, and directions for one month's treatment will be promptly forwarded.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

PARTY UNITES FORCES

Amalgamate Into One
Body at Denver.

UNITED PEOPLES PARTY POLICY

All Past Differences Amicably Settled.

No Affiliation With Old Parties Will Be Tolerated—Patriotic Citizens Invited to Join in March to Victory.

Denver, July 29.—An amalgamation into one party was effected by the two factions of the Peoples party in national conference.

The following address was reported by the committee on resolutions and was adopted:

"The manifest unrest which everywhere appears in the nation demonstrates the dissatisfaction of the American people with the present management of government and argues the necessity of the reform forces coming together in united action at the ballot box to obtain proper legislation, whereby the right of the people to self government may be had for themselves and their posterity.

"Therefore, we, the Populists of the United States, having this day at the city of Denver united forces with the distinct understanding that all past differences as to policy shall be and now are permanently settled, and experience having demonstrated the futility of any attempt to secure the enactment of our truth either through the Republican or Democratic parties, we believe the time is now at hand when the united Peoples party should declare itself emphatically opposed to any affiliation with either of these parties and unqualifiedly in favor of national political action.

Principles Espoused.

"Our fundamental principles are known to all Populists, and are no where better stated than in that immortal document enunciated at Omaha, July 4, 1898. However, for the benefit of the uninformed, we declare our unyielding adherence to the demands for (a) a money, whether stamped on gold, silver or paper, to be coined and issued exclusively by the government and made a full legal tender for all debts, both public and private; (b) a system of transportation and the transmission of intelligence owned by the public and operated by the government at the cost of service; (c) land for use rather than for speculation and abolition of alien ownership of land; (d) American ships for American foreign commerce, without a cent of subsidy.

"And as an open door for all economic reforms we urge the rule of the people through the optional referendum and initiative and the recall of derelict officials.

"Confident in the justice of the principles here set forth, firmly confident that their triumph in government would be for the best interests of the people, we call upon the patriotic citizens of this country to join with us in bringing about their enactment into law. With these principles firmly established, equal justice would prevail, special privileges would be eliminated and ours would be, as patriots everywhere desire, a government of the people, for the people, by the people."

Troops Retained at Danville.

Springfield, Ill., July 29.—Governor Yates, who has been in Europe for nearly two months, arrived in the city and went to the executive office, where he received the report of Adjutant General Scott on the situation at Danville. Attorney General Hamlin had previously held a conference with the adjutant general and had advised the retention of the troops there for an indefinite period, as trouble might arise when the local officers arrested the ringleaders of the mob which attacked the jail. Governor Yates agreed that it would be better to retain the troops at Danville indefinitely.

Drowned in St. Clair River.

Port Huron, Mich., July 29.—Mrs. George Taylor, of Sarnia, Ont., and Jennie Thompson, a small child from this city, were drowned in the St. Clair river on the Canadian side. The Thompson child while wading in the water was caught in the swift current and taken into deep water. Mrs. Taylor, in her attempt to rescue the child, was also swept away and both were lost.

Jury Secured.

Cynthiana, Ky., July 29.—The jury to try Curtis Jett and Thomas White has been completed and accepted by both sides. All are farmers except one, who is a bookkeeper. The defense filed a demurrer to the indictment, but it was overruled. The defendants then waived formal arraignment and pleaded not guilty. After the jury was sworn, court adjourned.

Fear Students Are Drowned.

Beaumont, Muskoka, Ont., July 29.—Joseph Hosack, of Carnegie, Pa., a Princeton student; Walter Mehard, of Mercer, Pa., a student of Johns-Hopkins, with a cousin of Hosack's, set out from Gravenhurst in a canoe on Sunday. The paddles and Mehard's coat were picked up on the lake. It is feared all three have been drowned.

Engagement Announced.

Paris, July 29.—The engagement of Minister of Marine Pelletan to Mlle. De Niese, a teacher in a Paris school, is announced. It is stated that marriage will take place at the end of August.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

Solo college commencement August 9 to 13.

John Cassidy, aged 16, was killed by an Erie train at Hubbard.

Ell Myers, a well known resident of North Georgetown, is dead, aged 56. Conrad Berg's pretzel factory, a stable and residence at Leetonia, were burned. Loss, $5,000.

Albert Birch, who shot his brother Samuel at Rush Run fatally, has not yet been captured.

James Coleman, an ex-bank president of Massillon, is dead, aged 77. He was a close friend of President McKinley.

Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Unger (nee Sarah Jane Eaton) celebrated their golden wedding at Homeworth. They have three sons and one daughter.

L. R. Benjamin, formerly a newspaper man of Hanoverton, who is now publishing the Weekly Record at Milverna, proposes making a stock company of the concern.

William Lanan, of Alliance, well known to the bicycle riders as an expert in that line, was asphyxiated by sewer gas at some point in Indiana and his remains sent home.

Rev. F. P. Hummel, of Toronto, one of the leading ministers of the Methodist Protestant church, has been called to the pastorate of the Birmingham Methodist Protestant church, South side, Pittsburg, to succeed Rev. J. A. Johnson, resigned.

FREAK OF A DRUNKEN GENERAL

Panama Revolution Result of Scotch High Dalls and Vivid Imagination.

Washington, July 29.—The Panama revolution last Saturday night, in view of information received, resembles a page from comic opera. General Vasquez Cobos, who overthrew the government for a day, arrested most of the estimable local officers, sent the governor dying in his pajamas into the shrubbery to escape a dungeon, it seems now did not know what he was doing.

The truth is that General Cobos had dined to well, and not being used to Scotch high dalls, lost his head and decided that affairs in Panama were not going to suit him. He accordingly ordered his army of 10 men under arms and overthrew the government.

When General Cobos got sober Sunday evening everything looked gray and gloomy. He did not remember what he had done. He realized that something unusual had taken place when an officer appeared at the head of his army of 10 men and placed him under arrest. He has been removed from office and will be tried by court-martial.

All this was told in a cable message received from Panama. General Cobos does not seem to have been the only one who lost his head during the toisterous doing in Panama.

Catarrh of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucus, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called catarrh of the stomach. "For years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Koiloc Dyspepsia Cure."—J. R. Rhea Coppel, Texas. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

Surrendered to the Government.

Caracas, Venezuela, July 29.—General Antonio Ramos, one of the last of the chiefs of the revolution to remain in the field, who had a camp near Santa Lucia, has surrendered to the government, together with 400 men, their arms and ammunition.

Killed in Drunken Quarrel.

Gillette, Wyo., July 29.—In a drunken quarrel among a number of Italians at Felix, six miles west of here, two men were killed and another so badly wounded that he will probably die.

Ten thousand demons gnawing away at one's vitals couldn't be much worse than the tortures of itching piles. Yet there's a cure. Doan's ointment never fails.

OHIO G. A. R. SPECIAL.

Rheumatism

"THE PAIN KING."

Those who have ever felt its keen, cutting pains, or witnessed the intense suffering of others, know that Rheumatism is torture, and that it is rightly called "The King of Pain."

All do not suffer alike. Some are suddenly seized with the most excruciating pains, and it seems every muscle and joint in the body was being torn asunder. Others feel only occasional slight pains for weeks or months, when a sudden change in the weather or exposure to damp, chilly winds or night air brings on a fierce attack, lasting for days perhaps, and leaving the patient with a weakened constitution or crippled and deformed for all time.

An acid, polluted condition of the blood is the cause of every form and variety of Rheumatism, Muscular, Articular, Acute, Chronic, Inflammatory and Sciatic, and the blood must be purged and purified before there is an end to your aches and pains. External applications, the use of liniments and plasters, do much toward temporary relief, but such treatment does not reach the real cause or cleanse the diseased blood; but S. S. S., the greatest of all blood purifiers and tonics, does cure Rheumatism by antidoting and neutralizing the poisonous acids and building up the weak and sluggish blood. It is safe and reliable in all forms of Rheumatism. It makes the old acid blood rich, and the pain-tortured muscles and joints are relieved, the shattered nerves are made strong, and the entire system is invigorated and toned up by the use of this great vegetable remedy.

If you have Rheumatism, write us, and our physicians will furnish without charge any information desired, and we will mail free our book on Rheumatism.

KILLS THE GERMS—CURES DYSPEPSIA—50 CENTS AND $1.00—ALL DRUGGISTS. MANUFACTORY: CLEVELAND, OHIO

BLOOD DISEASE CURED.

If you ever contracted any Blood or Private Disease, you are never safe until the virus of poison has been eradicated from the system. Don't be satisfied with a "patch up" by some family doctor. Our New Method is guaranteed to CURE or No Pay. NO MEDICINE USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT.

Cured When All Else Failed

"Could I live my early life over, this testimonial would not be necessary, though I was no more afloat than thousands of other young men. Early indiscretions, later excesses, exposure to contagious diseases all helped to break down my system. When I commenced to realize my condition I was almost frantic. Doctor after doctor treated me but only gave me relief—not a cure. His Sprague helped me, but did not cure me. The symptoms always returned. Mercury and Potash drove the poison into my system instead of driving it out. I bless the day your New Method Treatment was recommended to me. I investigated who you were first, and finding you had over 25 years' experience and responsible financially, I gave you my case under a guarantee. You cured me permanently, and in six weeks there has not been a return, pain, ulcer or any other symptom of the blood disease."

Council still has 10 days to deliberate before taking action on the mayor's veto of the police ordinance. If council really desires to fulfill the mission for which it was chosen and serve the people according to the people's wishes, it yet has a chance to redeem itself by revoking its hasty and foolish ordinance reducing the police force. Nobody has asked for a reduction in the number of patrolmen. The city could use twice as many as it now has and use them to advantage. The mayor, in his veto message, says what no one can gainsay or dispute when he declares that no part of the city is now given adequate police protection, and that an increase in the number of patrolmen would be far more reasonable and desirable than a reduction. Council's hasty action and the motive thereof are both well understood. But the task it has set for itself—to get rid of an efficient and popular chief of police—is going to be far more difficult than council thought, and the people of East Liverpool who want to see all the laws enforced impartially and fearlessly hope that it will be found impossible. Council has had time to listen to reason and to learn public sentiment. If its members are not altogether deaf to reason and argument and blind to the best interests of the city and careless whether law or lawlessness shall rule, they will certainly not reduce the police force. They must be fully aware that they have made a grievous mistake, but it is not too late to make amends.

Louisville appears to be the starting point for a crusade against the gum-chewing habit among working women. The telephone company of the Falls City has strictly forbidden its use, for the reason that it makes the operators nervous and irritable, and unfit them for quiet, steady work. Other employers of women are making the same rule. The hotels have nearly all prohibited the practice, and the business houses are taking it up. There is an argument more likely to prevail with women than the effect upon nerves. If a pretty girl understood just how much the gum-chewing habit detracts from her good looks she would never indulge in it.

The suggestion of a monument to the soldier dead of Columbiana county is a good one. The patriotic orders throughout the county ought to take it up and act upon it at once. East Liverpool has fine memorials to its departed heroes, but another at the county seat, which should speak to the world of the heroism and patriotism of the whole county would be most appropriate. There are few counties in the whole union with a grander military record, and the wonder is that the project has been so long neglected.

King Edward has made his first visit to Londonderry and learned what an Irish welcome is like. He is the first English sovereign to visit that part of the British realm. The good feeling evoked strongly suggests that it might pay the king to spend a good deal more of his time in traveling about and getting acquainted with his subjects.

The two factions of the Populist party held a convention at Denver and formed a fusion. Lucky that the action was taken at this time, as in a short time at the present rate of declamation there would not be anything left to unite.

The Toledo Blade believes that Tom Johnson's nomination for governor would add at least 10,000 to the plurality for Herrick. The Blade is usually well informed on politics, but its estimate in this case is far too low.

A Columbus paper announces that four East Liverpool councilmen have tendered their resignations. This news belongs to the class that is too good to be true.

New street railway projects continue to multiply. East Liverpool will soon have rapid transit facilities equal to any city of its size anywhere.

Ohio Tablets for Chickamauga.

Chattanooga, July 29.—General H. V. Boynton, of the Chickamauga park commission, concluded the work of locating the points at which are to be erected the tablets by the state of Ohio marking the various locations of the Ohio troops during the battle of Chickamauga. The line of markers extends from Rossville along the ridge to Sherman Heights and there will be 72 of them, one for each of the regiments and batteries from Ohio which participated in the battle.

Explosion Kills Two Women.

Columbus, O., July 29.—An explosion of natural gas in the rear of Cordell's saloon killed Mrs. Wilhelmina Lewis and Mrs. Fred A. Grebl and injured half a dozen men. The first explosion was followed by other and smaller ones, setting fire to the debris. The saloon building was wrecked and with it the famous dye house. Both women were working in the latter place. Their bodies were buried in the debris.

Charles Hay Improving.

Springfield, Ill., July 29.—The condition of former Mayor Charles Hay, who has been seriously ill at Harbor Point, Mich., and on whom an operation was believed to be necessary, is greatly improved and it is thought no operation will be needed. Mr. Hay is a brother of Secretary of State Hay.

Peruvian Congress Opened.

Lima, Peru, July 29.—President Romanos opened the new Peruvian congress amid a great demonstration from the populace. In connection with the opening of congress the anniversary of the independence of the republic, which was declared July 28, 1821, was celebrated.

Race Riot in Lorain.

Lorain, O., July 29.—A fierce riot in which a mob of 200 whites chased two colored men, threatening to lynch them, took place here. Two colored men, Charles Hill and Robert Pleasant, became involved in an altercation with a white man named Daniel Cronan. One of the colored men drew a razor and cut Cronan severely on the face and neck. A mob immediately gathered and the negroes were chased over the entire south end of the city. One of them taking refuge in a saloon, the entire front of which was battered in with stones. The negro escaped. Later Pleasant was arrested and taken by side streets to the local station, where he was locked up, while the crowd still continued their search, a number of shots being fired.

BURIED HIS OWN CHILD

Father Called to Account For Burying An Infant in a Back Yard.

Frank P. Mason, who resides with his family in one of John Wooster's houses at the extreme west end of Stepien's street, appeared before the board of health last evening in answer to the charge of having buried a child in the yard in the rear of his home on Monday morning, July 29.

Mason pleaded guilty to the charge and explained. He stated that his wife gave birth to a child. Dr. McConnell was at once called, but the child lived but a few minutes. He says that he consulted the physician on the matter, but asked him if the child could not be buried in his rear yard. The doctor, so Mason states, said that it was not a customary way, but said that he saw no reason why it could not be done.

Mason stated that he was not financially able to have a funeral. He wrapped the infant's body in a sheet and after digging a grave and preparing a rough box, interred it.

After much discussion the board of health decided to release Mason upon his promise to secure a death certificate and a burial permit and have the child reburied. This he agreed to do.

HELP IS SCARCE

Carroll Porter Works Cannot Get the Number of Men Needed.

The Carroll Porter boiler works at the lower end of town are exceedingly prosperous and judging from the amount of orders which are pouring in daily, the plant will be rushed with work during the balance of the summer and in the fall season.

The company has been endeavoring during the past month to secure men enough to relieve the present situation of affairs, but its efforts have been in vain, and it is forced to work with the regular supply of help. Advertisements have been printed in a number of dailies both east and west, but no results have been derived. The manager of the firm and the traveling representatives have even gone into New York state to secure help and laborers, but they find the situation there the same as elsewhere—everyone has work and none are anxious to change to Wellsville.

or presided. Members Parke, Tarr, Ashley, Taylor and McQueen were present. The health report for June was read and showed but few cases of contagious diseases and only a few deaths.

The health officer, Dr. Tarr, reported that a stagnant pool of water had remained on the vacant lot on Thirteenth street, where Dr. Cooper recently held his show, for several days and that steps should be taken to have it removed. It was also reported that similar pools of water had been allowed to remain on the property of James Plue on Eighteenth street and also on his property on Main street.

Secretary Taylor was ordered to notify the owners of these properties to appear at a special meeting to be held next Tuesday evening and show cause for allowing their property to remain in such a bad condition.

A petition was received signed by a number of property owners living in the vicinity of Third and Commerce streets, asking that the vault on the Lawson property on Third street, now being used by the Italian settlement there, be attended to at once. Dr. Tarr was instructed to investigate and take whatever steps are needed.

BOOKS ARE MISSING

And the City Auditor Refuses to Make a New Set as Directed.

A meeting of the tax commission was held last evening in the office of Judge P. M. Smith. The principal object was to ascertain the amount of the sinking fund. Treasurer T. R. Andrews was present and reported $10,000 on hand. A question came up as to what had become of the books formerly kept by City Clerk McQueen which contain the record of all bonds issued by the city. The books should have been placed in the hands of City Auditor McGregor, but he stated that he had never received them. Mr. McQueen stated that he had turned the books over to the former city solicitor, Frank L. Wells. Mr. Wells, in turn, stated that the books, when last seen by him, had been placed in Mr. McQueen's hands. Finally the members of the commission decided to request Auditor McGregor to fill out new books, giving a complete record.

McGregor was present at the meeting and positively refused to do this. It was finally decided to allow council to settle the matter.

KNOWS MI-O-NA

WILL DO GOOD

Will Reed Has Such Faith in This Remarkable Flesh-Forming Food That He Sells It Under Guarantee.

It is an unusual thing for a druggist to sell a medicine under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction, yet this is the way Will Reed, whose word is as good as his bond, is selling Mi-o-na, the remarkable flesh-forming food and cure for dyspepsia.

Never before has he had so large a number of customers tell him that a medicine has cured, as since he began selling Mi-o-na.

There is no longer any need of anyone's suffering or making their friends suffer because of stomach trouble or distressing thinness.

Mi-o-na can be relied upon to regulate and strengthen the digestive organs and to build up good, solid, beautiful flesh. Will Reed takes all the risk by selling this preparation under a guarantee to return the money, if it does not give satisfaction. He will sign an agreement to this effect, and take your word as to whether Mi-o-na cures or not.

Headaches, all forms of indigestion, specks before the eyes, dizzy feeling, ringing in the ears, all forms of liver troubles, emaciation, and general run-down conditions are cured by Mi-o-na. A few days' treatment shows a considerable gain in health, and a cure speedily follows.

Now is the best time in the whole year for the enjoyment of good health. Use Mi-o-na and you will soon be in such perfect condition that you can enjoy every minute.

time all financial business connected with the celebration will be settled up. Complete reports will be made by the different committees.

Sold By the Sheriff.

The property known as the First estate and located on Broadway between Third and Fourth streets was sold yesterday afternoon by Sheriff C. P. Leonard to W. C. Fraser for $1,500. It was a foreclosure sale and was attended by quite a large crowd, among whom were several bidders.

SOUTH SIDE

WITH PAVED STREETS BUT NO SIDEWALKS

Peculiar Condition of Affairs in Chester to Which Council's Attention Will Be Called.

A peculiar condition of affairs exists in Chester just at present due to the fact that the town has proceeded with the paving of its principal streets without giving attention to the sidewalks, and the result is there are few of the property owners who have to the present paid attention to this important matter.

It is doubtful if there is a similar instance on record, and it may be that council will be required to take some vigorous action in order to make the streets passable before the bad weather sets in next fall. Beginning at the lower end of the town the paving of the streets has been completed on Virginia avenue, First and Second streets and on Carolina avenue its entire length. In the east end of the corporation the paving has been completed for months, and in this locality sidewalks have also been laid, but on the thoroughfares mentioned first the sidewalks on a very small portion of their length have been laid. Residents have been wont to register many kicks concerning the condition of the streets of the town, and council was urged to begin the work long before a start was made in order to avoid the mud. Now, it is said, there will be no end of trouble in inducing the property owners along paved streets to lay their sidewalks. Except in front of a few of the business establishments no paving has been done and the improved thoroughfares present a very shabby appearance owing to the rugged condition of the space intended for the footpath.

It will not be a great while until the residents will be compelled to contend with the mud once more, and it is presumed the tardy ones expect to use the paved streets as a means of getting to and from their homes. This will be anything but satisfactory, since they must leave the middle of the street and travel over the unpaved sidewalk in order to reach the yards. Council will be urged to take some action at once.

DIRECTORS CHOSEN

For the New Industrial Bank Soon to Be Opened at Chester.

A stockholders' meeting was held yesterday afternoon and the officers and directors of the Industrial Bank of West Virginia, to be located in Chester, were elected.

The stockholders with but few exceptions are citizens of Chester, and the institution gives promise of being one of the most substantial and successful in this part of the state.

Steps were taken yesterday for the opening of the bank at once. A committee was appointed which will secure and get in readiness temporary quarters. Another committee will draft a set of by-laws for the government of the new institution.

The officers elected are as follows: President—John A. Campbell, of New Cumberland.

First Vice President—J. N. Finley.

Second Vice President—Dr. G. E. Lewis.

Cashier—O. O. Allison.

Directors—Mart Miller, T. W. Stewart, James Porter, C. F. Allison, John R. Donohoe, of New Cumberland; J. H. Maxwell, John E. Newell, John D. Stewart, T. R. Cunningham, G. R. Ahrends, Alex. B. Allison, of Chester.

O. O. Allison, who has been selected as cashier, has been one of the most successful business men in Chester for several years. He is a young man of extraordinary business tact, is energetic and has a wide acquaintance. The directors made a wise selection.

Since the announcement was made that the bank would be a certainty, the scramble for stock has been remarkable, and at present there are but 19 shares upon the market. The sale has been to local parties exclusively, and the concern will be purely a Chester institution.

Allison & Hobbs, Prominent Chester Merchants, Dispose of Their Store.

The deal was closed this morning which transfers the business establishment of Allison & Hobbs to J. C. Lewis & Co., and the stock is being involved today preparatory to turning over the property to the new owner.

The establishment is one of the oldest and most prosperous in Chester, and since its removal from the old stand in the west end of town to the present commodious quarters on Virginia avenue has been more successful than ever. The deal has been pending for several months, but it was only after Mr. Allison, the senior partner, had been elected to the

STAGE MANAGER CONE

Joe Bradley, Connected With the Park Theatre, Has Strangely Disappeared.

Stage Manager Joe Bradley, who has had charge of the Rock Springs theatre during the present season, has disappeared from the city, and though his friends have exerted every effort to locate him, they have to the present failed to do so. He disappeared last Monday, and is said to have gone to Pittsburg.

When last seen Bradley had considerable money in his possession, having just received his salary, and it is feared by some that he met with foul play. He is a good workman and his standing with his employers was of the very best. He had been negotiating with the Blondells to handle their stage effects next season, and it was thought he had gone on to join the company, but word from the management states that he has not yet put in an appearance.

Postoffice Improvements.

Business has become so brisk at the Chester postoffice that it was necessary to add to the facilities, and this week 16 combination lock boxes and 32 receptacles of the ordinary sort were placed in position. These with the 47 boxes already a part of the equipment of the office, will enable Postmaster Johnston and his able corps of clerks to handle the increasing business in a most satisfactory manner. Since taking possession of the postoffice at Chester Mr. Johnston has nearly doubled the amount of business and made the branch one of the most important in the county.

No Fair at Bethany.

The suspension of the Bethany fair will be quite a disappointment to the citizens of Chester, who generally attended the exhibition and had a social time, but these days non-paying arrangements people do not take much account of, but Bergetstown will be on hand as usual and always draws large crowds.

THE TOOLS LOST

More Hard Luck for the Drillers at the Hadley Farm Oil and Gas Well.

The drillers in the employ of the Chester Oil & Gas company have encountered the first hard luck since beginning the well on the Hadley farm, and at about 1 o'clock last night the tools were lost.

It had been anticipated that the well would be in this morning, and doubtless it would had the mishap not befallen the crew. The trouble is of a more serious character than usual, since the hole is so small that it may be impossible to get hold of the lost tools. Immediate steps were taken, however, to get possession of the missing apparatus, and no time will be lost in the fishing operations.

Testing a New Field.

An oil well being drilled on the Max Melvin lease, near Nessley chapel, has reached a point where there are very good indications of oil in paying quantities. The field will be further developed at once.

CHESTER NOTES.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Bennett this morning.

The Methodist Episcopal Sunday school of Sharpsburg, Pa., is picnicking at Rock Springs today. Eight coaches were required to transport the large crowd, and the excursion arrived at about 10:30.

A little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Davis is ill at their home on Carolina avenue.

Tom Needham, of Steubenville, Signs With Boston Nationals.

Tom Needham, one of the best ball players that has been turned out by Steubenville, is now a member of the National league, having been signed by Manager A. C. Buckenberger to catch. He will be used at once by Boston, as Pat Moran has been doing all the catching since Kittredge was released after a month ago. Boston is way down in the league race, and Needham will have a splendid chance to make good. During the present season he has been the star catcher of Altoona, where he played yesterday for the last time with that team.

Since he was a boy Needham has been playing ball, having been a member of all the old Acme teams. The past three years he has been playing in minor league teams and has been holding his own with all the catchers in the smaller league. Until a year or so ago his only drawback was his hitting, but since he quit the Acme and gave up all his time to base ball, he has developed into a strong batter and can line out his hits with the best men on the teams with which he plays.

The success of Needham is due to his temperate habits, one of the essentials to good work on the diamond, and it is hoped that he will prove a valuable find for Buckenberger. Then, too, he richly deserves success. Needham is an all-around athlete, having been a member of all the base ball, foot ball and basket ball teams that were organized in Steubenville.

An Exciting Game.

In an exciting game of base ball last night the team representing the George F. Brunt works was defeated by the Pleasant Heights team on the latter's grounds. The score was 8 to 7, and was hard fought throughout.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

The latest table of National league averages shows a pretty fight on for batting honors between Bennington, Bresnahan, Steinfeldt and Wagner.

Prominent horsemen and pool sellers will not stay in Cleveland this week for the races, because of the decision prohibiting the selling of pools.

The eyes of all lovers of the harness horses will be turned to Cleveland today, when Billings' famous mare, Lou Dillon, will be driven against the world's record, held by Crescens.

Tommy Ryan denies that his purpose in going behind Jim Corbett next month is to gratify spite he feels toward Jeffries. Tommy says he went to the Pacific coast for his health.

Pitcher Elliston, of the Zanesville team, has attached his signature to a contract with the Boston National league club. Elliston is one of the best semi-professional twirlers in the state.

It is considered probable that Bob Fitzsimmons, who was married last week for the third time, will cover the $5,000 posted by George Gardner for a match. Most followers of the ring believe that Fitz will win, but Gardner has faith in himself.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspaper is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid, rheumatism and all the ailments of the urinary system. It has been tested in many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper can have a bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address Birmingham, N. Y., on every bottle.

Boy Shoots Instructor.

St. Louis, O., July 29.—One of the pupils of the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan Home, little Vernon Little, 14, shot twice at Major Oliver May, the military instructor and state policeman at the home, severely wounding him. It happened while the major was unlocking a door preparatory to shutting Little in a room as punishment for having run away from the home. A .32 caliber revolver was used.

Payne's Health Improved.

Oyster Bay, July 29.—Postmaster General Payne, who is cruising along the North Atlantic coast in the revenue cutter Onondaga, will visit the president probably on Thursday or Friday. He will return to Washington from here and will resume his duties in the department next Monday. It is understood that Mr. Payne's health has improved materially since his last illness.

Synopsis of Preceding Chapters.

CHAPTER I.—Grenfall Lorry, a wealthy American globe trotter, stumbles into acquaintance with a girl using foreign girl on the train from Denver to Washington. The pair are left behind when the train stops for repairs in West Virginia. Lorry wires ahead to hold the train. He and the unknown girl ride twenty miles at a tearing pace in a mountain coach. There is no love-making, but a near approach to it as the rolling stage tumbles the passengers about.

CHAPTER III.

MISS GUGGENLOCKER. HE laughed, looking down into her serious, upturned face. She broke away from him and threw herself into the arms of tall, excited Uncle Caspar. The conductor, several trainmen and a few eager passengers came up, the former crusty and snappish.

"Well, get aboard!" he growled. "We can't wait all night."

The young lady looked up quickly, her sensitive face cringing beneath the rough command. Lorry stepped instantly to the conductor's side, shook his finger vigorously under his nose and exclaimed in no uncertain tones:

"Now, that's enough from you! If I hear another word out of you, I'll make you sweat blood before tomorrow morning. Understand, my friend."

"Aw, who are you?" demanded the conductor belligerently.

"You'll learn that soon enough. After this you'll have sense enough to find out whom you are talking to before you open that mouth of yours. Not another word!" Mr. Grenfall Lorry was not president of the road, nor was he in any way connected with it, but his well assumed air of authority caused the trainman's fire to dissolve at once.

"Excuse me, sir. I've been worried to death on this run. I meant no offense. That old gentleman has threatened to kill me. Just now he took out his watch and said if I did not run back for his niece in two minutes he'd call me out and run me through. I've been nearly crazy here. For the life of me I don't see how you happened to see—"

"Oh, that's all right. Let's be off," cried Lorry, who had fallen some distance behind his late companion and her uncle. Hurrying after them, he reached her side in time to assist her in mounting the car steps.

"Thank you," smiling down upon him breathlessly. At the top of the steps she was met by her aunt, behind whom stood the anxious man servant and the maid. Into the coach she was drawn by the relieved old lady, who was critically inspecting her personal appearance when Lorry and the foreigner entered.

"Ach, it was so wild and exhilarating, Aunt Yvonne," the girl was saying, her eyes sparkling. She stood straight and firm, her chin in the air, her hands in those of her aunt. The little traveling cap was on the side of her head, her hair was loose and very much awry, strands straying here, curls blowing there in utter confusion. Lorry fairly gasped with admiration for the loveliness that would not be vanquished.

"We came like the wind. I shall never, never forget it," she said.

"But how could you have remained there, child? Tell me how it happened. We have been frantic," said her aunt, half in English, half in German.

"Not now, dear Aunt Yvonne. See my hair! What a fright I must be! Fortunately, your hair cannot be so unruly as mine. Oh!" The exclamation was one of alarm. In an instant she was at his side, peering with terrified eyes at the bloodstains on his neck and face. "It is blood! You are hurt! Uncle Caspar, Hedrick—quick! Attend him! Come to my room at once. You are suffering. Minna, find bandages!"

She dragged him to the door of her section before he could interpose a remonstrance.

"It is nothing—a mere scratch. Bumped my head against the side of the coach. Please don't worry about it; I can care for myself. Really, it doesn't—"

"But it does! It has bled terribly. Sit there! Now, Hedrick, some water." Hedrick rushed off and was back in a moment with a basin of water, a sponge and a towel, and before Grenfall fully knew what was happening the man servant was bathing his head, the others looking on anxiously, the young lady apprehensively, her hands clasped before her as she bent over to inspect the wound above his ear.

"It is quite an ugly cut," said Uncle Caspar critically. "Does it pain you, sir?"

"Oh, not a great deal," answered Lorry, closing his eyes comfortably. It was all very pleasant, he thought. Hedrick did not have stitches. Uncle Caspar? asked the sweet, eager voice. "I think not. The flow is stanching. If the gentleman will allow Hedrick to trim the hair away for a plaster and then bandage it I think the wound will give him no trouble." The old man spoke slowly and in very good English.

"Really, uncle, is it not serious?"

"No, no," interposed Grenfall Lorry. "I knew it was a trifle. You cannot break an American's head. Let me go to my own section, and I'll be ready to present myself as good as new in ten minutes."

"You lucky dog!"

He could feel the dank sweat of disappointment starting on his brow. A butcher—a beer maker—a cobbler—a gardener—all synonyms of Guggenlocker. A sausage manufacturer's niece—Miss Guggenlocker! He tried to glance unconcernedly at her as he took up his napkin, but his eyes wandered helplessly. She was looking serenely at him, yet he fancied he saw a shadow of mockery in her blue eyes.

AT HOME IN COLORADO

In Colorado the days are never hot; the nights are always cool.

That is one reason why 50,000 people go there every summer, and why they stay there anywhere from two weeks to two months.

Colorado isn't far away—if you take the Rock Island. And the cost of getting there is not great. Low rates daily, June 1 to Sept. 30. Information and literature on request.

Rock Island System Phil. A. Amer. D. P. A., 415 Park Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa.

"If you were a novel writer, Mr. Lorry, what manner of heroine would you choose?" she asked, with a smile so tantalizing that he understood instinctively why she was reviving a topic once abandoned. His confusion was increased. Her uncle and aunt were regarding him calmly—expectantly, he imagined.

"I—I have no ambition to be a novel writer," he said, "so I have not made a study of heroines."

"But you would have an ideal," she persisted.

"I'm sure I—I don't—that is, she would not necessarily be a heroine. Unless, of course, it would require heroism to pose as an ideal for such a prosaic fellow as I."

"To begin with, you would call her Clarabel Moore or something equally as impossible. You know the name of a heroine in a novel must be euphonic. That is an exacting rule. It was an open taunt, and he could see that she was enjoying his discomfiture. It aroused his indignation and his wits.

"I would first give my hero a distinguished name. No matter what the heroine's name might be, pretty or otherwise, I could easily change it to his in the last chapter." She flushed beneath his now bright, keen eyes and the ready though unexpected retort. Uncle Caspar placed his napkin to his lips and coughed. Aunt Yvonne studiously inspected her bill of fare. "No matter what you call a rose, it is always sweet," he added meaningfully.

At this she laughed good naturedly. He marveled at her white teeth and red lips. A rose, after all, Guggenlocker, rose; rose, not Guggenlocker. No, not a rose only! He fancied he caught a sly look of triumph in her uncle's swift glance toward her. But Uncle Caspar was not a rose. He was Guggenlocker. Guggenlocker—bitcher! Still he did not look the part; no, indeed. That extraordinary man, a butcher, a gardener, a—and Aunt Yvonne? Yet they were Guggenlockers.

"Here is the waiter," the girl observed to his relief. "I am famished after my pleasant drive. It was so bracing, was it not, Mr. Grenfall Lorry?"

"Give me a mountain ride always as an appetizer," he said obligingly, and so ended the just about dinner.

The orders for the dinner were given, and the quartet sat back in their chairs to await the coming of the soup. Grenfall was still wondering how she had learned his name, and was on the point of asking several times during the conventional discussion of the weather, the train and the mountains. He considerably refrained, however, unwilling to embarrass her.

"Aunt Yvonne tells me she never expected to see me alive after the station agent telegraphed that we were coming overland in that awful old carriage. The agent at P— says it is a dangerous road, at the very edge of the mountain. He also increased the composure of my uncle and aunt by telling them that a wagon rolled off yesterday, killing a man, two women and two horses. Dear Aunt Yvonne, how troubled you must have been!"

"I'll confess there were times when I thought we were rolling down the mountain," said Lorry, with a relieved shake of the head.

"Sometimes I thought we were soaring through space, whether upward or downward I could not tell. We never failed to come to earth, though, did we?" she laughingly asked.

"Euphatically! Earth and a little grief," he said, putting his hand to his head.

"Does it pain you?" she asked quickly.

"Not in the least. I was merely feeling to see if the cut were still there. Mr. Guggenlocker, did the conductor object to holding the train?" he asked, remembering what the conductor had told him of the old gentleman's actions.

"At first, but I soon convinced him that it should be held," said the other quickly.

"My husband spoke very harshly to the poor man," added Aunt Yvonne. "But I am afraid, Caspar, he did not understand a word you said. You were very much excited." The sweet old lady's attempts at English were much more laborious than her husband's.

"If he did not understand my English he was very good at guessing," said her husband grimly.

"He told me you had threatened to call him out," ventured the young man. "Call him out? Ach, a railroad conductor?" exclaimed Uncle Caspar in line scorn.

"Caspar, I heard you say that you would call him out," interposed his wife, with reproving eyes.

"Ach, God! I have made a mistake! I see it all! It was the other word I meant—down, not out! I intended to call him down, as you Americans say. I hope he will not think I challenged him." He was very much perturbed.

"I think he was afraid you would," said Lorry.

"He should have no fear. I could not meet a railroad conductor. Will you please tell him I could not so condescend. Besides, dueling is murder in your country, I am told."

"It usually is, sir. Much more so than in Europe." The others looked at him inquiringly. "I mean that in America when two men pull their revolvers and go to shooting at each other some one is killed—frequently both. In Europe, as I understand it, a scratch with a sword ends the combat."

"You have been misinformed," exclaimed Uncle Caspar, his eyebrows elevated.

"Why, Uncle Caspar has fought more duels than he can count," cried the girl proudly.

"And has he slain his man every time?" asked Grenfall smilingly, glancing from one to the other. Aunt Yvonne shot a reproving look at the girl, whose face paled instantly, her eyes going quickly in affright to the face of her uncle.

"God! Lorry heard the old gentleman mutter. He was looking at his bill of fare, but his eyes were fixed and staring. The card was crumpling between the long, bony fingers. The American realized that a forbidden topic had been touched upon.

"He has fought and he has slain," he thought as quick as a flash. "He is no butcher, no gardener, no cobbler. That's certain!"

"Tell us, Uncle Caspar, what you said to the conductor," cried the young lady nervously.

"Tell them, Caspar, how alarmed we were," added soft voiced Aunt Yvonne. Grenfall was a silent, interested spectator. He somehow felt as if a scene from some tragedy had been reproduced in that briefest of moments. Calmly and composedly, a half smile now in his face, the soldierly Caspar narrated the story of the train's run from one station to the other.

fashion. I rushed to the platform, meeting Hedrick, who was as much alarmed as I. He said the train had been flagged and that there must be something wrong. Your aunt came out and told me that she had made a strange discovery."

Grenfall observed that he was addressing himself exclusively to the young lady.

"She had found that the gentleman in the next section was also missing. While we were standing there in doubt and perplexity the train came to a standstill, and soon there was shouting on the outside. I climbed down from the car and saw that we were at a little station. The conductor came running toward me excitedly.

"Is the young lady in the car?" he asked.

"No. For heaven's sake, what have you heard?" I cried.

"Then she has been left at O—," he exclaimed, and used some very extraordinary American words.

"I then informed him that he should run back for you, first learning that you were alive and well. He said he would be d—d if he would—pardon the word, ladies. He was very angry and said he would give orders to go ahead, but I told him I would demand restitution of his government. He laughed in my face, and then I became shamelessly angry. I said to him: 'Sir, I shall call you down'—not out, as you have said—and I shall run you through the mill."

"That was good American talk, sir, was it not, Mr. Lorry? I wanted him to understand me, so I tried to use your very best language. Some gentlemen who are traveling on this train and some very excellent ladies also joined in the demand that the train be held. His dispatch from O— said that you, Mr. Lorry, insisted on having it held for twenty minutes. The conductor insulted you, sir, by saying that you had more—ah, what is it?—gall than any idiot he had ever seen. When he said that, although I did not fully understand that it was a reflection on you, so ignorant am I of your language, I took occasion to tell him that you were a gentleman and a friend of mine. He asked me your name, but as I did not know it I could only tell him that he would learn it soon enough. Then he said something which has puzzled me ever since. He told me to close my face. What did he mean by that, Mr. Lorry?"

"Well, Mr. Guggenlocker, that means in refined American 'stop talking,'" said Lorry, controlling a desire to shout.

HOME AFFAIRS

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

New Arrivals—Daughters have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Oak street, and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Smith, Bank street.

Ankle Broken—Mrs. Miller, who resides near West Point, was thrown from a wagon near Riverview cemetery yesterday and sustained a compound fracture of her ankle.

In Steubenville Jail—Jerry Darrah, of this city, was lodged in Steubenville jail yesterday with good prospects of going to the workhouse. He caused a disturbance at the home of Louis Wyatt, a colored barber, and is said to have choked Mrs. Wyatt. He is also alleged to have struck and beaten her and another woman.

ANOTHER CHARGE AGAINST ALLISON

Warrant Will Await Him When He Gets Out of the Workhouse.

John Allison, the noted chicken, horse and cow thief, who was sentenced to the Canton workhouse yesterday by Judge Martin at Lisbon, will be confronted with another warrant when his term expires.

He is charged with stealing a cow in Jefferson county and will be prosecuted vigorously by the plaintiff.

Sheriff Ordered to Collect.

Lisbon, July 29.—(Special.)—The East Liverpool case in which F. F. Davis was plaintiff against Ebenezer Miller in proceedings in aid of execution for the collection of a $150 judgment, was concluded yesterday. The court finding that Laura Miller had in her name funds which could be appropriated for the payment of the judgment, which the sheriff was authorized to collect.

LOCAL TEAM HAS ANOTHER SOUTHPAW

Young Goode Will Pitch the Opener With Kent Tomorrow.
The Lineup.

The local team is not to be without the services of a southpaw, Manager Reark having received word from Young Goode that he will be here in time to pitch the opener with Kent tomorrow.

The Kent team has been mixing it up with Niles this season and although beaten by the boiler makers, made a creditable showing. Kent has a strong team and will put up a strong argument at West End park.

Manager Reark has not yet announced the lineup for tomorrow as he has not heard definitely from some of the players for whom he has lines out. It is probable that Emmerling and Goode will be on the points with Wallace, Brown, Hamilton and Webb the infield, and Maley, Reark and Lawrence the outfield. Winters will likely be the slabit in Friday's game.

TRADE MATTERS ARE DISCUSSED

Salesmen's Night at Conference of Furniture Association of America.

New York, July 29.—Salesmen's night at the national conference of the Furniture Association of America was attended by nearly 300 interested in the trade. William Shearer, of Boston, presided. Most of the speakers confined their remarks to matters connected with the trade.

A. J. Conroy, of Cincinnati, led the discussion on "One Line a Year." It is the custom to get out two lines of samples during the year and Mr. Conroy's argument was in favor of limiting the issue to one line a year.

C. D. Baker, of Boston, spoke upon "The Relative Value of Salesmen." He argued that the salesman who builds up the reputation of the firm by satisfying customers does more for the firm than the salesman who disposes of goods that do no credit to the dealer.

J. J. McCloskey, of New Rochelle, spoke on "The Burden of Traveling Men." He agreed with Mr. Baker that the chief object of every salesman, traveling or local, should be to maintain and enlarge the reputation of his firm.

Charged With Forgery.

Cleveland, July 29.—The charge of forging the name of A. T. Anderson, of Pittsburgh, to a note for $2,500 is placed against Mrs. Helen A. Thompson, who recently purchased a hotel of W. J. Harvey. The arrest was made at the instance of Harvey, who states that in the transfer of the property Mrs. Thompson gave him a note for $2,500 signed by Anderson. He claims that the signature of the note was forged and that it is worthless. The woman has been in possession of the place but a short time. Harvey discovered the alleged forgery of the note when he attempted to negotiate it.

Printers Return to Work.

Spokane, Wash., July 29.—The striking printers have returned to work in the Spokesman-Review composing rooms. This action was taken upon instructions from the executive council of the International Typographical union, now in session at Chicago, where the executive committee of the American Newspaper Publishers' association is also in session. The return of the printers is in the nature of a truce. They are to be paid the new scale pending efforts to bring about a satisfactory settlement of the differences by the higher authorities at Chicago.

Children Do Lie.

Do children lie? Yes; constantly, persistently and universally, says the Kindergarten Magazine. A child does not tell the truth because he could not. He does not know the truth, and his approximation to the truth is very much vaguer than ours. And there are certain qualities of his mind which make it inevitable that he should pervert the truth. In the first place, truth is synonymous with knowledge. He does not know what truth is. In the second place (and it is the same with us), children gradually approximate the truth. They have their ideas of truth. In the third place, the child's imagination drives him often to tell what is not true.

SOCIAL EVENTS

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Florence Polk, Aged 8, Pleasantly Entertains Her Little Friends.

Little Florence Polk, of No. 8 Thompson Place, gave a party yesterday afternoon, the occasion being her eighth birthday. Upon their arrival the little guests were met by their hostess, who presented them with a miniature photo button decorated with blue and pink ribbons. The children were entertained by Miss Mazie Speyer on the lawn.

Following this came music and a grand march to the dining room, where an elaborate luncheon was served, completed by a prize birthday cake. Herbert Reinartz was the winner of the handsome souvenir spoon.

The little hostess was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Those present were Evelyn Boch, Elsie Wagner, Helen Hilbert, Hilda Marshall, James McDonald, George McDonald, Stewart Thompson, Margaret Owen, Clarence Owen, Helen Campbell, Pauline Campbell, Louise Betz, Wilbert Betz, Herbert Reinartz, Paul Reinartz, Mary Hunter, Christine Hunter, Paul Schreiber, Louisa Laufenberger, Frederick Laufenberger, and Ruth Campbell, of Rochester.

MOON-ELDEN

A Wedding of Much Local Interest at Bellevue, Pa., This Evening.

The marriage of Enoch Elden, a popular and well known merchant of this city, and Miss Sadie Moon, of Bellevue, Pa., will be solemnized at 6 o'clock this evening at the home of the bride. Only the relatives and close friends of the contracting parties will witness the ceremony, which will be performed by Rev. Dr. Holmes, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, Allegheny.

Following the marriage the bride and groom will take an extended wedding trip down the St. Lawrence, through the Thousand Islands to Montreal and later visit New York city. During the trip they will spend a short time at Atlantic City. After returning from this trip the bride and groom will be at home to their friends after October 15 in their new home on Thompson avenue.

IN HONOR OF A GUEST

Miss Nellie Porter Pleasantly Entertains a Number of Friends.

Miss Nellie Porter yesterday evening gave a very pleasant 5 o'clock tea in honor of Miss Bessie Quay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Quay, of Wellsburg, W. Quay's friends were present and received the hospitality of the hostess, Miss Porter, who was assisted by her sister, Miss Martha Porter, and Mrs. John S. Goodwin.

A very pretty feature in the dining room was the decoration of the table in beautiful bunches of sweet peas in various colors, the place of each guest being designated by a bouquet of these fragrant flowers. Miss Quay will remain the guest of Miss Porter until the first of next week.

Wilson-Moody.

Emmet L. Wilson, of this city, and Miss Margaret Moody, daughter of S. W. Moody, of Hookstown, were married today at high noon at the home of the bride, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. Hosick. A large number of guests, including relatives and friends, witnessed the marriage, after which Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left on their wedding trip. Both the bride and groom are well known in this city and Chester, and have received the congratulations of a large circle of friends.

Birthday Surprise.

Mr. Edwin Smith, of Second street, was last evening agreeably surprised when over forty of his friends assembled at his home to remind him of the fact that he had passed his seventy-fourth birthday. For twelve years Mr. Smith has been well known in this city as a very fine decorator, and was previously identified for many years as a leading decorator with the Minton Pottery company, at Stoke, England. Mr. Smith was the recipient of a number of gifts.

Kountz-Lindsay.

A pretty marriage took place at high noon today when Miss Mame Kountz, the estimable daughter of Jacob G. Kountz, a prominent business man of Wellsburg, and James Lindsay, a decorating potter, were united. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. E. Clark, at the home of the bride. The couple left this afternoon for an extended eastern trip.

Children's Party.

Miss Ruby Smurthwaite, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smurthwaite, gave a pleasant party yesterday to a few of her little girl friends at her home on St. George street in the East End. It was evident from the merriment which predominated that the event was a happy one for the little folks.

Whist Club Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber H. Blythe agreeably entertained the whist club last evening in honor of their guest, Mrs. Robert L. Andrews, of Cleveland.

It was not long after the mother had made the purchase until she fled it. Her son was continually getting in trouble with it and to prevent possibly serious trouble the mother a few days ago made a proposition to him that he sell it to her. He agreed, but the money, something in the neighborhood of $500, was not turned over to the son.

Carrying out his daily practice of at least two weeks O'Connor started out yesterday afternoon to fill up on his favorite beverage. He landed at the saloon of James Walters early in the afternoon and there he met a number of acquaintances and by early evening his supply of money had run short. The thought struck him that his mother owed him the money for the automobile and he telephoned from the saloon to her for the amount. Of course she refused to take it to him, and a short time later he went to his home and demanded the entire sum. Just what occurred after his arrival there is not known. Mrs. O'Connor refusing to substantiate the general refusal which was to the effect that upon her refusal to give him the money he pulled a revolver and shot at her three times. She states that he did not shoot at her and that he was simply shooting in the house to terrify her.

The noise produced in the home excited the neighbors and some one telephoned to the central fire station for an officer. Chief Morley answered the call and sent Officers Dawson and Woods to the scene. On their way the officers were joined by Policemen Aufderheide and Mahoney. Together the quartet walked to the door and demanded admittance. O'Connor opened the door and with a cry raised the Winchester, pointed it at Dawson and pulled the trigger.

All that saved Dawson's life was the failure of the cartridge to explode. The plucky officer well realized his position and rushed in on the angered man, seized the gun and by a strenuous effort wrested it from his hands. O'Connor then ran up the stairs to the garret. He was closely followed by the officers, who found him lying under a bed. They pulled him out and escorted him down the stairs. There he rebelled against arrest, but Chief Wyman, who had arrived by that time, commanded that he be placed in the patrol wagon and hauled to the city hall. O'Connor objected to the treatment, but to no avail. He was landed behind the bars and was compelled to stay there until this morning when he was arraigned before the mayor on the charge of disorderly conduct. Attorney John McGarry entered a plea of guilty for the accused and the fine above mentioned was imposed.

Mayor Weaver states that he cannot lose sight of the fact that O'Connor drew a gun on Officer Dawson and that if he will prefer a charge against him the man will be given a severe dose.

O'Connor's father appeared at city hall this morning and pleaded for his son. He stated that if the mayor would let him off easy he would have his son take the pledge.

MOTORMAN WHIPPED FOR PAYING ATTENTION TO WELL-KNOWN WOMAN

further than reports, left the city hall declaring that they will make it warm for Heidrick if he continues his actions.

Further particulars were learned this afternoon regarding the trouble of Heidrick with his wife. The latter accosted Squire H. P. McCarron at about noon and applied to him for assistance in getting money from her husband. She stated that she and her two children were entirely without support and that he intended to leave them in a very uncomfortable situation. The advice of the justice was for her to file a charge against her husband, alleging non-support. This she promised to do, and if she keeps her word officers will place him under arrest before night.

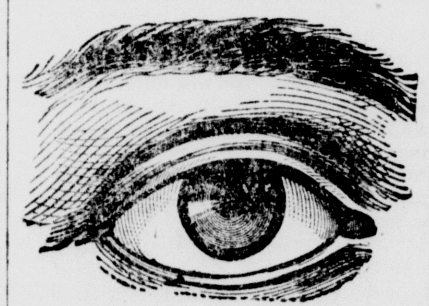

The justice states that a woman living next door to the Heidrick home, Jefferson and Fourth streets, informed him that Mrs. Heidrick made a desperate attempt last night to end her life with carbolic acid. According to the woman, Mrs. Heidrick, upon being told that her husband fully intended to leave the city with a young woman, went to a drug store and purchased a bottle of carbolic acid, returned to her home and had the bottle uncorked and to her lips when the neighbor rushed in and interfered.

Mrs. Hendricks pleaded that she be allowed to commit the deed, stating that she would much rather be dead than to have her husband living with some other woman. Before the bottle was wrested from her hands she allowed considerable of its contents to drop on her breast and arms and was burned badly.

Edward O'Connor, Jr., Arrested After Creating the Wildest Excitement at
His Home.

POLICEMAN DAWSON'S NARROW ESCAPE

Temporarily insane, the result of excessive drink, Edward ("Teddy") O'Connor, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Connor, Monroe street, made a desperate effort to kill his aged mother with a revolver last evening shortly after 8 o'clock, and when Officer Clifford Dawson approached to place him under arrest the frenzied man drew a Winchester rifle, pointed it at the policeman and pulled the trigger.

As a result of his actions O'Connor was lodged in the city jail. He pleaded guilty this morning to a charge of disorderly conduct and was fined $10 and costs. Mayor Weaver then allowed him to depart, but he will be arrested again on a charge to be sworn to by Officer Dawson, who alleges that O'Connor attempted to kill him. On this charge it is likely that prosecution will be vigorously made.

The scene of O'Connor's cowardly actions was at his home and in that

MAYOR ARRANGES HEARINGS FOR OFFENDING SALOONISTS

The saloonists against whom charges have been preferred during the past few weeks for violating the screen, Sunday and after hour ordinances, will all be given a hearing before the day of the week. Mayor Weaver has delayed the trials for the purpose of obtaining all the evidence possible and a new ready to give the accused an opportunity to prove themselves innocent.

For more than two hours the chief executive was busy yesterday afternoon hearing the stories of Alphonso Kenny, James Walters and Mike O'Malley. Kenny was charged with having his saloon on West Market street open last Sunday. He denied the charge and his story, to the effect that he was simply letting his bartender out of the saloon when the person who preferred the charge was passing, together with the general good reputation of the saloonist, prevailed upon the mayor, who dismissed the case.

Walters and O'Malley were charged with violating the screen ordinance. Both of them pleaded not guilty and the mayor dismissed them upon their own recognizance to appear for trial at any date chosen by himself. It is understood that the men intend to fight the case to the bitter end.

A warrant was issued this morning for the arrest of John McFadden, who is charged with keeping open his Walnut street saloon on last Sunday. McFadden was notified to appear by Officer Dunn and at 11:30 o'clock he entered a plea of not guilty. His trial will be heard at a later date.

James Walters, the saloonist of Franklin street, was arraigned on a charge of violating the screen ordinance. He pleaded not guilty and will be heard later.

A GREAT CUSHER IN THIS COUNTY

WELL NEAR COLUMBIANA GOOD
FOR 100 BARRELS.

Oil Excitement on the Increase And
the Prospects Are Most Alluring.

Lisbon, July 29.—(Special).—Oil excitement in the vicinity of Columbiana is increasing, and it is said that the leases of the Ohio Knob & Gas company, of that village, have taken a big jump in value as a result of the big showing of oil on the Gongaware farm. A. J. Hylands & Co., of Pittsburg, have been steadily pumping the well on that farm since it was shot two weeks ago, and about 9 o'clock Monday it developed into a regular oil gusher, a heavy stream of oil taking the place of the water.

Mr. Hylands, who had been superintending the work, was in Pittsburg at the time and the inexperienced youth who had been left in charge, fearing an explosion, extinguished the fire and shut down the pump. Before the pump could be started again the stream of oil subsided after flowing for an hour and a half, and the flow of water continued. Pumping was renewed vigorously as soon as possible.

People have visited the scene in large numbers, including some oil speculators who have pronounced the well good for 100 barrels. It is estimated that 25 barrels of pure crude oil escaped Monday while the well was pumping oil.

The additional well that was started on the adjoining Betz farm a few days ago has reached a considerable depth. Mr. Hylands has ordered a huge tank sent to the field immediately.

usually quiet section of the city there was more confusion last evening than upon any previous occasion of which there is record. The wildest excitement prevailed for more than an hour and even today the neighbors were not calmed. The story of the affair as given by Officer Dawson is believed to be an unprejudiced report and true in every detail, notwithstanding that members of the O'Connor family seek to portray it as only a matter of trifling consequence.

O'Connor is nearly 25 years of age. He has been the idol of his parents and they have never refused to provide everything he could wish for comfort and happiness, and several months ago when he asked his mother to buy him an automobile she readily consented to do so and purchased for him one of the best that has traversed the streets of the city. The young man is of a very reckless disposition, and first place visited in Columbiana county, after which they will go to Salineville, which will be the state inspector's first visit to that place. He made his first trip to the two counties about six months ago, was much impressed with conditions generally and pronounced the coal found in both counties to be of high quality.

"I am taking this trip more to get acquainted with the territory than for any other purpose," said Mr. Biddison. Last week, aided by Deputies Davis and Thomas McGough, of Bridgeport, he inspected the La Belle shaft, near Steubenville, one of the largest mines in Ohio, and found it to be in a dangerous condition. There was so much gas in it that it was at once apparent to the officials that if something was not done at once the mine would be the scene of an awful explosion, with probable great loss of life and property. This condition was due to improper ventilation. The owners of the mine were ordered to either close up the mine or install it with the necessary ventilation and open up all air courses.

Small Blaze Under Postoffice.
The fire department was called out last evening for a slight blaze in the basement under the postoffice. It was extinguished before the firemen arrived.

MAYOR'S VETO OF POLICE BILL

Council Will Have Time to Deliberate
Before Taking Up

REASON FOR DISAPPROVAL

As predicted in the News Review, Mayor Weaver's veto of the police ordinance was read by Auditor Davidson to council at its regular meeting held last evening. President Horwell and the following members were present: Johnston, Smith, Cannon, Bullock, Croxall, Barlow and Moon. When the veto was read, by motion of Bullock, it was unanimously adopted. The veto, which it will be seen alludes to but one section of the ordinance, follows: To the City Council:

Gentlemen—I herewith return unsigned and with my disapproval the ordinance passed by you July 29, 1903, entitled "An Ordinance Fixing the Number, Salaries and Bonds of the Members of the Police Department." My objections are solely and entirely to the provisions of the second clause of section one of this ordinance, in which you have undertaken to reduce the patrolmen on the police force from eight to seven men.

In view of our rapidly increasing population and the manifest need of even better police protection such a course is inexplicable. A proper enforcement of the laws and the peace and security of the city demand that you reconsider your action and the ordinance is returned in the hope that you may do so.

I would respectfully call your attention to the fact that we have a population of nearly twenty-five thousand, scattered over a large area, covering almost all of Liverpool township, no part of which is given adequate police protection, our miles of river front, our geographical position, the proximity of state lines is such that we have often to subdue the lawless element of contiguous territory. These facts all go to prove that an increase in the number of patrolmen would be a more reasonable recommendation than a decrease.

Respectfully submitted,
W. A. WEAVER,
Mayor.

Though it was expected by many that council would take immediate action on the ordinance it was not referred to after its adoption. It was learned this morning that the reason of non-action was because of a provision of the code that prohibits the passage of an ordinance over the veto of the mayor until after the expiration of 10 days. Whether or not council will meet in special session in 11 days is not known, but it is generally believed that no action will be taken until the next regular meeting, which falls on the evening of August 11.

RAILROAD ISSUES NOT DISPOSED OF

Service Board.

THE WISHES OF THE C. & P.

Are to Be Ascertained and Reported.
Manager Healy Ordered to Repair
Car Tracks—Much Routine Business Acted Upon.

Though in session but a little more than an hour last evening city council ground out an unusually large amount of business. President Horwell permitted no delay and the wheels revolved with such rapidity that more than was expected received attention.

One of the most important matters introduced was the agreement practically decided upon between the board of public service and the Pennsylvania railroad officers. However, there was no action of a definite nature taken, simply a committee being appointed to confer with the service board. The committee named by the president is composed of Bullock, Cannon and Barlow. Mr. Bullock stated that a meeting had been held by a number of councilmen and the service board and there were several propositions of the railroad company that both bodies could not agree upon and for that reason asked that a committee be appointed to further consider. President Horwell advised the committee to ascertain exactly what the railway officials want and what they are willing to concede for any grants given them.

A communication was received from the board of public service, stating that an investigation had proved the track of the East Liverpool and Wellsville street railway within the limits of the city is in urgent need of repair, both by re-paving and re-setting of ties. The board recommended that council notify Manager Healy to repair the track and that if he does not comply with the notice within 10 days proper legal proceedings should be instituted. Council looked upon the communication with favor and a resolution was passed to carry out its provisions.

Attorney K. G. Thompson was present in behalf of the West End pottery and made the request that council pass an ordinance providing for the laying of an eight-inch main to the pottery. Mr. Thompson stated that the cost would not be more than $1,600 and that the pottery would furnish the money at 3 per cent interest, the money to be paid back in water rent. Council looked upon the proposition as a fair one and the ordinance was passed by a unanimous vote.

Attorney E. D. Marshall presented a bill of $53 for C. B. Bowers, who alleges that the city owes him the amount as the result of an accident on Virginia avenue. The complainant states that while he and a young lady were out driving on the above named thoroughfare one of the horses stepped into a hole, became frightened and running away caused the occupants bodily injury and the rig was badly broken. The bill was referred to the finance committee and the solicitor.

City Bill Poster Bridge while laboring under the false impression that the board of public service had drafted an ordinance that would allow transient men of his trade to work in the city without license talked at length to council. He protested that he should have protection and demanded it. Council referred him to the city solicitor and the board of public service.

The street committee instructed to investigate the condition of Cadmus street reported that no work should be done on the street until every abutting property holder signed a waiver for any claim to damages. The recommendation was adopted. The committee also reported that in its opinion the bid of Harrison Kinehart for the paving of the sidewalks on Fifth street in front of the Metch property should not be paid until the orders of the city engineer are complied with.

The bill of Contractor Ryan for $4,627.61, the amount due him for paving Robinson street, was discussed fully and it was finally decided to place it in the hands of the finance committee, city solicitor and the city auditor. The latter reported that the money from the abutting property holders along the improved street should be in by August 20, and he could not see how the money could be obtained any sooner. Mr. Ryan demanded that some provision be made for the payment of the interest on the money. It is likely that council will reimburse him to the amount.

Council was asked to change the grade line on Pearl alley, but it was decided to do nothing with it until the alley is dedicated to the city. When that is done the grade will be established to suit those who have petitioned for it.

President Grafton wanted counsel to take immediate action on providing a place of safety for the books and other valuables of the board of public safety. He said he did not care whether the board had a place to store or not, but he thought the books should be cared for. The matter was disposed of by a motion to the effect that the auditor draft an ordinance appropriating sufficient money to repair the city building and to make several other needed improvements. Council will likely pass the ordinance at the next meeting.

The garbage question, which the board of health refused to entertain, was acted upon, Mr. Moon succeeding in having a motion passed ordering the auditor to advertise for bids for a period of three years for the disposal of the city's garbage. Mr. Burner, manager of the Sanitary Reduction company, will be a bidder and feels confident that he can afford to submit the lowest bid.

VOTING CONTEST BEATS POLITICS

Review For Its Generous Offer.

WORKERS ARE HUSTLING

"No political contest in my recollection has created more widespread attention than the News Review's voting contest now drawing to a close," said a prominent business man this morning. "In many respects the battle now going on resembles a political contest, and the several candidates and their friends are employing all the tricks and schemes known to the clever politician."

"The lineup of coupon gatherers on every man's staff is even stronger and more numerous than the paid supporters of a political office seeker. The way the friends of the several candidates are hustling indicates that the interest is more intense than it ever was in a political way, and also shows that the News Review made a very popular move when it inaugurated the movement. The generosity of the offer has never been equalled by any newspaper in this section, and the management is being complimented upon every hand for the liberal proposition."

IN THE POLITICAL ARENA

Prof. M. E. Hard, Formerly of Salem,
Is Gaining Much Prominence.

Columbus, July 29.—(Special).—Another former Columbiana county man has jumped into the political arena. He is Prof. Mike E. Hard, superintendent of the Chillicothe schools, who served several terms as superintendent of the Salem schools. Mike was the Democratic nominee for state school commissioner two years ago and he is thinking hard of coming again for the honor this year. If he so elects and lands the nomination, the school commissioner's fight will resolve itself into a sort of Eighteenth district affair, as Prof. A. E. Jones, the Republican nominee, is from Massillon. Hard is a giant in stature. He is over six feet tall and weighs more than 250.

MOTORMAN WHIPPED FOR PAYING ATTENTION TO WELL-KNOWN WOMAN

Spouse Invokes the Law, After Alleged Attempt at Suicide.

Fearing the wrath of the father and brothers of his wife who gave him one severe drubbing last night and threatened to give him another because of his intimacy with another woman and his neglect to his lawful spouse, Wilbur Heidrick, a motorman on the East erpool and Wellsville street car line, resigned his position and is now contemplating a speedy exit from the city.

Heidrick, it seems, has been intimate with a well known young woman of the city. His wife learned of it and when he asked her to go to Steubenville a few days ago to visit friends and implored that she go when she faltered, she became suspicious and decided to catch him. She went to Steubenville, apprised her father and brothers of his actions and early last evening she accompanied them back to this city. They first located the car upon which Heidrick was working and upon its arrival in the East End they entered it, and finding Heidrick in company with a woman, immediately decided to settle the matter.

One of them approached the girl and asked her if she did not know that Heidrick was a married man. She replied that she did not think it was any of his business what she thought or knew.

The brothers and father were so enraged at the retort that it is alleged they rushed at Heidrick and gave him a sound thrashing. After beating him they got off the car and Heidrick, upon the arrival of the car at the power house, went into the office and resigned. Later he came down to the central portion of the city and started to tell his story, trying to impress his hearers that he was being persecuted. He did not talk long, however, after he was informed that the relatives had been at central station for the purpose of preferring a charge against him.

The relatives applied to Chief Wyman, but upon being told that they could not have the man arrested for what they did not know anything of,

POWDER MAGAZINE BLOWS UP CREATING HAVOC AND DEATH

Lowell, Mass., July 29.—(Special).—A catastrophe unparalleled in this city occurred today when a powder magazine at the United States Cartridge company's plant exploded. As a result of the eruption 20 persons were killed, 50 were seriously injured and buildings within a radius of half a mile were torn and shattered, many of them being leveled. More than 30 houses were completely demolished. Suffering in the ill-fated district was terrible and the excitement that prevailed during the stampede which immediately followed the explosion was great. Dozens of families are homeless as a result of the awful disaster and it will be many months before the damage will be repaired. The loss to property will reach hundreds of thousands of dollars.

MILLER TO PLAY AGAIN WITH LOCALS

Does Not Like the City of Stogies And
Liverpool.

Manager Reark received a letter last night from Miller, the southpaw of the local team, who jumped to Wheeling last week, stating that he had enough of the town of stogies and was coming back to the Crockery City. Miller is taking this step entirely of his own volition, as the trial game he pitched Saturday satisfied the Wheeling manager that he was worth trying out. Miller, however, does not like Wheeling and would rather play in East Liverpool at less money.

The news was particularly pleasing to Manager Reark and will be greeted with delight by the fans.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

OLD-TIME METHOD.

The formation of clay vessels by means of the unaided hand is almost as old as the human race. Artificial supports were used at first, such as baskets and woven twigs, but the essence of building is the absence of the wheel as an aid to the development of the form. While the majority of primitive peoples abandoned this method as soon as they became acquainted with the mysteries of the wheel, there remained some tribes and even some nations to whom this knowledge never came. The greater speed of wheel work pushed aside the primitive method of building and, hence, where the wheel became known the earlier work was never studied or improved upon. But in those cases in which the aggression of the wheel was not felt attention was exclusively confined to building, with the natural result that great skill was acquired by the workers.

Prominent among the exponents of clay building were certain of the Indian tribes of North America. They were untalented, and simply followed the bent of their inclination; but the result has been the opening to the modern world of a new avenue of expressive handicraft.

The Indian women were experts in basket weaving, and their method of construction—sewing together an endless coil of twisted cord—may have suggested the coils of clay with which their vases were built. The main difference lies in the adhesion. Clay coils must be sewn together. Clay coils adhere, when moist, until the fire gives them a permanent bond.

Early pottery was, without exception, formed to meet a need. No thought of ornament was present, and such beauty as the work possessed was in the fitness and utility which constituted the main, or indeed the only, claim to existence.

FACTORY SITES SCARCE.

The purchase by the Junata company, composed of local manufacturing potters, of a tract of East End land upon which it will erect an extensive plant for the manufacture of flint and spar, recalls the fact that very few factory sites remain within the city limits. The seriousness of this condition is at once apparent, as it is certain to retard the development of industries that would add capital and new industries to the city. It also has something to do with the location of many of the new pottery plants in other cities, although the bonus feature has been the principal factor. East Liverpool will retain her prestige as a pottery center, however, is the opinion of prominent potters. The real development of the industry will come to East Liverpool, Chester and Newell in spite of the many new and isolated plants.

OLD FASHIONS REVIVED.

The prospects in every branch of the pottery trade were never brighter than at present. The decorative trades are reviving many fashions which call for pottery, either of the old Colonial type or of the crude Dutch type. It is a

NO INTERFERENCE FROM THE COURT

THE POINTS IN QUESTION

Discussed at Length and No Warrant Found For Preventing the Construction of the New Street Railway in This City.

Lisbon, July 29.—(Special.)—In his lengthy opinion given yesterday afternoon, Judge Hole dissolved the temporary injunction granted to Monroe Patterson some time ago against the city of East Liverpool, its officials and C. A. Smith, whereby Mr. Smith was enjoined from further work on another street railway line. The petition was dismissed at the plaintiff's cost.

Judge Hole held that a plaintiff in such a case can have relief from a court only when justice and equity require the interference of the court and said he was clearly of the opinion that interference from the court was not necessary in this case.

The plaintiff's attorneys at once gave notice of appeal to the circuit court and will shortly make application for a new trial in that court.

The claim of the plaintiff was that the meeting of council at which the ordinance was passed was illegal, because one of the members of council, George Peach, had not been notified, that the ordinance was invalid because part of the route was over private property, and that C. A. Smith held certain options on a portion of this private right of way prevented competitive bidding; that the bid of C. A. Smith was not the lowest bid for a franchise over the proposed route; that there was a variation between the route named in the original application and the franchise ordinance as it finally passed the council.

The court held that the meeting was a legal one, either considered an adjourned session of the regular meeting held the night before or as a called meeting; that the notice of the meeting, considering it a called one, which had been served at the store of Mr. Peach; that the notice of the meeting, considering it a called one, which had been served at the store of Mr. Peach; that the notice of the meeting, considering it a called one, which had been served at the store of Mr. Peach.

This conclusion was supported by the holdings of the supreme court of Connecticut in a case which was cited by the court.

With regard to the contention that the proposed route passed over private property for a part of the distance the court held that so far as it included the use of the streets the council had a right to pass it, and that unless the circumstances were such as to prevent competitive bidding the ordinance would not be invalid on that account. The court intimated that if it had been shown that such a part of right of way had been selected so as to have made it impossible for any but the applicants for the franchise to bid, or if there had been any fraud or bad faith shown by the council that this would have rendered the ordinance invalid. The court held, however, that in the case no such fraud or want of good faith had been shown and that, as a matter of fact, there was competitive bidding by the only parties who seemed to have been desirous of bidding. As to the claim that a street railway had no right to appropriate property within a municipal corporation the court held that the language of the statute itself and the language of Judge Williams in the case reported in the Fifth O. S. page 615, would seem to authorize the street railway to appropriate private property within a municipal corporation. The court, however, suggested that the fact that at the time the statutes were passed electric roads were unknown, and much less reason why they should pass over a private right of way than at present might perhaps require a court to find that the legislature did not intend to grant this power, and therefore placed the decision of the question upon the ground that whether or not a street railway could appropriate private property every applicant for a franchise was free to acquire property by purchase, and that when the fact of a particular case, as in this, disclosed that bidders were in a situation to acquire the property and bid accordingly, a franchise thus granted was valid.

In considering the question as to whether the bid of C. A. Smith or the bid of L. W. Healy was the lower the court held that the bid of Smith in which he agreed to carry passengers over the proposed route at five cents, with no charge for children under five years of age when accompanied by parents, was a lower bid so far as that line of travel was concerned than the bid of Mr. Healy, who proposed to charge five cents for all passengers, but agreed to give transfers over another line of road. The court suggested that even if this were an open question the council had a right to decide it, and if their decision was made in good faith it would not be interfered with by the court. The question whether free transfers or free rides for small children was the most favorable to travelers might depend upon local conditions. The council evidently concluded that the mania for race suicide had not yet reached East Liverpool, and the number of small children to be carried free was a greater inducement than the offer of transfers over an additional line of road.

In concluding Judge Hole said: "A court sitting as chancellor could not interfere in a matter of this kind unless equity and justice required it, and that from the pleadings and the evidence adduced in the case there was not in the judgment of this court any reason why justice or equity required the perpetual injunction sought by Patterson."

Mr. Patterson was represented by Squires, Sanders & Dempsey, of Cleveland, and Judge P. M. Smith, of Wellsville, while the defendant was represented by Billingsley, Clark & DeFord, of Lisbon.

EAST END

CONCESSION OF ALLEY WILL BE OPPOSED

East End People Think Thoroughfare
Remain Public Property.

The fact that the new station for East End has been incorporated by the board of public service in the demands of the city to the C. & P. railroad company is causing general satisfaction. The proposed location at a point near the Laughlin pottery is satisfactory to a majority of the people but the attempt of the railroad company to extort possession of the alley leading to the proposed site will be bitterly opposed. As much as the new station is desired not one citizen could be found this morning in favor of giving up the alley to the company.

Should the railroad company be given possession of the alley every approach to the new station will be over company property, which will leave the corporation free to enforce such rules and regulations as it may care to impose. The alley is also valuable as a thoroughfare regardless of the location of the station. The people of the East End will protest against the alley being given exclusively to the railroad.

Will Hold a Rally.

The officers of the Sunday school of the Second United Presbyterian church have decided to hold a rally on the last Sunday in September and preparations are now being made for the event. Several days ago Superintendent D. Frank White invited John G. Quay, a former East End citizen and the first superintendent of the school, to be present and make an address. This morning he received a letter from Mr. Quay accepting the invitation.

A Nest of Snakes.

Low Howard, George Harris and W. Wilson, of the East End street department, unearthed a nest of copper head snakes this morning while repairing a culvert near the eastern terminal of Pennsylvania avenue. The snakes had been concealed beneath the debris which had accumulated in the culvert and when uncovered showed fight. The men had no trouble, however, in dispatching three of them.

Two Real Estate Deals.

The two deals in Chaffinville real estate, mentioned yesterday, have been closed. Miss Nettie Wilson has purchased the second house east of Howard's grocery store, of Alex. Chaffin, the consideration being $1,000. Another residence property near the grocery changed hands yesterday, passing to the control of John Hart. The consideration has not been made public.

Painfully Hurt.

D. Frank White was quite painfully injured last night by falling down a dark stairway, leading to the P. H. C. hall in the Larkins building. He made a misstep at the top landing and plunged headlong down the stairs, receiving several severe strains in his arms from which he has been suffering great pain.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Mrs. J. L. Fulton and children are visiting at Smith's Ferry. Charles Gallagher moved to his new house in Dixonville this morning. Mrs. Charles Herbert of Erie street, is reported seriously ill this morning. Mrs. Porter Herbert, the Misses Temple and Audrey Vale are visiting relatives at Negley. Mrs. Frank Oswald, of Pennsylvania avenue, is visiting relatives at Beaver Falls and Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Copeland and two children were the guests of Robert Baird and family yesterday.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whitney, of Pennsylvania avenue, is quite ill with cholera infantum. Miss Ruby Smurthwaite, of St. George street, entertained a number of her young friends yesterday afternoon.

Officer Eliza Dunn was a visitor to East End this morning and he called at the East End station for the first time since becoming a member of the force.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the Ben Hur band and last night the street around its room in the Frutts building was crowded with people bent on hearing the music.

Mrs. Seward, the lady who lost $17 in currency yesterday morning, has recovered her property. The purse was found by Wallie Kent, of Laughlin No. 3, and returned to its owner.

Women love a clear, healthy complexion. Pure blood makes it. Burdock Blood Bitters makes pure blood.

Red Cross Bag Blue should be in every home. Ask your grocer for it. Large package only 5c.

THE NEW WOMAN.

Mrs. EMMA MITCHELL.

Mrs. Emma Mitchell, 520 Louisiana street, Indianapolis, Ind., writes:

"For the past five years I have rarely been without pain, but Peruna has changed all this, and in a very short time. I think I had taken only two bottles before I began to recuperate very quickly, and seven bottles made me well. I do not have headache or backache any more, and have some interest in life."—Emma Mitchell.

"The coming of what is known as the 'new woman' in our country is not greeted by everyone as if she were a great blessing. But there is another new woman whom everybody is glad to see. Every day some invalid woman is exclaiming, 'I have been made a new woman by Dr. Hartman's home treatment.' It is only necessary to send name, address, symptoms, duration of sickness and treatment already received to Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, and directions for one month's treatment will be promptly forwarded.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

PARTY UNITES FORCES

Amalgamate Into One
Body at Denver.

UNITED PEOPLES PARTY POLICY

All Past Differences Amicably Settled.

No Affiliation With Old Parties Will

Be Tolerated—Patriotic Citizens Inited to Join in March to Victory.

Denver, July 29.—An amalgamation into one party was effected by the two factions of the Peoples party in national conference.

The following address was reported by the committee on resolutions and was adopted:

"The manifest unrest which everywhere appears in the nation demonstrates the dissatisfaction of the American people with the present management of government and argues the necessity of the reform forces coming together in united action at the ballot box to obtain proper legislation, whereby the right of the people to self government may be had for themselves and their posterity.

"Therefore, we, the Populists of the United States, having this day at the city of Denver united forces with the distinct understanding that all past differences as to policy shall be and now are permanently settled, and experience having demonstrated the futility of any attempt to secure the enactment of our truth either through the Republican or Democratic parties, we believe the time is now at hand when the united Peoples party should declare itself emphatically opposed to any affiliation with either of these parties and unqualifiedly in favor of national political action.

Principles Espoused.

"Our fundamental principles are known to all Populists, and are no more better stated than in that immortal document enacted at Omaha, July 4, 1898. However, for the benefit of the uninformed, we declare our unyielding adherence to the demands for (a) a money, whether stamped on gold, silver or paper, to be coined and issued exclusively by the government and made a full legal tender for all debts, both public and private; (b) a system of transportation and the transmission of intelligence owned by the public and operated by the government at the cost of service; (c) land for use rather than for speculation and abolition of alien ownership of land; (d) American ships for American foreign commerce, with-out a cent of subsidy.

"And as an open door for all economic reforms we urge the rule of the people through the optional referendum and initiative and the recall of delinquent officials.

"Confident in the justice of the principles here set forth, firmly confident that their triumph in government would be for the best interests of the people, we call upon the patriotic citizens of this country to join with us in bringing about their enactment into law. With these principles firmly established, equal justice would prevail, special privileges would be eliminated and ours would be, as patriots everywhere desire, a government of the people, for the people, by the people."

Troops Retained at Danville.

Springfield, Ill., July 29.—Governor Yates, who has been in Europe for nearly two months, arrived in the city and went to the executive office, where he received the report of Adjutant General Scott on the situation at Danville. Attorney General Hamlin had previously held a conference with the adjutant general and had advised the retention of the troops there for an indefinite period, as trouble might arise when the local officers arrested the ringleaders of the mob which attacked the jail. Governor Yates agreed that it would be better to retain the troops at Danville indefinitely.

Drowned in St. Clair River.

Port Huron, Mich., July 29.—Mrs. George Taylor, of Sarnia, Ont., and Jennie Thompson, a small child from this city, were drowned in the St. Clair river on the Canadian side. The Thompson child while wading in the water was caught in the swift current and taken into deep water. Mrs. Taylor, in her attempt to rescue the child, was also swept away and both were lost.

Jury Secured.

Cynthiana, Ky., July 29.—The jury to try Curtis Jett and Thomas White has been completed and accepted by both sides. All are farmers except one, who is a bookkeeper. The defense filed a demurrer to the indictment, but it was overruled. The defendants then waived formal arraignment and pleaded not guilty. After the jury was sworn, court adjourned.

Fear Students Are Drowned.

Beaumont, Muskoka, Ont., July 29.—Joseph Hosack, of Carnegie, Pa., a Princeton student; Walter Mehard, of Mercer, Pa., a student of Johns-Hopkins, with a cousin of Hosack's, set out from Gravenhurst in a canoe on Sunday. The paddles and Mehard's coat were picked up on the lake. It is feared all three have been drowned.

Engagement Announced.

Paris, July 29.—The engagement of Minister of Marine Pelletan to Mile. De Niese, a teacher in a Paris school, is announced. It is stated that the marriage will take place at the end of August.

FREAK OF A DRUNKEN GENERAL

Panama Revolution Result of Scotch High Balls and Vivid Imagination.

Washington, July 29.—The Panama revolution last Saturday night, in view of information received, resembles a page from comic opera. General Vasquez Cobos, who overthrew the government for a day, arrested most of the estimable local officers, sent the governor flying in his pajamas into the shrubbery to escape a dungeon, it seems now did not know what he was doing.

The truth is that General Cobos had dined to well, and not being used to Scotch high balls, lost his head and decided that affairs in Panama were not going to suit him. He accordingly ordered his army of 10 men under arms and overthrew the government.

When General Cobos got sober Sunday evening everything looked gray and gloomy. He did not remember what he had done. He realized that something unusual had taken place when an officer appeared at the head of his army of 10 men and placed him under arrest. He has been removed from office and will be tried by court-martial.

All this was told in a cable message received from Panama. General Cobos does not seem to have been the only one who lost his head during the toisterous doing in Panama.

Catarrh of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucus, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called catarrh of the stomach. "For years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure."—J. R. Heca Coppel, Texas. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

Surrendered to the Government.

Caracas, Venezuela, July 29.—General Antonio Ramos, one of the last of the chiefs of the revolution to remain in the field, who had a camp near Santa Lucia, has surrendered to the government, together with 400 men, their arms and ammunition.

Killed in Drunken Quarrel.

Gillette, Wyo., July 29.—In a drunken quarrel among a number of Italians at Polk, six miles west of here, two men were killed and another so badly wounded that he will probably die.

Ten thousand demons gnawing away at one's vitals couldn't be much worse than the tortures of itching piles. Yet there's a cure. Doan's ointment never fails.

Rheumatism

"THE PAIN KING."

Those who have ever felt its keen, cutting pains, or witnessed the intense suffering of others, know that Rheumatism is torture, and that it is rightly called "The King of Pain."

All do not suffer alike. Some are suddenly seized with the most excruciating pains, and it seems every muscle and joint in the body was being torn asunder. Others feel only occasional slight pains for weeks or months, when a sudden change in the weather or exposure to damp, chilly winds or night air brings on a fierce attack, lasting for days perhaps, and leaving the patient with a weakened constitution or crippled and deformed for all time.

An acid, polluted condition of the blood is the cause of every form and variety of Rheumatism, Muscular, Articular, Acute, Chronic, Inflammatory and Sciatic, and the blood must be purged and purified before there is an end to your aches and pains. External applications, the use of liniments and plasters, do much toward temporary relief, but such treatment does not reach the real cause or cleanse the diseased blood; but S. S. S., the greatest of all blood purifiers and tonics, does cure Rheumatism by antidoting and neutralizing the poisonous acids and building up the weak and sluggish blood. It is safe and reliable in all forms of Rheumatism. It makes the old acid blood rich, and the pain-tortured muscles and joints are relieved, the shattered nerves are made strong, and the entire system is invigorated and toned up by the use of this great vegetable remedy.

If you have Rheumatism, write us, and our physicians will furnish without charge any information desired, and we will mail free our book on Rheumatism.

BLOOD DISEASE CURED.

If you ever contracted any Blood or Private Disease, you are never safe until the virus or poison has been eradicated from the system. Don't be satisfied with a "patch up" by some family doctor. Our New Method is Guaranteed to Cure or No Pay. No Names Used Without Written Consent.

Cured When All Else Failed

"Could I live my early life over, this testimonial would not be necessary, though I was no more sinful than thousands of other young men. Early indiscretions, later excesses, exposure to contagious diseases all helped to break down my system. When I commenced to realize my condition I was almost frantic. Doctor after doctor treated me but only gave me relief—not a cure. Hot Springs helped me, but did not cure me. The symptoms always returned. Mercury and Potash drove the poison into my system instead of driving it out. I bless the day your New Method Treatment was recommended to me. I investigated who you were first, and finding you had over 25 years' experience and responsible financially, I gave you my case under a guarantee. You cured me permanently, and in six years there has not been a sore, pain, ulcer or any other symptom of the blood disease."—M. A. CONLEY, 25 Years in Ohio. $2,500 Cured.

We treat and cure Varicose, Blood Poison, Nervous Debility, Stricture, Impotency, Secret Drains, Kidney and Bladder Diseases.

Council still has 10 days to deliberate before taking action on the mayor's veto of the police ordinance. If council really desires to fulfill the mission for which it was chosen and serve the people according to the people's wishes, it yet has a chance to redeem itself by revoking its hasty and foolish ordinance reducing the police force. Nobody has asked for a reduction in the number of patrolmen. The city could use twice as many as it now has and use them to advantage. The mayor, in his veto message, says what no one can gainsay or dispute when he declares that no part of the city is now given adequate police protection, and that an increase in the number of patrolmen would be far more reasonable and desirable than a reduction. Council's hasty action and the motive thereof are both well understood. But the task it has set for itself—to get rid of an efficient and popular chief of police—is going to be far more difficult than council thought, and the people of East Liverpool who want to see all the laws enforced impartially and fearlessly hope that it will be found impossible. Council has had time to listen to reason and to learn public sentiment. If its members are not altogether deaf to reason and argument and blind to the best interests of the city and careless whether law or lawlessness shall rule, they will certainly not reduce the police force. They must be fully aware that they have made a grievous mistake, but it is not too late to make amends.

Louisville appears to be the starting point for a crusade against the gum-chewing habit among working women. The telephone company of the Falls City has strictly forbidden its use, for the reason that it makes the operators nervous and irritable, and unfit them for quiet, steady work. Other employers of women are making the same rule. The hotels have nearly all prohibited the practice, and the business houses are taking it up. There is an argument more likely to prevail with women than the effect upon nerves. If a pretty girl understood just how much the gum-chewing habit detracts from her good looks she would never indulge in it.

The suggestion of a monument to the soldier dead of Columbiana county is a good one. The patriotic orders throughout the county ought to take it up and act upon it at once. East Liverpool has fine memorials to its departed heroes, but another at the county seat, which should speak to the world of the heroism and patriotism of the whole county would be most appropriate. There are few counties in the whole union with a grander military record, and the wonder is that the project has been so long neglected.

King Edward has made his first visit to Londonderry and learned what an Irish welcome is like. He is the first English sovereign to visit that part of the British realm. The good feeling evoked strongly suggests that it might pay the king to spend a good deal more of his time in traveling about and getting acquainted with his subjects.

The two factions of the Populist party held a convention at Denver and formed a fusion. Lucky that the action was taken at this time, as in a short time at the present rate of demoralization there would not be anything left to unite.

The Toledo Blade believes that Tom Johnson's nomination for governor would add at least 10,000 to the plurality for Herrick. The Blade is usually well informed on politics, but its estimate in this case is far too low.

A Columbus paper announces that four East Liverpool councilmen have tendered their resignations. This news belongs to the class that is too good to be true.

New street railway projects continue to multiply. East Liverpool will soon have rapid transit facilities equal to any city of its size anywhere.

Ohio Tablets for Chickamauga.

Chattanooga, July 29.—General H. V. Boynton, of the Chickamauga park commission, concluded the work of locating the points at which are to be erected the tablets by the state of Ohio marking the various locations of the Ohio troops during the battle of Chickamauga. The line of markers extends from Rossville along the ridge to Sherman Heights and there will be 72 of them, one for each of the regiments and batteries from Ohio which participated in the battle.

Explosion Kills Two Women.

Columbus, O., July 29.—An explosion of natural gas in the rear of Cordell's saloon killed Mrs. Wilhelmina Lewis and Mrs. Fred A. Grehl and injured half a dozen men. The first explosion was followed by other and smaller ones, setting fire to the debris. The saloon building was wrecked and with it the famous dye house. Both women were working in the latter place. Their bodies were buried in the debris.

Charles Hay Improving.

Springfield, Ill., July 29.—The condition of former Mayor Charles Hay, who has been seriously ill at Harbor Point, Mich., and on whom an operation was believed to be necessary, is greatly improved and it is thought no operation will be needed. Mr. Hay is a brother of Secretary of State Hay.

Rheumatism, All Diseases of the Blood, Backache, Nervous Dyspepsia, Clear the Complexion and Aid Digestion.

Give you a good appetite, renew life cells in young and old. Permanently restore youthful vigor and vitality. They tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new person. No remedy in the world to equal them. Take a few Nervan Tablets and note the wonderful effect.

ALCOHOL IN ALL LIQUID KIDNEY AND RHEUMATIC REMEDIES CONDEMNS THEM.

An ignorantly compounded remedy, containing alcohol, as nearly all kidney remedies do, will stimulate them so violently that an inflammation will be set up, and instead of being merely lazy the kidneys will become diseased. Alcohol congests the kidneys with blood and retards their activity.

There is no Alcohol in Nervan Tablets to interfere with the removal of all harmful sediment from the body. The Tablets soothe and heal the kidneys when they are irritated and inflamed. They cure the kidney diseases that make you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable; that make you pass water often during the day and night; that cause rheumatism, catarrh of the bladder, pain in the back, joints and muscles; that make your head ache and indigestion, stomach and liver trouble, and a sallow, yellow complexion.

No matter how many other remedies you may have tried and found useless, remember the great modern remedy, Nervan Tablets.

Race Riot in Lorain.

Lorain, O., July 29.—A fierce riot in which a mob of 200 whites chased two colored men, threatening to lynch them, took place here. Two colored men, Charles Hill and Robert Pleasant, became involved in an altercation with a white man named Daniel Cronan. One of the colored men drew a razor and cut Cronan severely on the face and neck. A mob immediately gathered and the negroes were chased over the entire south end of the city, one of them taking refuge in a saloon, the entire front of which was battered in with stones. The negro escaped. Later Pleasant was arrested and taken by side streets to the local station, where he was locked up, while the crowd still continued their search, a number of shots being fired.

Strike of Brakemen.

Wheeling, July 29.—The brakemen employed in the yards of the River-side steel mill at Benwood, a subsidiary plant of the United States Steel corporation, went out on a strike because the company would not reinstate a man who had been discharged from their employe. Several new men were put to work and some of the old men reported for duty.

Nova Scotia Storm Swept.

Halifax, N. S., July 29.—Reports from points along the western shore of Nova Scotia tell of great damage as a result of the high tides and the storm. The three-masted schooner Arona, 522 tons, is ashore near Clementsport. Thirteen large fishing boats were lost at Digby and vicinity and thousands of dollars worth of property destroyed.

BURIED HIS OWN CHILD

Father Called to Account For Burying An Infant in a Back Yard.

Frank P. Mason, who resides with his family in one of John Wooster's houses at the extreme west end of Steubenville street, appeared before the board of health last evening in answer to the charge of having buried a child in the yard in the rear of his home on Monday morning, July 20.

Mason plead guilty to the charge and explained. He stated that his wife gave birth to a child. Dr. McConnell was at once called, but the child lived but 30 minutes. He says that he consulted the physician on the matter, and asked him if the child could not be buried in his rear yard. The doctor, so Mason states, said that it was not a customary way, but said that he saw no reason why it could not be done.

Mason stated that he was not financially able to have a funeral. He wrapped the infant's body in a sheet and after digging a grave and preparing a rough box, interred it.

After much discussion the board of health decided to release Mason upon his promise to secure a death certificate and a burial permit and have the child re-buried. This he agreed to do.

HELP IS SCARCE

Carroll-Porter Works Cannot Get the Number of Men Needed.

The Carroll-Porter boiler works at the lower end of town are exceedingly prosperous and judging from the amount of orders which are pouring in daily, the plant will be rushed with work during the balance of the summer and in the fall season.

The company has been endeavoring during the past month to secure men enough to relieve the present situation of affairs, but its efforts have been in vain, and it is forced to work with the regular supply of help. Advertisements have been printed in a number of dailies both east and west, but no results have been derived. The manager of the firm and the traveling representatives have even gone into New York state to secure helpers and laborers, but they find the situation there the same as elsewhere—everyone has work and none are anxious to change to Wellsville.

or presided. Members Parke, Tarr, Ashley, Taylor and McQueen were present. The health report for June was read and showed but few cases of contagious diseases and only a few deaths.

The health officer, Dr. Tarr, reported that a stagnant pool of water had remained on the vacant lot on Thirteenth street, where Dr. Cooper recently held his show, for several days and that steps should be taken to have it removed. It was also reported that similar pools of water had been allowed to remain on the property of James Blue on Eighteenth street and also on his property on Main street.

Secretary Taylor was ordered to notify the owners of these properties to appear at a special meeting to be held next Tuesday evening and show cause for allowing their property to remain in such a bad condition.

A petition was received signed by a number of property owners living in the vicinity of Third and Commerce streets, asking that the vault on the Lawson property on Third street, now being used by the Italian settlement there, be attended to at once. Dr. Tarr was instructed to investigate and take whatever steps are needed.

BOOKS ARE MISSING

And the City Auditor Refuses to Make a New Set as Directed.

A meeting of the tax commission was held last evening in the office of Judge P. M. Smith. The principal object was to ascertain the amount of the sinking fund. Treasurer T. R. Andrews was present and reported $10,000 on hand. A question came up as to what had become of the books formerly kept by City Clerk McQueen which contain the record of all bonds issued by the city. The books should have been placed in the hands of City Auditor McGregor, but he stated that he had never received them. Mr. McQueen stated that he had turned the books over to the former city solicitor, Frank L. Wells. Mr. Wells, in turn, stated that the books, when last seen by him, had been placed in Mr. McQueen's hands. Finally the members of the commission decided to request Auditor McGregor to fill out new books, giving a complete record.

McGregor was present at the meeting and positively refused to do this. It was finally decided to allow council to settle the matter.

KNOWS MI-O-NA

WILL DO GOOD

Will Reed Has Such Faith in This Remarkable Flesh-Forming Food That He Sells It Under Guarantee.

It is an unusual thing for a druggist to sell a medicine under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction, yet this is the way Will Reed, whose word is as good as his bond, is selling Mi-o-na, the remarkable flesh-forming food and cure for dyspepsia.

Never before has he had so large a number of customers tell him that a medicine has cured, as since he began selling Mi-o-na.

There is no longer any need of anyone's suffering or making their friends suffer because of stomach trouble or distressing thinness.

Mi-o-na can be relied upon to regulate and strengthen the digestive organs and to build up good, solid, beautiful flesh. Will Reed takes all the risk by selling this preparation under a guarantee to return the money, if it does not give satisfaction. He will sign an agreement to this effect, and take your word as to whether Mi-o-na cures or not.

Headaches, all forms of indigestion, specks before the eyes, dizzy feeling, ringing in the ears, all forms of liver troubles, emaciation, and general run-down conditions are cured by Mi-o-na. A few days' treatment shows a considerable gain in health, and a cure speedily follows.

Now is the best time in the whole year for the enjoyment of good health. Use Mi-o-na and you will soon be in such perfect condition that you can enjoy every minute.

time all financial business connected with the celebration will be settled up. Complete reports will be made by the different committees.

SOUTH SIDE

Peculiar Condition of Affairs in Chester to Which Council's Attention Will Be Called.

A peculiar condition of affairs exists in Chester just at present due to the fact that the town has proceeded with the paving of its principal streets without giving attention to the sidewalks, and the result is there are few of the property owners who have to the present paid attention to this important matter.

It is doubtful if there is a similar instance on record, and it may be that council will be required to take some vigorous action in order to make the streets passable before the bad weather sets in next fall. Beginning at the lower end of the town the paving of the streets has been completed on Virginia avenue, First and Second streets and on Carolina avenue its entire length. In the east end of the corporation the paving has been completed for months, and in this locality sidewalks have also been laid, but on the thoroughfares mentioned first the sidewalks on a very small portion of their length have been laid. Residents have been wont to register many kicks concerning the condition of the streets of the town, and council was urged to begin the work long before a start was made in order to avoid the mud. Now, it is said, there will be no end of trouble in inducing the property owners along paved streets to lay their sidewalks. Except in front of a few of the business establishments no paving has been done and the improved thoroughfares present a very shabby appearance owing to the ragged condition of the space intended for the footpath.

It will not be a great while until the residents will be compelled to contend with the mud once more, and it is presumed the tardy ones expect to use the paved streets as a means of getting to and from their homes. This will be anything but satisfactory, since they must leave the middle of the street and travel over the unpaved sidewalk in order to reach the yards. Council will be urged to take some action at once.

DIRECTORS CHOSEN

For the New Industrial Bank Soon to Be Opened at Chester.

A stockholders' meeting was held yesterday afternoon and the officers and directors of the Industrial Bank of West Virginia, to be located in Chester, were elected.

The stockholders with but few exceptions are citizens of Chester, and the institution gives promise of being one of the most substantial and successful in this part of the state.

Steps were taken yesterday for the opening of the bank at once. A committee was appointed which will secure and get in readiness temporary quarters. Another committee will draft a set of by-laws for the government of the new institution.

The officers elected are as follows: President—John A. Campbell, of New Cumberland.

First Vice President—J. N. Finley.

Second Vice President—Dr. G. E. Lewis.

Cashier—O. O. Allison.

Directors—Mart Miller, T. W. Stewart, James Porter, C. F. Allison, John R. Donehue, of New Cumberland; J. H. Maxwell, John E. Newell, John D. Stewart, T. R. Cunningham, G. R. Ahrendts, Alex B. Allison, of Chester.

O. O. Allison, who has been selected as cashier, has been one of the most successful business men in Chester for several years. He is a young man of extraordinary business tact, is energetic and has a wide acquaintance. The directors made a wise selection.

Since the announcement was made that the bank would be a certainty, the scramble for stock has been remarkable, and at present there are but 19 shares upon the market. The sale has been to local parties exclusively, and the concern will be purely a Chester institution.

Allison & Hobbs, Prominent Chester Merchants, Dispose of Their Store.

The deal was closed this morning which transfers the business establishment of Allison & Hobbs to J. C. Lewis & Co., and the stock is being involved today preparatory to turning over the property to the new owner.

The establishment is one of the oldest and most prosperous in Chester, and since its removal from the old stand in the west end of town to the present commodious quarters on Virginia avenue has been more successful than ever. The deal has been pending for several months, but it was only after Mr. Allison, the senior partner, had been elected to the

Joe Bradley, Connected With the Park Theatre, Has Strangely Disappeared.

Stage Manager Joe Bradley, who has had charge of the Rock Springs theatre during the present season, has disappeared from the city, and though his friends have exerted every effort to locate him, they have to the present failed to do so. He disappeared last Monday, and is said to have gone to Pittsburgh.

When last seen Bradley had considerable money in his possession, having just received his salary, and it is feared by some that he met with foul play. He is a good workman and his standing with his employers was of the very best. He had been negotiating with the Blondells to handle their stage effects next season, and it was thought he had gone on to join the company, but word from the management states that he has not yet put in an appearance.

Postoffice Improvements.

Business has become so brisk at the Chester postoffice that it was necessary to add to the facilities, and this week 16 combination lock boxes and 32 receptacles of the ordinary sort were placed in position. These with the 47 boxes already a part of the equipment of the office, will enable Postmaster Johnston and his able corps of clerks to handle the increasing business in a most satisfactory manner. Since taking possession of the postoffice at Chester Mr. Johnston has nearly doubled the amount of business and made the branch one of the most important in the county.

No Fair at Bethany.

The suspension of the Bethany fair will be quite a disappointment to the citizens of Chester, who generally attended the exhibition and had a social time, but these days non-paying arrangements people do not take much account of, but Burgettstown will be on hand as usual and always draws large crowds.

THE TOOLS LOST

More Hard Luck for the Drillers at the Hadley Farm Oil and Gas Well.

The drillers in the employ of the Chester Oil & Gas company have encountered the first hard luck since beginning the well on the Hadley farm, and at about 1 o'clock last night the tools were lost.

It had been anticipated that the well would be in this morning, and doubtless it would had the mishap not befallen the crew. The trouble is of a more serious character than usual, since the hole is so small that it may be impossible to get hold of the lost tools. Immediate steps were taken, however, to get possession of the missing apparatus, and no time will be lost in the fishing operations.

Testing a New Field.

An oil well being drilled on the Max Melvin lease, near Nessley chapel, has reached a point where there are very good indications of oil in paying quantities. The field will be further developed at once.

CHESTER NOTES.

Tom Needham, of Steubenville, Signs
With Boston Nationals.

Tom Needham, one of the best ball players that has been turned out by Steubenville, is now a member of the National league, having been signed by Manager A. C. Buckenberger to catch. He will be used at once by Boston, as Pat Moran has been doing all the catching since Kittredge was released over a month ago. Boston is away down in the league race, and Needham will have a splendid chance to make good. During the present season he has been the star catcher of Altoona, where he played yesterday for the last time with that team.

Since he was a boy Needham has been playing ball, having been a member of all the old A. C. teams. The past three years he has been playing in minor league teams and has been holding his own with all the catchers in the smaller league. Until a year or so ago his only drawback was his hitting, but since he quit the A. C. and gave up all his time to base ball, he has developed into a strong batter and can line out his hits with the best men on the teams with which he plays.

The success of Needham is due to his temperate habits, one of the essentials to good work on the diamond, and it is hoped that he will prove a valuable find for Buckenberger. Then, too, he richly deserves success. Needham is an all-around athlete, having been a member of all the base ball, foot ball and basket ball teams that were organized in Steubenville.

An Exciting Game.
In an exciting game of base ball last night the team representing the George F. Brunt works was defeated by the Pleasant Heights team on the latter's grounds. The score was 8 to 7, and was hard fought throughout.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

The latest table of National league averages shows a pretty fight on for batting honors between Beaumont, Bresnahan, Steinfeldt and Wagner.

Prominent horsemen and pool sellers will not stay in Cleveland this week for the races, because of the decision prohibiting the selling of pools.

The eyes of all lovers of the harness horses will be turned to Cleveland today, when Billings' famous mare, Lou Dillon, will be driven against the world's record, held by Creaceous.

Tommy Ryan denies that his purpose in going behind Jim Corbett next month is to gratify spite he feels toward Jeffries. Tommy says he went to the Pacific coast for his health.

Pitcher Ellston, of the Zanesville team, has attached his signature to a contract with the Boston National league club. Ellston is one of the best semi-professional twirlers in the state.

It is considered probable that Bob Fitzsimmons, who was married last week for the third time, will cover the $5,000 posted by George Gardner for a match. Most followers of the ring believe that Fitz will win, but Gardner has faith in himself.

LAST MASS FOR POPE

Celebrated in Sistine Chapel,
Nearly All Cardinals
Being Present.

BOOTHS FOR CONCLAVE ERECTED

Romans Making Books on Election.
Fisherman's Ring Still Missing and New One Ordered—Meeting of Congregation Brief.

Rome, July 29.—The last of the three high requiem masses for Pope Leo was celebrated in the sistine chapel. Cardinal Serafino Vannutelli was the celebrant and was assisted by Cardinals Agliardi, Vincenzo, Vannutelli, Sanutelli and Ricard.

Those present at the mass included nearly all the cardinals and many of the high officials of the vatican. The ceremonial was of a splendid character, the sistine choir rendering its selections amid clouds of incense. Special pontifical prayers were offered and the mass ended with the hymn "Libera Me, Domine De Morte Aeterna" and the pronouncing of the benediction.

The chapel presented a slightly altered appearance, the floor having been raised to the level of the altar, the 64 booths for the cardinals during the conclave having been erected and the tables and other furniture having been arranged.

Making Books on Conclave.

Roman people who have no reverence for anything are busy making books on the conclave. The chances now are 25 to 1 against Rappolla, 15 to 1 against Vannutelli, while a few bets have been placed on Cardinal Cotti at 10 to 1. Since that time, however, his chances have declined. The odds against any cardinal outside of the leaders are 25 to 1.

The meeting of the congregation of cardinals was very short. After an exchange of views on current affairs, Mgr. Merry del Val, secretary of the consistorial congregation, gave each cardinal a diagram showing where his apartments in the vatican will be located during the conclave.

New Ring Ordered.

The Tribune says that as the fisherman's ring, which could not be found after the death of the pope, may be discovered in some drawer which was sealed up and cannot be opened until after the election of the new pope, the camerlingo, Cardinal Oreglia, has ordered a new one for use in the symbolic ceremony which occurs immediately after the successor to Leo is chosen.

The member of the noble guard who was overcome during the requiem mass in the sistine chapel while on duty beside the catafalque was Count Stampa, who a few days ago was placed under arrest for feigning illness.

May Support a Foreign Cardinal.

That there is a conviction at the vatican that the conclave will be of short duration is proved by the fact that all those who are to enter the conclave to minister to the wants of the cardinals have been engaged for July—three days. The two camps into which the sacred college is divided appear to be becoming daily more irreconcilable and it is stated that the anti-Rappolla faction has declared that, if necessary to defeat the opposition, they will even go to the length of supporting a foreign cardinal. The name of Cardinal Kopp, bishop of Breslau, was mentioned in this connection, but was hardly considered seriously, owing to the belief that under present conditions the elevation of a German to the papacy might mean the irreparable loss of France to the holy see.

LIFE SAVED BY POLICE

Eleven Escaped Convicts Still at Large—One Lost His Life at Pilot Hill.

Placerville, Cal., July 29.—Of the 12 convicts who escaped from the state penitentiary at Folsom 12 are still at large. Joe Murphy, who was serving a 14-years' sentence for robbery, was shot dead at Pilot Hill.

S. M. Gordon, the reported leader of the gang, who had been sentenced to 45 years for robbery, deserted his followers soon after they left the prison. He was heavily armed and it is not known in which direction he sought safety.

The 11 outlaws who remain together are making for the Sierra Nevada mountains. They are closely pursued by the sheriffs of Sacramento, El Dorado and Placer counties, each backed by numerous deputies and assisted by a company of militia. About 20 guards from the Folsom prison are also engaged in the chase and it is believed that the fugitives will soon be surrounded. A desperate battle is anticipated, as all are heavily armed.

The work of the pursuing forces has been rendered less difficult than was anticipated by the unexpected action of the convicts, who released all of the free men they held as hostages. It is thought this course was prompted by lack of food and ammunition.

Hawilians Want Independence.
Honolulu, July 29.—At the session of the home rule convention ex-Delegates Wilcox urged that congress be memorialized to grant Hawaiian independence. He also strongly favored the establishment of a government for the islands similar to that of Cuba. His remarks were received with much applause. It is probable that a petition embodying the views expressed by Wilcox will be prepared for presentation to congress by Delegate Kananahale. Such an appeal would doubtless receive the signature of many natives.

Eleven Escaped Convicts Still at Large—One Lost His Life at Pilot Hill.

IS ALMOST STONED TO DEATH

Mob Imagined Criminal Assault Had Been Committed—Tree Selected for Lynching When Police Arrive—Is in Serious Condition.

Wheeling, July 29.—But for the timely arrival of the police John Posteech, a Hungarian steel worker, would have been strung up by an enraged mob on Wheeling island.

Posteech, who was drunk, caught in his arms and embraced a well-known and respected lady residing on the island as she was returning home over the steel bridge unescorted late in the evening. As she approached a dark spot Posteech suddenly sprang from the gloom and grabbed her in his arms. The woman screamed frantically and her cries were quickly answered by many citizens, who rushed from their homes.

The man took to his heels, pursued by a posse, which was increased every minute as they dashed down Penn street. When the mob drew close to the foreigner he wheeled and drew a dirk fully 12 inches in length and held the mob at bay for a time. A cobbler stone hurled the knife out of the man's hand, while another struck him upon the head and knocked him down.

Stone after stone was rained upon the unconscious wretch in rapid succession and a rope was quickly sent for by the now thoroughly aroused citizens, who were under the impression that a criminal assault had been committed. Vengeance had been decided upon and a convenient shade tree picked out when a force of policemen arrived upon the scene and rescued the cowering wretch from the mob's hands. He was badly used and is in a serious condition.

Squadron Well Received in Portugal.
Washington, July 29.—The navy department has received the following cable message from Rear Admiral Con-ton, commander-in-chief of the European squadron now on a visit to Portugal: "Self, commanding officers and personal staff received in special audience by the king Saturday afternoon; luncheon to same by king at Cintra, preceding which were presented to queen in special audience; the queen, our minister and some of the cabinet ministers present at luncheon; Tuesday night dinner 200 covers to us by minister of marine at arsenal. King will visit flagship next Saturday."

It was not long after the mother had made the purchase until she ried it. Her son was continually getting in trouble with it and to prevent possibly serious trouble the mother a few days ago made a proposition to him that he sell it to her. He agreed, but the money, something in the neighborhood of $500, was not turned over to the son.

Carrying out his daily practice of at least two weeks O'Connor started yesterday afternoon to fill up on his favorite beverage. He landed at the saloon of James Walters early in the afternoon and there he met a number of acquaintances and by early evening his supply of money had run short. The thought struck him that his mother owed him the money for the automobile and he telephoned from the saloon to her for the amount. Of course she refused to take it to him, and a short time later he went to his home and demanded the entire sum. Just what occurred after his arrival there is not known, Mrs. O'Connor refusing to substantiate the general report which was to the effect that upon her refusal to give him the money he pulled a revolver and shot at her three times. She states that he did not shoot at her and that he was simply shooting in the house to terrify her.

The noise produced in the home excited the neighbors and some one telephoned to the central fire station for an officer. Chief Morley answered the call and sent Officers Dawson and Woods to the scene. On their way the officers were joined by Policemen Aufderheide and Mahoney. Together the quartet walked to the door and demanded admittance. O'Connor opened the door and with a cry raised the Winchester, pointed it at Dawson and pulled the trigger.

All that saved Dawson's life was the failure of the cartridge to explode. The plucky officer well realized his position and rushed in on the angered man, seized the gun and by a strenuous effort wrenched it from his hands. O'Connor then ran up the stairs to the garret. He was closely followed by the officers, who found him lying under a bed. They pulled him out and escorted him down the stairs. There he rebelled against arrest, but Chief Wyman, who had arrived by that time, commanded that he be placed in the patrol wagon and hauled to the city hall. O'Connor objected to the treatment, but to no avail. He was landed behind the bars and was compelled to stay there until this morning when he was arraigned before the mayor on the charge of disorderly conduct. Attorney John McGarry entered a plea of guilty for the accused and the fine above mentioned was imposed.

Mayor Weaver states that he cannot lose sight of the fact that O'Connor drew a gun on Officer Dawson and that if he will prefer a charge against him the man will be given a severe dose. O'Connor's father appeared at city hall this morning and pleaded for his son. He stated that if the mayor would let him off easy he would have his son take the pledge.

Rathbone Installation.
The Rathbone Sisters installed officers last evening. The new officers are: Past chief of temple, Elizabeth Neal; most excellent chief, Lizzie Woolnaker; excellent senior, Dora Hardwick; excellent junior, Lizzie Revington; manager of temple, Helen Lewis; mistress of correspondence, Fannie Grafton; mistress of finance, Susie Marshall; protector of temple, Belle Martin; guard of outer temple, Matilda McMillan. An enjoyable social session followed.

further than reports, left the city hall declaring that they will make it warm for Heidrick if he continues his actions.

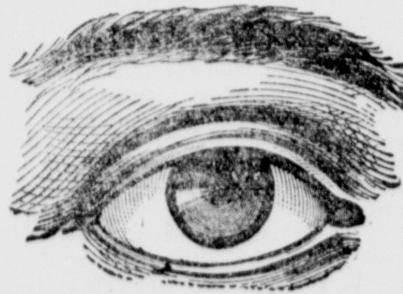

Further particulars were learned this afternoon regarding the trouble of Heidrick with his wife. The latter accosted Squire H. P. McCarron at about noon and applied to him for assistance in getting money from her husband. She stated that she and her two children were entirely without support and that he intended to leave them in a very uncomfortable situation. The advice of the justice was for her to file a charge against her husband, alleging non-support. This she promised to do, and if she keeps her word officers will place him under arrest before night.

The justice states that a woman living next door to the Heidrick home, Jefferson and Fourth streets, informed him that Mrs. Heidrick made a desperate attempt last night to end her life with carbolic acid. According to the woman, Mrs. Heidrick, upon being told that her husband fully intended to leave the city with a young woman, went to a drug store and purchased a bottle of carbolic acid, returned to her home and had the bottle uncorked and to her lips when the neighbor rushed in and interfered.

Mrs. Hendricks pleaded that she be allowed to commit the deed, stating that she would much rather be dead than to have her husband living with some other woman. Before the bottle was wrenched from her hands she allowed considerable of its contents to drop on her breast and arms and was burned badly.

LOCAL TEAM HAS ANOTHER SOUTHPAW

Young Goode Will Pitch the Opener With Kent Tomorrow.
The Lineup.

The local team is not to be without the services of a southpaw, Manager Reark having received word from Young Goode that he will be here in time to pitch the opener with Kent tomorrow.

The Kent team has been mixing it up with Niles this season and although beaten by the boiler makers, made a creditable showing. Kent has a strong team and will put up a strong argument at West End park.

Manager Reark has not yet announced the lineup for tomorrow as he has not heard definitely from some of the players for whom he has lines out. It is probable that Emmerling and Goode will be on the points with Wallace, Brown, Hamilton and Webb the infield, and Maley, Reark and Lawrence the outfield. Winters will likely be the slabbist in Friday's game.

TRADE MATTERS ARE DISCUSSED

Salesmen's Night at Conference of Furniture Association of America.

New York, July 29.—Salesmen's night at the national conference of the Furniture Association of America was attended by nearly 300 interested in the trade. William Shearer, of Boston, presided. Most of the speakers confined their remarks to matters connected with the trade.

A. J. Conroy, of Cincinnati, led the discussion on "One Line a Year." It is the custom to get out two lines of samples during the year and Mr. Conroy's argument was in favor of limiting the issue to one line a year.

C. D. Baker, of Boston, spoke upon "The Relative Value of Salesmen." He argued that the salesman who builds up the reputation of the firm by satisfying customers does more for the firm than the salesman who disposes of goods that do no credit to the dealer.

J. J. McCloskey, of New Rochelle, spoke on "The Burden of Traveling Men." He agreed with Mr. Baker that the chief object of every salesman, traveling or local, should be to maintain and enlarge the reputation of his firm.

Charged With Forgery.
Cleveland, July 29.—The charge of forging the name of A. T. Anderson, of Pittsburgh, to a note for $2,500 is placed against Mrs. Helen A. Thompson, who recently purchased a hotel of W. J. Harvey. The arrest was made at the instance of Harvey, who states that in the transfer of the property Mrs. Thompson gave him a note for $2,500 signed by Anderson. He claims that the signature of the note was forged and that it is worthless. The woman has been in possession of the place but a short time. Harvey discovered the alleged forgery of the note when he attempted to negotiate it.

Printers Return to Work.

Spokane, Wash., July 29.—The striking printers have returned to work in the Spokesman-Review composing rooms. This action was taken upon instructions from the executive council of the International Typographical union, now in session at Chicago, where the executive committee of the American Newspaper Publishers' association is also in session. The return of the printers is in the nature of a truce. They are to be paid the new scale pending efforts to bring about a satisfactory settlement of the differences by the higher authorities at Chicago.

Children Do Lie.

Do children lie? Yes, constantly, persistently and universally, says the Kindergarten Magazine. A child does not tell the truth because he could not. He does not know the truth, and his approximation to the truth is very much vaguer than ours. And there are certain qualities of his mind which make it inevitable that he should pervert the truth. In the first place, truth is synonymous with knowledge. He does not know what truth is. In the second place (and it is the same with us), children gradually approximate the truth. They have their ideas of truth. In the third place, the child's imagination drives him often to tell what is not true.

SOCIAL EVENTS

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Florence Polk, Aged 8, Pleasantly Entertains Her Little Friends.

Little Florence Polk, of No. 8 Thompson Place, gave a party yesterday afternoon, the occasion being her eighth birthday. Upon their arrival the little guests were met by their hostess, who presented them with a miniature photo button decorated with blue and pink ribbons. The children were entertained by Miss Mazie Speyer on the lawn.

Following this came music and a grand march to the dining room, where an elaborate luncheon was served, completed by a prize birthday cake. Herbert Reinartz was the winner of the handsome souvenir spoon.

The little hostess was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Those present were Evelyn Boch, Elsie Wagner, Helen Hilbert, Hilda Marshall, James McDonald, George McDonald, Stewart Thompson, Margaret Owen, Clarence Owen, Helen Campbell, Pauline Campbell, Louise Betz, Wilbert Betz, Herbert Reinartz, Paul Reinartz, Mary Hunter, Christine Hunter, Paul Schreiber, Louisa Laufenberger, Frederick Laufenberger, and Ruth Campbell, of Rochester.

MOON-ELDEN

A Wedding of Much Local Interest at Bellevue, Pa., This Evening.

The marriage of Enoch Elden, a popular and well known merchant of this city, and Miss Sadie Moon, of Bellevue, Pa., will be solemnized at 6 o'clock this evening at the home of the bride. Only the relatives and close friends of the contracting parties will witness the ceremony, which will be performed by Rev. Dr. Holmes, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, Allegheny.

Following the marriage the bride and groom will take an extended wedding trip down the St. Lawrence, through the Thousand Islands to Montreal and later visit New York city. During the trip they will spend a short time at Atlantic City. After returning from this trip the bride and groom will be at home to their friends after October 15 in their new home on Thompson avenue.

Quay's friends were present and received the hospitality of the hostess, Miss Porter, who was assisted by her sister, Miss Martha Porter, and Mrs. John S. Goodwin.

A very pretty feature in the dining room was the decoration of the table in beautiful bunches of sweet peas in various colors, the place of each guest being designated by a bouquet of these fragrant flowers. Miss Quay will remain the guest of Miss Porter until the first of next week.

Wilson-Moody.

Emmet L. Wilson, of this city, and Miss Margaret Moody, daughter of S. W. Moody, of Hookstown, were married today at high noon at the home of the bride, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. Hosick. A large number of guests, including relatives and friends, witnessed the marriage, after which Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left on their wedding trip. Both the bride and groom are well known in this city and Chester, and have received the congratulations of a large circle of friends.

Birthday Surprise.

Mr. Edwin Smith, of Second street, was last evening agreeably surprised when over forty of his friends assembled at his home to remind him of the fact that he had passed his seventy-fourth birthday. For twelve years Mr. Smith has been well known in this city as a very fine decorator, and was previously identified for many years as a leading decorator with the Minton Pottery company, at Stoke, England. Mr. Smith was the recipient of a number of gifts.

Kountz-Lindsay.

A pretty marriage took place at high noon today when Miss Mame Kountz, the estimable daughter of Jacob G. Kountz, a prominent business man of Wellsburg, and James Lindsay, a decorating potter, were united. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. E. Clark, at the home of the bride. The couple left this afternoon for an extended eastern trip.

Children's Party.

Miss Ruby Smurthwaite, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smurthwaite, gave a pleasant party yesterday to a few of her little girl friends at her home on St. George street in the East End. It was evident from the merriment which predominated that the event was a happy one for the little folks.

TRIED TO SHOOT MOTHER THEN FOUGHT THE POLICE

Edward O'Connor, Jr., Arrested After Creating the Wildest Excitement at His Home.

POLICEMAN DAWSON'S NARROW ESCAPE

Temporarily insane, the result of excessive drink, Edward ("Teddy") O'Connor, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Connor, Monroe street, made a desperate effort to kill his aged mother with a revolver last evening shortly after 8 o'clock, and when Officer Clifford Dawson approached to place him under arrest the frenzied man drew a Winchester rifle, pointed it at the policeman and pulled the trigger.

As a result of his actions O'Connor was lodged in the city jail. He pleaded guilty this morning to a charge of disorderly conduct and was fined $10 and costs. Mayor Weaver then allowed him to depart, but he will be arrested again on a charge to be sworn to by Officer Dawson, who alleges that O'Connor attempted to kill him. On this charge it is likely that prosecution will be vigorously made.

The scene of O'Connor's cowardly actions was at his home and in that

MAYOR ARRANGES HEARINGS FOR OFFENDING SALOONISTS

The saloonists against whom charges have been preferred during the past few weeks for violating the screen, Sunday and after hour ordinances, will all be given a hearing before the end of the week. Mayor Weaver has delayed the trials for the purpose of gaining all the evidence possible and is now ready to give the accused an opportunity to prove themselves innocent.

For more than two hours the chief executive was busy yesterday afternoon hearing the stories of Alphonso Kenny, James Walters and Mike O'Malley. Kenny was charged with having his saloon on West Market street open last Sunday. He denied the charge and his story, to the effect that he was simply letting his bartender out of the saloon when the person who preferred the charge was passing, together with the general good reputation of the saloonist, prevailed upon the mayor, who dismissed the case.

Walters and O'Malley were charged with violating the screen ordinance. Both of them pleaded not guilty and the mayor dismissed them upon their own recognizance to appear for trial at any date chosen by himself. It is understood that the men intend to fight the case to the bitter end.

A warrant was issued this morning for the arrest of John McFadden, who is charged with keeping open his Walnut street saloon on last Sunday. McFadden was notified to appear by Officer Dunn and at 11:30 o'clock he entered a plea of not guilty. His trial will be heard at a later date.

James Walters, the saloonist of Franklin street, was arraigned on a charge of violating the screen ordinance. He pleaded not guilty and will be heard later.

A GREAT CUSHER IN THIS COUNTY

WELL NEAR COLUMBIANA GOOD FOR 100 BARRELS.

Oil excitement on the increase and the prospects are most Alluring.

Lisbon, July 29.—(Special).—Oil excitement in the vicinity of Columbiana is increasing, and it is said that the leases of the Ohio Knob & Gas company, of that village, have taken a big jump in value as a result of the big showing of oil on the Gongaware farm. A. J. Hylands & Co., of Pittsburg, have been steadily pumping the well on that farm since it was shot two weeks ago, and about 9 o'clock Monday it developed into a regular oil gusher, a heavy stream of oil taking the place of the water.

Mr. Hylands, who had been superintending the work, was in Pittsburg at the time and the inexperienced youth who had been left in charge, fearing an explosion, extinguished the fire and shut down the pump. Before the pump could be started again the stream of oil subsided after flowing for an hour and a half, and the flow of water continued. Pumping was renewed vigorously as soon as possible.

People have visited the scene in large numbers, including some oil speculators who have pronounced the well good for 100 barrels. It is estimated that 25 barrels of pure crude oil escaped Monday while the well was pumping oil.

The additional well that was started on the adjoining Betz farm a few days ago has reached a considerable depth. Mr. Hylands has ordered a huge tank sent to the field immediately.

The news first and most complete in the News Review.

first place visited in Columbiana county, after which they will go to Salineville, which will be the state inspector's first visit to that place. He made his first trip to the two counties about six months ago, was much impressed with conditions generally and pronounced the coal found in both counties to be of high quality.

"I am taking this trip more to get acquainted with the territory than for any other purpose," said Mr. Biddison. Last week, aided by Deputies Davis and Thomas McGough, of Bridgeport, he inspected the La Belle shaft, near Steubenville, one of the largest mines in Ohio, and found it to be in a dangerous condition. There was so much gas in it that it was at once apparent to the officials that if something was not done at once the mine would be the scene of an awful explosion, with probable great loss of life and property. This condition was due to improper ventilation. The owners of the mine were ordered to either close up the mine or install it with the necessary ventilation and open up all air courses.

MAYOR'S VETO OF POLICE BILL

Council Will Have Time to Deliberate Before Taking Up Ordinance Again.

REASON FOR DISAPPROVAL

As predicted in the News Review, Mayor Weaver's veto of the police ordinance was read by Auditor Davidson to council at its regular meeting held last evening. President Horwell and the following members were present: Johnston, Smith, Cannon, Bullock, Croxall, Barlow and Moon. When the veto was read, by motion of Bullock, it was unanimously adopted. The veto, which it will be seen alludes to but one section of the ordinance, follows: To the City Council:

Gentlemen—I herewith return unsigned and with my disapproval the ordinance passed by you July 29, 1903, entitled "An Ordinance Fixing the Number, Salaries and Bonds of the Members of the Police Department." My objections are solely and entirely to the provisions of the second clause of section one of this ordinance, in which you have undertaken to reduce the patrolmen on the police force from eight to seven men.

In view of our rapidly increasing population and the manifest need of even better police protection such a course is inexplicable. A proper enforcement of the laws and the peace and security of the city demand that you reconsider your action and the ordinance is returned in the hope that you may do so.

I would respectfully call your attention to the fact that we have a population of nearly twenty-five thousand, scattered over a large area, covering almost all of Liverpool township, no part of which is given adequate police protection, our miles of river front, our geographical position, the proximity of state lines is such that we have often to subdue the lawless element of contiguous territory. These facts all go to prove that an increase in the number of patrolmen would be a more reasonable recommendation than a decrease.

KNOCKED FROM CAR BY A FALLING POLE

Motorman Salsar, of the Construction Car, Has a Narrow Escape.

Motorman Salsar, of the East Liverpool line, came near being fatally injured or killed late yesterday afternoon near the Walker switch. Salsar was placed in charge of a construction car yesterday morning and had been hauling stone all day from a quarry a short distance west of the switch. Late in the afternoon he was making the switch ahead of one of the passenger cars when the trolley wheel left the wire and became fast in the overhead hangers. The car was running at a high rate of speed, and as the wheel held to the hanger the trolley pole at that point was torn from the ground. The wire fell with great violence, striking Salsar and knocking him off the car.

Several people witnessed the accident and rushed to the scene. They found Salsar stunned and badly bruised, but not seriously injured. The damage to the wire was repaired this morning.

RAILROAD ISSUES NOT DISPOSED OF Council Simply Appointed a Committee to Confer With Service Board.

THE WISHES OF THE C. & P.

Are to Be Ascertained and Reported. Manager Healy Ordered to Repair Car Tracks—Much Routine Business Acted Upon.

Though in session but a little more than an hour last evening city council ground out an unusually large amount of business. President Horwell permitted no delay and the wheels revolved with such rapidity that more than was expected received attention.

One of the most important matters introduced was the agreement practically decided upon between the board of public service and the Pennsylvania railroad officers. However, there was no action of a definite nature taken, simply a committee being appointed to confer with the service board. The committee named by the president is composed of Bullock, Cannon and Barlow. Mr. Bullock stated that a meeting had been held by a number of councilmen and the service board and there were several propositions of the railroad company that both bodies could not agree upon and for that reason asked that a committee be appointed to further consider. President Horwell advised the committee to ascertain exactly what the railway officials want and what they are willing to concede for any grants given them.

A communication was received from the board of public service, stating that an investigation had proved the track of the East Liverpool and Wellsville street railway within the limits of the city is in urgent need of repair, both by re-paving and re-setting of ties. The board recommended that council notify Manager Healy to repair the track and that if he does not comply with the notice within 10 days proper legal proceedings should be instituted. Council looked upon the communication with favor and a resolution was passed to carry out its provisions.

Attorney R. G. Thompson was present in behalf of the West End pottery and made the request that council pass an ordinance providing for the laying of an eight-inch main to the pottery. Mr. Thompson stated that the cost would not be more than $1,600 and that the pottery would furnish the money at 3 per cent interest, the money to be paid back in water rent. Council looked upon the proposition as a fair one and the ordinance was passed by a unanimous vote.

Attorney E. D. Marshall presented a bill of $53 for C. B. Bowers, who alleges that the city owes him the amount as the result of an accident on Virginia avenue. The complainant states that while he and a young lady were out driving on the above named thoroughfare one of the horses stepped into a hole, became frightened and running away caused the occupants bodily injury and the rig was badly broken. The bill was referred to the finance committee and the solicitor.

City Bill Poster Bridge while laboring under the false impression that the board of public service had drafted an ordinance that would allow transient men of his trade to work in the city without license talked at length to council. He protested that he should have protection and demanded it. Council referred him to the city solicitor and the board of public service.

The street committee instructed to investigate the condition of Cadmus street reported that no work should be done on the street until every abutting property holder signed a waiver for any claim to damages. The recommendation was adopted. The committee also reported that in its opinion the bid of Harrison Rinehart for the paving of the sidewalks on Fifth street in front of the Metsch property should not be paid until the orders of the city engineer are complied with.

The bill of Contractor Ryan for $4,627.61, the amount due him for paving Robinson street, was discussed fully and it was finally decided to place it in the hands of the finance committee, city solicitor and the city auditor. The latter reported that the money from the abutting property holders along the improved street should be in by August 20, and he could not see how the money could be obtained any sooner. Mr. Ryan demanded that some provision be made for the payment of the interest on the money. It is likely that council will reimburse him to the amount.

Council was asked to change the grade line on Pearl alley, but it was decided to do nothing with it until the alley is dedicated to the city. When that is done the grade will be established to suit those who have petitioned for it.

President Grafton wanted council to take immediate action on providing a place of safety for the books and other valuables of the board of public safety. He said he did not care whether the board had a place to store or not, but he thought the books should be cared for. The matter was disposed of by a motion to the effect that the auditor draft an ordinance appropriating sufficient money to repair the city building and to make several other needed improvements. Council will likely pass the ordinance at the next meeting.

The garbage question, which the board of health refused to entertain, was acted upon, Mr. Moon succeeding in having a motion passed ordering the auditor to advertise for bids for a period of three years for the disposal of the city's garbage. Mr. Burner, manager of the Sanitary Reduction company, will be a bidder and feels confident that he can afford to submit the lowest bid.

VOTING CONTEST BEATS POLITICS

A Reader Compliments the News Review For Its Generous Offer.

WORKERS ARE HUSTLING

"No political contest in my recollection has created more widespread attention than the News Review's voting contest now drawing to a close," said a prominent business man this morning. "In many respects the battle now going on resembles a political contest, and the several candidates and their friends are employing all the tricks and schemes known to the cleverest politician."

The lineup of coupon gatherers on every man's staff is even stronger and more numerous than the paid supporters of a political office seeker. The way the friends of the several candidates are hustling indicates that the interest is more intense than it ever was in a political way, and also shows that the News Review made a very popular move when it inaugurated the movement. The generosity of the offer has never been equalled by any newspaper in this section, and the management is being complimented upon every hand for the liberal proposition.

IN THE POLITICAL ARENA

Prof. M. E. Hard, Formerly of Salem, Is Gaining Much Prominence.

Columbus, July 29.—(Special).—Another former Columbiana county man has jumped into the political arena. He is Prof. Mike E. Hard, superintendent of the Chillicothe schools, who served several terms as superintendent of the Salem schools. Mike was the Democratic nominee for state school commissioner two years ago and he is thinking hard of coming again for the honor this year. If he so elects and lands the nomination, the school commissioners fight will resolve itself into a sort of Eighteenth district affair, as Prof. A. E. Jones, the Republican nominee, is from Massillon. Hard is a giant in stature. He is over six feet tall and weighs more than 250.

MOTORMAN WHIPPED FOR PAYING ATTENTION TO WELL-KNOWN WOMAN

Wife's Relatives Took the Matter Up—Neglected Spouse Invokes the Law, After Alleged Attempt at Suicide.

Fearing the wrath of the father and brothers of his wife who gave him one severe drubbing last night and threatened to give him another because of his intimacy with another woman and his neglect to his lawful spouse, Wilbur Heidrick, a motorman on the East erpool and Wellsville street car line, resigned his position and is now contemplating a speedy exit from the city.

Heidrick, it seems, has been intimate with a well known young woman of the city. His wife learned of it and when he asked her to go to Steubenville a few days ago to visit friends and implore that she go when she faltered, she became suspicious and decided to catch him. She went to Steubenville, apprised her father and brothers of his actions and early last evening she accompanied them back to this city. They first located the car upon which Heidrick was working and upon its arrival in the East End they entered it, and finding Heidrick in company with a woman, immediately decided to settle the matter.

MILLER TO PLAY AGAIN WITH LOCALS

Does Not Like the City of Stogies And Will Return to East Liverpool.

Manager Reark received a letter last night from Miller, the southpaw of the local team, who jumped to Wheeling last week, stating that he had enough of the town of stogies and was coming back to the Crocker City. Miller is taking this step entirely of his own volition, as the trial game he pitched Saturday satisfied the Wheeling manager that he was worth trying out. Miller, however, does not like Wheeling and would rather play in East Liverpool at less money.

The news was particularly pleasing to Manager Reark and will be greeted with delight by the fans.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

OLD-TIME METHOD.

The formation of clay vessels by means of the unaided hand is almost as old as the human race. Artificial supports were used at first, such as baskets and woven twigs, but the essence of building is the absence of the wheel as an aid to the development of the form. While the majority of primitive peoples abandoned this method as soon as they became acquainted with the mysteries of the wheel, there remained some tribes and even some nations to whom this knowledge never came. The greater speed of wheel work pushed aside the primitive method of building and, hence, where the wheel became known the earlier work was never studied or improved upon. But in those cases in which the aggression of the wheel was not felt attention was exclusively confined to building, with the natural result that great skill was acquired by the workers.

Prominent among the exponents of clay building were certain of the Indian tribes of North America. They were untaught, and simply followed the bent of their inclination; but the result has been the opening to the modern world of a new avenue of expressive handicraft.

The Indian women were experts in basket weaving, and their method of construction—sewing together an endless coil of twisted cord—may have suggested the coils of clay with which their vases were built. The main difference lies in the adhesion. Basket coils must be sewn together. Clay coils adhere, when moist, until the fire gives them a permanent bond.

Early pottery was, without exception, formed to meet a need. No thought of ornament was present, and such beauty as the work possessed was in the fitness and utility which constituted the main, or indeed the only, claim to existence.

FACTORY SITES SCARCE.

The purchase by the Juniata company, composed of local manufacturing potters, of a tract of East End land upon which it will erect an extensive plant for the manufacture of flint and spar, recalls the fact that very few factory sites remain within the city limits. The seriousness of this condition is at once apparent, as it is certain to retard the development of industries that would add capital and new industries to the city. It also has something to do with the location of many of the new pottery plants in other cities, although the bonus feature has been the principal factor. East Liverpool will retain her prestige as a pottery center, however, is the opinion of prominent potters. The real development of the industry will come to East Liverpool, Chester and Newell in spite of the many new and isolated plants.

OLD FASHIONS REVIVED.

The prospects in every branch of the pottery trade were never brighter than at present. The decorative trades are reviving many fashions which call for pottery, either of the old Colonial type or of the crude Dutch type. It is a

NO INTERFERENCE FROM THE COURT

Discussed at Length and No Warrant Found For Preventing the Construction of the New Street Railway in This City.

Lisbon, July 29.—(Special)—In his lengthy opinion given yesterday afternoon, Judge Hole dissolved the temporary injunction granted to Monroe Patterson some time ago against the city of East Liverpool, its officials and C. A. Smith, whereby Mr. Smith was enjoined from further work on another street railway line. The petition was dismissed at the plaintiff's cost.

Judge Hole held that a plaintiff in such a case can have relief from a court only when justice and equity require the interference of the court and said he was clearly of the opinion that interference from the court was not necessary in this case.

The plaintiff's attorneys at once gave notice of appeal to the circuit court and will shortly make application for a new trial in that court.

The claim of the plaintiff was that the meeting of council at which the ordinance was passed was illegal, because one of the members of council, George Peach, had not been notified, that the ordinance was invalid because part of the route was over private property, and that C. A. Smith held certain options on a portion of this private right of way prevented competitive bidding; that the bid of C. A. Smith was not the lowest bid for a franchise over the proposed route; that there was a variation between the route named in the original application and the franchise ordinance as it finally passed the council.

The court held that the meeting was a legal one, either considered an adjourned session of the regular meeting held the night before or as a called meeting; that the notice of the meeting, considering it a called one, which had been served at the store of Mr. Peach, was notice enough, inasmuch as Mr. Peach was absent from the state, being then in Florida, and that this fact was well known to all the members of council, and that as the law does not require a vain thing the meeting would have been valid even if no notice had been served.

This conclusion was supported by the holdings of the supreme court of Connecticut in a case which was cited by the court.

With regard to the contention that the proposed route passed over private property for a part of the distance the court held that so far as it included the use of the streets the council had a right to pass it, and that unless the circumstances were such as to prevent competitive bidding the ordinance would not be invalid on that account. The court intimated that if it had been shown that such a part of right of way had been selected so as to have made it impossible for any but the applicants for the franchise to bid, or if there had been any fraud or bad faith shown by the council that this would have rendered the ordinance invalid. The court held, however, that in the case no such fraud or want of good faith had been shown and that, as a matter of fact, there was competitive bidding by the only parties who seemed to have been desirous of bidding. As to the claim that a street railway had no right to appropriate property within a municipal corporation the court held that the language of the statute itself and the language of Judge Williams in the case reported in the Fifth O. S. page 615, would seem to authorize the street railway to appropriate private property within a municipal corporation. The court, however, suggested that the fact that at the time the statutes were passed electric roads were unknown, and much less reason why they should pass over a private right of way than at present might perhaps require a court to find that the legislature did not intend to grant this power, and therefore placed the decision of the question upon the ground that whether or not a street railway could appropriate private property every applicant for a franchise was free to acquire property by purchase, and that when the fact of a particular case, as in this, disclosed that bidders were in a situation to acquire the property and bid accordingly, a franchise thus granted was valid.

In considering the question as to whether the bid of C. A. Smith or the bid of L. W. Healy was the lower the court held that the bid of Smith in which he agreed to carry passengers over the proposed route at five cents, with no charge for children under five years of age when accompanied by parents, was a lower bid so far as that line of travel was concerned than the bid of Mr. Healy, who proposed to charge five cents for all passengers, but agreed to give transfers over another line of road. The court suggested that even if this were an open question the council had a right to decide it, and if their decision was made in good faith it would not be interfered with by the court. The question whether free transfers or free rides for small children was the most favorable to travelers might depend upon local conditions. The council evidently concluded that the mania for race suicide had not yet reached East Liverpool, and the number of small children to be carried free was a greater inducement than the offer of transfers over an additional line of road.

In concluding Judge Hole said: "A court sitting as chancellor could not interfere in a matter of this kind unless equity and justice required it, and that from the pleadings and the evidence adduced in the case there was not in the judgment of this court any reason why justice or equity required the perpetual injunction sought by Patterson."

Mr. Patterson was represented by Squires, Sanders & Dempsey, of Cleveland, and Judge P. M. Smith, of Wellsville, while the defendant was represented by Billingsley, Clark & DeFord, of Lisbon.

Council still has 10 days to deliberate before taking action on the mayor's veto of the police ordinance. If council really desires to fulfill the mission for which it was chosen and serve the people according to the people's wishes, it yet has a chance to redeem itself by revoking its hasty and foolish ordinance reducing the police force.

Nobody has asked for a reduction in the number of patrolmen. The city could use twice as many as it now has and use them to advantage. The mayor, in his veto message, says that no one can gain say or dispute when he declares that no part of the city is now given adequate police protection, and that an increase in the number of patrolmen would be far more reasonable

cil's hasty action and the motive thereof are both well understood. But the task it has set for itself—to get rid of an efficient and popular chief of police—is going to be far more difficult than council thought, and the people of East Liverpool who want to see all the laws enforced impartially and fearlessly hope that it will be found impossible. Council has had time to listen to reason and to learn public sentiment. If its members are not altogether deaf to reason and argument and blind to the best interests of the city and careless whether law or lawlessness shall rule, they will certainly not reduce the police force. They must be fully aware that they have made a grievous mistake, but it is not too late to make amends.

Louisville appears to be the starting point for a crusade against the gum-chewing habit among working women. The telephone company of the Falls City has strictly forbidden its use, for the reason that it makes the operators nervous and irritable, and unfit for quiet, steady work. Other employers of women are making the same rule. The hotels have nearly all prohibited the practice, and the business houses are taking it up. There is an argument more likely to prevail with women than the effect upon nerves. If a pretty girl under-stood just how much the gum-chewing habit detracts from her good looks she would never indulge in it.

The suggestion of a monument to the soldier dead of Columbiana county is a good one. The patriotic orders throughout the county ought to take it up and act upon it at once. East Liverpool has fine memorials to its departed heroes, but another at the county seat, which should speak to the world of the heroism and patriotism of the whole county would be most appropriate. There are few counties in the whole union with a grander military record, and the wonder is that the project has been so long neglected.

King Edward has made his first visit to Londonderry and learned what an Irish welcome is like. He is the first English sovereign to visit that part of the British realm. The good feeling evoked strongly suggests that it might pay the king to spend a good deal more of his time in traveling about and getting acquainted with his subjects.

The two factions of the Populist party held a convention at Denver and formed a fusion. Lucky that the action was taken at this time, as in a short time at the present rate of declination there would not be anything left to unite.

The Toledo Blade believes that Tom Johnson's nomination for governor would add at least 10,000 to the plurality for Herrick. The Blade is usually well informed on politics, but its estimate in this case is far too low.

A Columbus paper announces that four East Liverpool councilmen have tendered their resignations. This news belongs to the class that is too good to be true.

New street railway projects continue to multiply. East Liverpool will soon have rapid transit facilities equal to any city of its size anywhere.

FRIENDS AND VISITORS

Miss Bode Anderson, of Wooster, is visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. W. L. Thompson is at Battle Creek, Mich., for a short stay.

Mrs. Maurice Scott, of Pittsburg, is visiting East Liverpool friends.

Lacklin Ross and son of Ida street, are visiting relatives in the country.

Alex. Robinson and family, of Scottsdale, Pa., are visiting friends here.

Mrs. James Pickal and Mrs. James Todd will leave tomorrow for Atlantic City.

Miss Myrtle Andrews, who was injured in a runaway Saturday night, is recovering nicely.

Mrs. Andrew Ward, who has been very ill at her home on Lisbon street, is slowly recovering.

Mrs. G. W. McDonald, of Wooster, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dorff, who reside on Avondale street.

Colonel H. R. Hill and wife will leave tomorrow for Atlantic City. The length of their stay will be indefinite.

Miss Lizzie Brawdy, of Second street, has returned from a two weeks' visit with friends in Beaver county, Pa.

Robert W. Howard, who has been visiting in this city for several days, returned to his home in Dennison this morning.

Port Racey was so unfortunate as to drop a huge cake of ice upon his foot yesterday. The member was badly smashed.

Mrs. A. M. Dawson and Mrs. J. D. Easton have returned to Emporia, Kan., after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kinney, of this city.

John J. Fay, clerk at the New Thompson House, has returned from a visit of two weeks in the east. He visited Niagara Falls, Buffalo and New York.

Capt. Gus Martindill went to Pittsburg today to meet his wife and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wagner, who are returning from a two weeks' visit to the east.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Kitchell left yesterday on an eastern trip. They will meet their sons, Cornelius and Allen at New York, and will be accompanied by them on a trip down the St. Lawrence. After a stop at Montreal they will continue their journey down the gulf at a go by sea to Boston.

No News of Nile Expedition.

Marselles, July 29.—Advices from

Addis Ababa, July 5, give no further details of the abandonment of the expedition headed by W. N. MacMillan, of St. Louis, which was attempting to explore the course of the Blue Nile for the purpose of finding a practicable trade route to the Mediterranean.

The advices do, however, say that an

A steamer was sent from Khartoum.

It reached Roseires, 150 miles above

Senar, on the Blue Nile, where it was

ter and failed to meet the expedition.

BURIED HIS OWN CHILD

Father Called to Account For Burying An Infant in a Back Yard.

Frank P. Mason, who resides with his family in one of John Wooster's homes at the extreme west end of Steubenville street, appeared before the board of health last evening in answer to the charge of having buried a child in the yard in the rear of his home on Monday morning, July 20.

Mason plead guilty to the charge and explained. He stated that his wife gave birth to a child. Dr. McConnell was at once called, but the child lived but 20 minutes. He says that he consulted the physician on the matter, and asked him if the child could not be buried in his rear yard. The doctor, Mason states, said that it was a customary way, but said that he saw no reason why it could not be done.

Mason stated that he was not financially able to have a funeral. He wrapped the infant's body in a sheet and after digging a grave and preparing a rough box, interred it.

After much discussion the board of health decided to release Mason upon his promise to secure a death certificate and a burial permit and have the child re-buried. This he agreed to do.

HELP IS SCARCE

Carroll-Porter Works Cannot Get the Number of Men Needed.

The Carroll-Porter boiler works at the lower end of town are exceedingly prosperous and judging from the amount of orders which are pouring in daily, the plant will be rushed with work during the balance of the summer and in the fall season.

The company has been endeavoring during the past month to secure men enough to relieve the present situation of affairs, but its efforts have been in vain, and it is forced to work with the regular supply of help. Advertisements have been printed in a number of dailies both east and west, but no results have been derived. The manager of the firm and the traveling representatives have even gone into New York state to secure help and laborers, but they find the situation there the same as elsewhere—everyone has work and none are anxious to change to Wellsville.

or presided. Members Parke, Tarr, Ashley, Taylor and McQueen were present. The health report for June was read and showed but few cases of contagious diseases and only a few deaths.

The health officer, Dr. Tarr, reported that a stagnant pool of water had remained on the vacant lot on Thirteenth street, where Dr. Cooper recently held his show, for several days and that steps should be taken to have it removed. It was also reported that similar pools of water had been allowed to remain on the property of James Blue on Eighteenth street and also on his property on Main street.

Secretary Taylor was ordered to notify the owners of these properties to appear at a special meeting to be held next Tuesday evening and show cause for allowing their property to remain in such a bad condition.

A petition was received signed by a number of property owners living in the vicinity of Third and Commerce streets, asking that the vault on the Lawson property on Third street, now being used by the Italian settlement there, be attended to at once. Dr. Tarr was instructed to investigate and take whatever steps are needed.

BOOKS ARE MISSING

And the City Auditor Refuses to Make a New Set as Directed.

A meeting of the tax commission was held last evening in the office of Judge P. M. Smith. The principal object was to ascertain the amount of the sinking fund. Treasurer T. R. Andrews was present and reported $16,000 on hand. A question came up as to what had become of the books formerly kept by City Clerk McQueen which contain the record of all bonds issued by the city. The books should have been placed in the hands of City Auditor McGregor, but he stated that he had never received them. Mr. McQueen stated that he had turned the books over to the former city solicitor, Frank L. Wells. Mr. Wells, in turn, stated that the books, when last seen by him, had been placed in Mr. McQueen's hands. Finally the members of the commission decided to request Auditor McGregor to fill out new books, giving a complete record.

McGregor was present at the meeting and positively refused to do this. It was finally decided to allow council to settle the matter.

Reports of the Celebration.

All of the committees that were appointed for the Fourth of July celebration here have been notified by Mayor Fogo that a meeting of the committees will be held in the city hall this evening at 7:30, at which

KNOWS MI-O-NA

WILL DO GOOD

Will Reed Has Such Faith in This Remarkable Flesh-Forming Food That He Sells It Under Guarantee.

It is an unusual thing for a druggist to sell a medicine under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction, yet this is the way Will Reed, whose word is as good as his bond, is selling Mi-o-na, the remarkable flesh-forming food and cure for dyspepsia.

Never before has he had so large a number of customers tell him that a medicine has cured, as since he began selling Mi-o-na.

There is no longer any need of anyone's suffering or making their friends suffer because of stomach trouble or distressing thinness.

Mi-o-na can be relied upon to regulate and strengthen the digestive organs and to build up good, solid, beautiful flesh. Will Reed takes all the risk by selling this preparation under a guarantee to return the money, if it does not give satisfaction. He will sign an agreement to this effect, and take your word as to whether Mi-o-na cures or not.

Headaches, all forms of indigestion, specks before the eyes, dizzy feeling, ringing in the ears, all forms of liver troubles, emaciation, and general run-down conditions are cured by Mi-o-na. A few days' treatment shows a considerable gain in health, and a cure speedily follows.

Now is the best time in the whole year for the enjoyment of good health. Use Mi-o-na and you will soon be in such perfect condition that you can enjoy every minute.

time all financial business connected with the celebration will be settled up. Complete reports will be made by the different committees.

Sold By the Sheriff.

The property known as the First estate and located on Broadway between Third and Fourth streets was sold yesterday afternoon by Sheriff C. P. Leonard to W. C. Fraser for $1,536. It was a foreclosure sale and was attended by quite a large crowd, among whom were several bidders.

Streets Were Flooded.

A break occurred in the water main at the intersection of Broadway and Ninth street yesterday morning which flooded the streets in that vicinity for some time. The break was repaired by water works Superintendent C. C. Ewing and his workmen.

Potters' Local Met.

The potters' local, No. 24, N.A.B. of O. P., held a regular meeting last evening in the hall at the corner of Main and Ninth streets. Important business was transacted, none of which can be made public.

Masonic Meeting.

A special meeting of Wellsville lodge No. 180, F. and A. M., was held last evening at 7 o'clock. Work was done in the E. A. degree. The meeting was called by the secretary, George L. Apple.

WELLSVILLE SHORT STORIES.

Mrs. Charles Irwin, of Center street, has gone to Salineville to visit.

John Rose and son, of Empire, were in the city yesterday doing some shopping.

Mrs. Roubush, of Malvern, has returned from a short visit with Wellsville friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Post, of Highland Heights, are visiting relatives and friend, in Malvern.

Mrs. J. Holleran, of Sixth and Main streets, has returned from a short visit to her son George in Pittsburgh.

James Crossman, of Allegheny, has returned to his home after attending the funeral here of his brother, Grant Crossman.

Mrs. Court Ewing has returned to her home in Wheeling, as she is visiting at the home of Robert Anderson on Second street.

Miss Lena Steinmetz and Miss Clair Peppert, of Mount Troy, Allegheny, are guests at the home of Miss Mary Woolley on Hill street.

Mrs. Edna Bross, her husband and son, all of Cleveland, are visiting Mrs. Bross' sisters, Mrs. Charles Morris and Miss Dot Menough.

Miss Marian Gibson, of Crafton, Pa., has returned to her home after spending a few days with her grandmother, Mrs. William Meehan, of Coal street. James Kane, of Parkersburg, is a guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Julius Hamilton, on Fourteenth street. He will remain here for a week.

SOUTH SIDE

WITH PAVED STREETS
BUT NO SIDEWALKS

Peculiar Condition of Affairs in Chester to Which Council's Attention Will Be Called.

A peculiar condition of affairs exists in Chester just at present due to the fact that the town has proceeded with the paving of its principal streets without giving attention to the sidewalks, and the result is there are few of the property owners who have to the present paid attention to this important matter.

It is doubtful if there is a similar instance on record, and it may be that council will be required to take some vigorous action in order to make the streets passable before the bad weather sets in next fall. Beginning at the lower end of the town the paving of the streets has been completed on Virginia avenue, First and Second streets and on Carolina avenue its entire length. In the east end of the corporation the paving has been completed for months, and in this locality sidewalks have also been laid, but on the thoroughfares mentioned first the sidewalks on a very small portion of their length have been laid. Residents have been wont to register many kicks concerning the condition of the streets of the town, and council was urged to begin the work long before a start was made in order to avoid the mud. Now, it is said, there will be no end of trouble in inducing the property owners along paved streets to lay their sidewalks. Except in front of a few of the business establishments no paving has been done and the improved thoroughfares present a very shabby appearance owing to the ragged condition of the space intended for the footpath.

It will not be a great while until the residents will be compelled to contend with the mud once more, and it is presumed the tardy ones expect to use the paved streets as a means of getting to and from their homes. This will be anything but satisfactory, since they must leave the middle of the street and travel over the unpaved sidewalk in order to reach the yards. Council will be urged to take some action at once.

DIRECTORS CHOSEN

For the New Industrial Bank Soon to Be Opened at Chester.

A stockholders' meeting was held yesterday afternoon and the officers and directors of the Industrial Bank of West Virginia, to be located in Chester, were elected.

The stockholders with but few exceptions are citizens of Chester, and the institution gives promise of being one of the most substantial and successful in this part of the state.

Steps were taken yesterday for the opening of the bank at once. A committee was appointed which will secure and get in readiness temporary quarters. Another committee will draft a set of by-laws for the government of the new institution.

The officers elected are as follows: President—John A. Campbell, of New Cumberland.

First Vice President—J. N. Finley.

Second Vice President—Dr. G. E. Lewis.

Cashier—O. O. Allison.

Directors—Mart Miller, T. W. Stewart, James Porter, C. F. Allison, John R. Donohoe, of New Cumberland; J. H. Maxwell, John E. Newell, John D. Stewart, T. R. Cunningham, G. R. Ahrendts, Alex. B. Allison, of Chester.

O. O. Allison, who has been selected as cashier, has been one of the most successful business men in Chester for several years. He is a young man of extraordinary business tact, is energetic and has a wide acquaintance. The directors made a wise selection.

Since the announcement was made that the bank would be a certainty, the scramble for stock has been remarkable, and at present there are but 19 shares upon the market. The sale has been to local parties exclusively, and the concern will be purely a Chester institution.

Allison & Hobbs, Prominent Chester Merchants, Dispose of Their Store.

The deal was closed this morning which transfers the business establishment of Allison & Hobbs to J. C. Lewis & Co., and the stock is being involved today preparatory to turning over the property to the new owner.

The establishment is one of the oldest and most prosperous in Chester, and since its removal from the old stand in the west end of town to the present commodious quarters on Virginia avenue has been more successful than ever. The deal has been pending for several months, but it was only after Mr. Allison, the senior partner, had been elected to the

STAGE MANAGER GONE

Joe Bradley, Connected With the Park Theatre, Has Strangely Disappeared.

Stage Manager Joe Bradley, who has had charge of the Rock Springs theatre during the present season, has disappeared from the city, and though his friends have exerted every effort to locate him, they have to the present failed to do so. He disappeared last Monday, and is said to have gone to Pittsburgh.

When last seen Bradley had considerable money in his possession, having just received his salary, and it is feared by some that he met with foul play. He is a good workman and his standing with his employers was of the very best. He had been negotiating with the Blondells to handle their stage effects next season, and it was thought he had gone on to join the company, but word from the management states that he has not yet put in an appearance.

Postoffice Improvements.

Business has become so brisk at the Chester postoffice that it was necessary to add to the facilities, and this week 16 combination lock boxes and 32 receptacles of the ordinary sort were placed in position. These with the 47 boxes already a part of the equipment of the office, will enable Postmaster Johnston and his able corps of clerks to handle the increasing business in a most satisfactory manner. Since taking possession of the postoffice at Chester Mr. Johnston has nearly doubled the amount of business and made the branch one of the most important in the county.

No Fair at Bethany.

The suspension of the Bethany fair will be quite a disappointment to the citizens of Chester, who generally attended the exhibition and had a social time, but these days non-paying arrangements people do not take much account of, but Burgettstown will be on hand as usual and always draws large crowds.

THE TOOLS LOST

More Hard Luck for the Drillers at the Hadley Farm Oil And Gas Well.

The drillers in the employ of the Chester Oil & Gas company have encountered the first hard luck since beginning the well on the Hadley farm, and at about 1 o'clock last night the tools were lost.

It had been anticipated that the well would be in this morning, and doubtless it would had the mishap not befallen the crew. The trouble is of a more serious character than usual, since the hole is so small that it may be impossible to get hold of the lost tools. Immediate steps were taken, however, to get possession of the missing apparatus, and no time will be lost in the fishing operations.

Testing a New Field.

An oil well being drilled on the Max Melvin lease, near Nessley chapel, has reached a point where there are very good indications of oil in paying quantities. The field will be further developed at once.

CHESTER NOTES.

Tom Needham, of Steubenville, Signs With Boston Nationals.

Tom Needham, one of the best ball players that has been turned out by Steubenville, is now a member of the National league, having been signed by Manager A. C. Buckenberger to catch. He will be used at once by Boston, as Pat Moran has been doing all the catching since Kittredge was released over a month ago. Boston is away down in the league race, and Needham will have a splendid chance to make good. During the present season he has been the star catcher of Altoona, where he played yesterday for the last time with that team.

Since he was a boy Needham has been playing ball, having been a member of all the old Acme teams. The past three years he has been playing in minor league teams and has been holding his own with all the catchers in the smaller league. Until a year or so ago his only drawback was his hitting, but since he quit the Acme and gave up all his time to base ball, he has developed into a strong batter and can line out his hits with the best men on the teams with which he plays.

The success of Needham is due to his temperate habits, one of the essentials to good work on the diamond, and it is hoped that he will prove a valuable find for Buckenberger. Then, too, he richly deserves success. Needham is an all-around athlete, having been a member of all the base ball, foot ball and basket ball teams that were organized in Steubenville.

An Exciting Game.

In an exciting game of base ball last night the team representing the George F. Brunt works was defeated by the Pleasant Heights team on the latter's grounds. The score was 8 to 7, and was hard fought throughout.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

The latest table of National league averages shows a pretty fight on for batting honors between Beaumont, Bresnahan, Steinfeldt and Wagner.

Prominent horsemen and pool sellers will not stay in Cleveland this week for the races, because of the decision prohibiting the selling of pools.

The eyes of all lovers of the harness horses will be turned to Cleveland today, when Billings' famous mare, Lou Dillon, will be driven against the world's record, held by Creasus.

Tommy Ryan denies that his purpose in going behind Jim Corbett next month is to gratify spite he feels toward Jeffries. Tommy says he went to the Pacific coast for his health.

Pitcher Ellston, of the Zanesville team, has attached his signature to a contract with the Boston National league club. Ellston is one of the best semi-professional twirlers in the state.

It is considered probable that Bob Fitzsimmons, who was married last week for the third time, will cover the $5,000 posted by George Gardner for a match. Most followers of the ring believe that Fitz will win, but Gardner has faith in himself.

LAST MASS FOR POPE

Celebrated in Sistine Chapel, Nearly All Cardinals Being Present.

BOOTHS FOR CONCLAVE ERECTED

Romans Making Books on Election. Fisherman's Ring Still Missing and New One Ordered—Meeting of Congregation Brief.

Rome, July 29.—The last of the three high requiem masses for Pope Leo was celebrated in the sistine chapel. Cardinal Serafino Vanutelli was the celebrant and was assisted by Cardinals Agliardi, Vincenzo, Vanutelli, Santelli and Ricard.

Those present at the mass included nearly all the cardinals and many of the high officials of the vatican. The ceremonial was of a splendid character, the sistine choir rendering its selections amid clouds of incense. Special pontifical prayers were offered and the mass ended with the hymn "Libera Me, Domine De Morte Aeterna" and the pronouncing of the benediction.

The chapel presented a slightly altered appearance, the floor having been raised to the level of the altar, the 64 booths for the cardinals during the conclave having been erected and the tables and other furniture having been arranged.

Making Books on Conclave.

Roman people who have no reverence for anything are busy making books on the conclave. The chances now are 25 to 1 against Rampolla, 15 to 1 against Vanutelli, while a few bets have been placed on Cardinal Gotti at 10 to 1. Since that time, however, his chances have declined. The odds against any cardinal outside of the leaders are 25 to 1.

The meeting of the congregation of cardinals was very short. After an exchange of views on current affairs, Mgr. Merry del Val, secretary of the consistorial congregation, gave each cardinal a diagram showing where his apartments in the vatican will be located during the conclave.

New Ring Ordered.

The tribuna says that as the fisherman's ring, which could not be found after the death of the pope, may be discovered in some drawer which was sealed up and cannot be opened until after the election of the new pope, the camerlingo, Cardinal Oreglia, has ordered a new one for use in the symbolic ceremony which occurs immediately after the successor to Leo is chosen.

The member of the noble guard who was overcome during the requiem mass in the sistine chapel while on duty beside the catafalque was Count Stampa, who a few days ago was placed under arrest for feigning illness.

May Support a Foreign Cardinal.

That there is a conviction at the vatican that the conclave will be of short duration is proved by the fact that all those who are to enter the conclave to minister to the wants of the cardinals have been engaged for July—three days. The two camps into which the sacred college is divided appear to be becoming daily more irreconcilable and it is stated that the anti-Rampolla faction has declared that, if necessary to defeat the opposition, they will even go to the length of supporting a foreign cardinal. The name of Cardinal Kopp, bishop of Breslau, was mentioned in this connection, but was hardly considered seriously, owing to the belief that under present conditions the elevation of a German to the papacy might mean the irreparable loss of France to the holy see.

Drunken Hungarian Embraced Lady on Wheeling Island and Has Narrow Escape

IS ALMOST STONED TO DEATH

Mob Imagined Criminal Assault Had Been Committed—Tree Selected for Lynching When Police Arrive—Is in Serious Condition.

Wheeling, July 29.—But for the timely arrival of the police John Postco, a Hungarian steel worker, would have been strung up by an enraged mob on Wheeling island.

Postco, who was drunk, caught in his arms and embraced a well-known and respected lady residing on the island as she was returning home over the steel bridge unescorted late in the evening. As she approached a dark spot Postco suddenly sprang from the gloom and grabbed her in his arms. The woman screamed frantically and her cries were quickly answered by many citizens, who rushed from their homes.

The man took to his heels, pursued by a posse, which was increased every minute as they dashed down Penn street. When the mob drew close to the foreigner he wheeled and drew a dirk fully 12 inches in length and held the mob at bay for a time. A cobbler stone hurled the knife out of the man's hand, while another struck him upon the head and knocked him down.

Stone after stone was rained upon the unconscious wretch in rapid succession and a rope was quickly sent for by the now thoroughly aroused citizens, who were under the impression that a criminal assault had been committed. Vengeance had been decided upon and a convenient shade tree picked out when a force of policemen arrived upon the scene and rescued the cowering wretch from the mob's hands. He was badly used up and is in a serious condition.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspaper is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for anything but kidney, liver or bladder trouble. It will be found in many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address Birmingham, N. Y., on every bottle.

Boy Shoots Instructor.

Media, O., July 29.—One of the pupils of the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan Home, little Vernon Little, 14, shot twice at Major Oliver, the military instructor and state policeman at the home, severely wounding him. It happened while the major was unlocking a door preparatory to shutting Little in a room as punishment for having run away from the home. A .32-caliber revolver was used.

Payne's Health Improved.

Oyster Bay, July 29.—Postmaster General Payne, who is cruising along the North Atlantic coast in the revenue cutter Onondaga, will visit the president probably on Thursday or Friday. He will return to Washington from here and will resume his duties in the department next Monday. It is understood that Mr. Payne's health has improved materially since his last illness.

Synopsis of Preceding Chapters.

CHAPTER I.—Grenfall Lorry, a wealthy American globe trotter, stumbles into acquaintance with a charming foreign girl on the train from Denver to Washington. The pair are left behind when the train stops for repairs in West Virginia. Lorry wires ahead to hold the train. He and the unknown girl ride twenty miles at a tearing pace in a mountain coach. There is no loveliness, but a near approach to it as the rolling stage tumbles the passengers about.

CHAPTER III.

MISS GUGGENLOCKER.

He laughed, looking down into her serious, upturned face. She broke away from him and threw herself into the arms of tall, excited Uncle Caspar. The conductor, several trainmen and a few eager passengers came up, the former crusty and snappish.

"Well, get aboard!" he growled. "We can't wait all night."

The young lady looked up quickly, her sensitive face cringing beneath the rough command. Lorry stepped instantly to the conductor's side, shook his finger vigorously under his nose and exclaimed in no uncertain tones:

"Now, that's enough from you! If I hear another word out of you, I'll make you sweat blood before tomorrow morning. Understand, my friend."

"Aw, who are you?" demanded the conductor belligerently.

"You'll learn that soon enough. After this you'll have sense enough to find out whom you are talking to before you open that mouth of yours. Not another word!" Mr. Grenfall Lorry was not president of the road, nor was he in any way connected with it, but his well assumed air of authority caused the trainman's ire to dissolve at once.

"Excuse me, sir. I've been worried to death on this run. I meant no offense. That old gentleman has threatened to kill me. Just now he took out his watch and said if I did not run back for his niece in two minutes he'd call me out and run me through. I've been nearly crazy here. For the life of me I don't see how you happened to be—"

"Oh, that's all right. Let's be off," cried Lorry, who had fallen some distance behind his late companion and her uncle. Hurrying after them, he reached her side in time to assist her in mounting the car steps.

"Thank you," smiling down upon him bewitchingly. At the top of the steps she was met by her aunt, behind whom stood the anxious man servant and the maid. Into the coach she was drawn by the relieved old lady, who was critically inspecting her personal appearance when Lorry and the foreigner entered.

"Ach, it was so wild and exhilarating. Aunt Yvonne," the girl was saying, her eyes sparkling. She stood straight and firm, her chin in the air, her hands in those of her aunt. The little traveling cap was on the side of her head, her hair was loose and very much away, strands straying here, curls blowing there in utter confusion. Lorry fairly gasped with admiration for the loveliness that would not be vanquished.

"We came like the wind. I shall never, never forget it," she said.

"But how could you have remained there, child? Tell me how it happened. We have been frantic," said her aunt, half in English, half in German.

"Not now, dear Aunt Yvonne. See my hair! What a fright I must be! Fortune man, your hair cannot be so unruly as mine. Oh!" The exclamation was one of alarm. In an instant she was at his side, peering with terrified eyes at the bloodstains on his neck and face. "It is blood! You are hurt! Uncle Caspar, Hedrick—quick! Attend him! Come to my room at once. You are suffering. Minna, find bandages!"

She dragged him to the door of her section before he could interpose a remonstrance.

"It is nothing—a mere scratch. Bumped my head against the side of the coach. Please don't worry about it; I can care for myself. Really, it doesn't hurt."

"But it does! It has bled terribly. Sit there! Now, Hedrick, some water." Hedrick rushed off and was back in a moment with a basin of water, a sponge and a towel, and before Grenfall fully knew what was happening the man servant was bathing his head, the others looking on anxiously, the young lady apprehensively, her hands clasped before her as she bent over to inspect the wound above his ear.

"It is quite an ugly cut," said Uncle Caspar critically. "Does it pain you, sir?"

"Oh, not a great deal," answered Lorry, closing his eyes comfortably. It was all very pleasant, he thought.

"Should it not have stitches, then, Caspar?" asked the sweet, eager voice.

"I think not. The flow is stanching. If the gentleman will allow Hedrick to trim the hair away for a plaster and then bandage it I think the wound will give him no trouble." The old man spoke slowly and in very good English.

"Really, uncle, is it not serious?"

"No, no," interposed Grenfall Lorry. "I knew it was a trifle. You cannot break an American's head. Let me go to my own section, and I'll be ready to present myself as good as new in ten minutes."

"You must let Hedrick bandage your head," she insisted. "Go with him, Hedrick."

Grenfall arose and started toward his section, followed by Hedrick.

"I trust you were not hurt during that reckless ride," he said, more as a question, stopping in the aisle to look back at her.

"I should have been a mass of bruises, gashes and lumps had it not been for one thing," she said, a faint flush coming to her cheek, although her eyes looked unfalteringly into his. "Will you join us in the dining car? I will have a place prepared for you at our table."

"Thank you. You are very good. I shall join you as soon as I am presentable."

"We are to be honored, sir," said the old gentleman, but in such a way that Grenfall had a distinct feeling that it was he who was to be honored. Aunt Yvonne smiled graciously, and he took his departure. While Hedrick was dressing the jagged little cut Grenfall complacently surveyed the patient in the mirror opposite and said to himself a hundred times: "You lucky dog! It was worth forty gashes like this. By Jove, she's divine!"

In a fever of eager haste he bathed and attired himself for dinner, the imperturbable Hedrick assisting. One query filled the American's mind. "I wonder if I am to sit beside her." And then: "I have sat beside her! There can never again be such delight!"

It was 7 o'clock before his rather unusual toilet was completed. "See if they have gone to the diner, Hedrick," he said to the manservant, who departed ceremoniously.

"I don't know why he should be so very polite," observed Lorry, gazing wonderingly after him. "I'm not a king. That reminds me. I must introduce myself. She doesn't know me from Adam."

Hedrick returned and announced that they had just gone to the dining car and were awaiting him there. He hurried to the diner and made his way to their table. Uncle Caspar and his niece were facing him as he came up between the tables, and he saw, with no little regret, that he was to sit beside the aunt—directly opposite the girl, however. She smiled up at him as he stood before them, bowing. He saw the expression of inquiry in those deep, liquid eyes of violet as their gaze wandered over his hair.

"Your head? I see no bandage," she said reproachfully.

"There is a small plaster, and that is all. Only heroes may have dangerous wounds," he said laughingly.

"Is heroism in America measured by the number of stitches or the size of the plaster?" she asked pointedly. "In my country it is a joy and not a calamity. Wounds are the misfortune of valor. Pray be seated, Mr. Lorry—is it not?" she said, pronouncing it quaintly.

He sat down rather suddenly on hearing her utter his name. How had she learned it? Not a soul on the train knew it, he was sure.

"I am Caspar Guggenlocker. Permit me, Mr. Lorry, to present my wife and my niece, Miss Guggenlocker," said the uncle more gracefully than he had ever heard such a thing uttered before.

In a daze, stunned by the name—Guggenlocker—mystified over their acquaintance with his own when he had been foiled at every fair attempt to learn theirs, Lorry could only numbly acknowledge them. In all his life he had never lost command of himself as at this moment. Guggenlocker!

CHAPTER IV.

"If you were a novel writer, Mr. Lorry, what manner of heroine would you choose?" she asked, with a smile so tantalizing that he understood instinctively why she was reviving a topic once abandoned. His confusion was increased. Her uncle and aunt were regarding him calmly—expectantly, he imagined.

"I—I have no ambition to be a novel writer," he said. "So I have not made a study of heroines."

"But you would have an ideal," she persisted.

"I'm sure I—I don't—that is, she would not necessarily be a heroine. Unless, of course, it would require heroism to pose as an ideal for such a prosaic fellow as I."

"To begin with, you would call her Clarelle Monrose or something equally as impossible. You know the name of a heroine in a novel must be euphonious. That is an exacting rule." It was an open taunt, and he could see that she was enjoying his discomfiture. It aroused his indignation and his wits.

"I would first give my hero a distinguished name. No matter what the heroine's name might be, pretty or otherwise, I could easily change it to his in the last chapter." She flushed beneath his now bright, keen eyes and the ready though unexpected retort. Uncle Caspar placed his napkin to his lips and coughed. Aunt Yvonne studiously inspected her bill of fare. "No matter what you call a rose, it is always sweet," he added meaningly.

At this she laughed good naturedly. He marveled at her white teeth and red lips. A rose, after all. Guggenlocker, rose; rose, not Guggenlocker. No, no! A rose only! He fancied he caught a sly look of triumph in her uncle's swift glance toward her. But Uncle Caspar was not a rose. He was Guggenlocker. Guggenlocker—bitcher! Still he did not look the part; no, indeed. That extraordinary man, a butcher, a gardener, a—and Aunt Yvonne? Yet they were Guggenlockers.

"Here is the waiter," the girl observed to his relief. "I am famished after my pleasant drive. It was so bracing, was it not, Mr. Grenfall Lorry?"

"Give me a mountain ride always as an appetizer," he said obligingly, and so ended the feast about a name.

The orders for the dinner were given, and the quartet sat back in their chairs to await the coming of the soup. Grenfall was still wondering how she had learned his name, and was on the point of asking several times during the conventional discussion of the weather, the train and the mountains. He considerably refrained, however, unwilling to embarrass her.

"Aunt Yvonne tells me she never expected to see me alive after the station agent telegraphed that we were coming overland in that awful old carriage. The agent at P— says it is a dangerous road, at the very edge of the mountain. He also increased the composure of my uncle and aunt by telling them that a wagon rolled off yesterday, killing a man, two women and two horses. Dear Aunt Yvonne, how troubled you must have been!"

"I'll confess there were times when I thought we were rolling down the mountain," said Lorry, with a relieved shake of the head.

"Sometimes I thought we were soaring through space, whether upward or downward I could not tell. We never failed to come to earth, though, did we?" she laughingly asked.

"Emphatically! Earth and a little grief," he said, putting his hand to his head.

"Does it pain you?" she asked quickly.

"Not in the least. I was merely feeling to see if the cut were still there. Mr.—Mr. Guggenlocker, did the conductor object to holding the train?" he asked, remembering what the conductor had told him of the old gentleman's actions.

"At first, but I soon convinced him that it should be held," said the other quietly.

"My husband spoke very harshly to the poor man," added Aunt Yvonne. "But I am afraid, Caspar, he did not understand a word you said. You were very much excited." The sweet old lady's attempts at English were much more laborious than her husband's.

"If he did not understand my English he was very good at guessing," said her husband grimly.

"He told me you had threatened to call him out," ventured the young man.

"Call him out? Ach, a railroad conductor?" exclaimed Uncle Caspar in line scorn.

"Caspar, I heard you say that you would call him out," interposed his wife, with reproving eyes.

"Ach, God! I have made a mistake! I see it all! It was the other word I meant—down, not out! I intended to call him down, as you Americans say. I hope he will not think I challenged him." He was very much perturbed.

"I think he was afraid you would," said Lorry.

"He should have no fear. I could not meet a railroad conductor. Will you please tell him I could not so condescend. Besides, dueling is murder in your country, I am told."

"It usually is, sir. Much more so than in Europe." The others looked at him inquiringly. "I mean that in America when two men pull their revolvers and go to shooting at each other some one is killed—frequently both. In Europe, as I understand it, a scratch with a sword ends the combat."

"You have been misinformed," exclaimed Uncle Caspar, his eyebrows elevated.

"Why, Uncle Caspar, has fought more duels than he can count," cried the girl proudly.

"And has he slain his man every time?" asked Grenfall smilingly, glancing from one to the other. Aunt Yvonne shot a reproving look at the girl, whose face paled instantly, her eyes going quickly in affright to the face of her uncle.

"God!" Lorry heard the old gentleman mutter. He was looking at his bill of fare, but his eyes were fixed and staring. The card was crumpling between the long, bony fingers. The American realized that a forbidden topic had been touched upon.

"He has fought and he has slain," he thought as quick as a flash. "He is no butcher, no gardener, no cobbler. That's certain!"

"Tell us, Uncle Caspar, what you said to the conductor," cried the young lady nervously.

"Tell them, Caspar, how alarmed we were," added soft voiced Aunt Yvonne. Grenfall was a silent, interested spectator. He somehow felt as if a scene from some tragedy had been reproduced in that briefest of moments. Calmly and composedly, a half smile now in his face, the soldierly Caspar narrated the story of the train's run from one station to the other.

"We did not miss you until we had almost reached the other station. Then your Aunt Yvonne asked me where you had gone. I told her I had not seen you, but went into the coach ahead to search. You were not there. Then I went on to the dining car. Ach, you were not there. In alarm I returned to our car. Your aunt and I looked everywhere. You were not anywhere. I sent Hedrick ahead to summon the conductor, but he had hardly left us when the engine whistled sharply and the train began to slow up in a jerky

AT HOME

IN COLORADO

In Colorado the days are never hot; the nights are always cool.

That is one reason why 50,000 people go there every summer, and why they stay there anywhere from two weeks to two months.

Colorado isn't far away—if you take the Rock Island. And the cost of getting there is not great. Low rates daily, June 1 to Sept. 30. Information and literature on request.

TRIFLING WITH YOUR HEALTH

Is like Playing with a loaded Gun. If you have Kidney Trouble attend to it at once.

It is easy to tell whether your Kidneys or bladder are diseased. Take a bottle of glass tumbler and fill it with urine. If there is a sediment—a powder-like substance—after standing a day and night, if it is pale or discolored,ropy or stringy, there is something wrong with the Kidneys. Other sure signs of disease are a desire to urinate often, pain in the back, or if your urine stains linen.

There is no question that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best and surest medicine in the world for diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood. Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Chronic Constipation, and the sicknesses peculiar to women. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine and the necessity of getting up a number of times during the night, and puts an end to the scalding pain when passing urine.

The Rev. Henry P. Miller, pastor Baptist Church, Spartanburg, S. C., writes: "For years I suffered with Kidney, liver and heart troubles, swimming in the head, dull headache and numbness of the limbs. Physicians prescribed for me and I took different medicines, but none of them did me any good. But Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cured me in about two weeks."

It is for sale by all druggists in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose. Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail. Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA ITS CAUSE AND CURE

Overwork any organ and it gives out—the stomach is no exception. Ask it to digest anything, everything, at any time in half the time required, and like an over driven horse, it balks. Nature intended the stomach should have regular hours. A time to work, a time to rest—and when you break up this habit, you upset the whole arrangement. The stomach nerves become exhausted, the glands refuse to act, the food does not digest—lies heavy, ferments and repeats. There is pain, gas forms, bloating occurs, the heart becomes irregular and a nervous, irritable feeling sets in. This is nervous dyspepsia and Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills is its cure.

Mrs. William Spowart, of No. 18 Mill street, Youngstown, Ohio, says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are a fine medicine for nervous dyspepsia. My stomach was all upset and would digest nothing. I got some of the Nerve Pills and they acted finely—my stomach, appetite and digestion got right again and an old malarial tendency disappeared completely. I feel right well again in every way and am glad to say so."

HOME AFFAIRS

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

New Arrivals—Daughters have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Oak street, and Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Smith, Bank street.

Ankle Broken—Mrs. Miller, who resides near West Point, was thrown from a wagon near Riverview cemetery yesterday and sustained a compound fracture of her ankle.

In Steubenville Jail—Jerry Darragh, of this city, was lodged in Steubenville jail yesterday with good prospects of going to the workhouse. He raised a disturbance at the home of Louis Wyatt, a colored barber, and is said to have choked Mrs. Wyatt. He is also alleged to have struck and beaten her and another woman.

ANOTHER CHARGE AGAINST ALLISON

Warrant Will Await Him When He Gets Out of the Workhouse.

John Allison, the noted chicken, horse and cow thief, who was sentenced to the Canton workhouse yesterday by Judge Martin at Lisbon, will be confronted with another warrant when his term expires.

He is charged with stealing a cow in Jefferson county and will be prosecuted vigorously by the plaintiff.

Sheriff Ordered to Collect.

Lisbon, July 29.—(Special.)—The East Liverpool case in which F. F. Davis was plaintiff against Ebenezer Miller in proceedings in aid of execution for the collection of a $150 judgment, was concluded yesterday, the court finding that Laura Miller had in her name funds which could be appropriated for the payment of the judgment, which the sheriff was authorized to collect.

LOCAL TEAM HAS ANOTHER SOUTHPAW

Young Goode Will Pitch the Opener With Kent Tomorrow.

The local team is not to be without the services of a southpaw, Manager Reark having received word from Young Goode that he will be here in time to pitch the opener with Kent tomorrow.

The Kent team has been mixing it up with Niles this season and although beaten by the boiler makers, made a creditable showing. Kent has a strong team and will put up a strong argument at West End park.

Manager Reark has not yet announced the lineup for tomorrow as he has not heard definitely from some of the players for whom he has lines out. It is probable that Emmerring and Goode will be on the points with Wallace, Brown, Hamilton and Webb the infield, and Maley, Reark and Lawrence the outfield. Winters will likely be the slabit in Friday's game.

TRADE MATTEES ARE DISCUSSED

Salesmen's Night at Conference of Furniture Association of America.

New York, July 29.—Salesmen's night at the national conference of the Furniture Association of America was attended by nearly 300 interested in the trade. William Shearer, of Boston, presided. Most of the speakers confined their remarks to matters connected with the trade.

A. J. Conroy, of Cincinnati, led the discussion on "One Line a Year." It is the custom to get out two lines of samples during the year and Mr. Conroy's argument was in favor of limiting the issue to one line a year.

C. D. Baker, of Boston, spoke upon "The Relative Value of Salesmen." He argued that the salesman who builds up the reputation of the firm by satisfying customers does more for the firm than the salesman who disposes of goods that do no credit to the dealer.

J. J. McCloskey, of New Rochelle, spoke on "The Burden of Traveling Men." He agreed with Mr. Baker that the chief object of every salesman, traveling or local, should be to maintain and enlarge the reputation of his firm.

Charged With Forgery.

Cleveland, July 29.—The charge of forging the name of A. T. Anderson, of Pittsburg, to a note for $2,500 is placed against Mrs. Helen A. Thompson, who recently purchased a hotel of W. J. Harvey. The arrest was made at the instance of Harvey, who states that in the transfer of the property Mrs. Thompson gave him a note for $2,500 signed by Anderson. He claims that the signature of the note was forged and that it is worthless. The woman has been in possession of the place but a short time. Harvey discovered the alleged forgery of the note when he attempted to negotiate it.

Printers Return to Work.

Spokane, Wash., July 29.—The striking printers have returned to work in the Spokesman-Review composing rooms. This action was taken upon instructions from the executive council of the International Typographical union, now in session at Chicago, where the executive committee of the American Newspaper Publishers' association is also in session. The return of the printers is in the nature of a truce. They are to be paid the new scale pending efforts to bring about a satisfactory settlement of the differences by the higher authorities at Chicago.

Children Do Lie.

Do children lie? Yes; constantly, persistently and universally, says the Kindergarten Magazine. A child does not tell the truth because he could not. He does not know the truth, and his approximation to the truth is very much vaguer than ours. And there are certain qualities of his mind which make it inevitable that he should pervert the truth. In the first place, truth is synonymous with knowledge. He does not know what truth is. In the second place (and it is the same with us), children gradually approximate the truth. They have their ideas of truth. In the third place, the child's imagination drives him often to tell what is not true.

SOCIAL EVENTS

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Florence Polk, Aged 8, Pleasantly Entertains Her Little Friends.

Little Florence Polk, of No. 8 Thompson Place, gave a party yesterday afternoon, the occasion being her eighth birthday. Upon their arrival the little guests were met by their hostess, who presented them with a miniature photo button decorated with blue and pink ribbons. The children were entertained by Miss Mazie Speyer on the lawn.

Following this came music and a grand march to the dining room, where an elaborate luncheon was served, completed by a prize birthday cake. Herbert Reinartz was the winner of the handsome souvenir spoon.

The little hostess was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Those present were Evelyn Boch, Elsie Wagner, Helen Hilbert, Hilda Marshall, James McDonald, George McDonald, Stewart Thompson, Margaret Owen, Clarence Owen, Helen Campbell, Pauline Campbell, Louise Betz, Wilbert Betz, Herbert Reinartz, Paul Reinartz, Mary Hunter, Christine Hunter, Paul Schreiber, Louisa Laufenberger, Frederick Laufenberger, and Ruth Campbell, of Rochester.

MOON-ELDEN

A Wedding of Much Local Interest at Bellevue, Pa., This Evening.

The marriage of Enoch Elden, a popular and well known merchant of this city, and Miss Sadie Moon, of Bellevue, Pa., will be solemnized at 6 o'clock this evening at the home of the bride. Only the relatives and close friends of the contracting parties will witness the ceremony, which will be performed by Rev. Dr. Holmes, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, Allegheny.

Following the marriage the bride and groom will take an extended wedding trip down the St. Lawrence, through the Thousand Islands to Montreal and later visit New York city. During the trip they will spend a short time at Atlantic City. After returning from this trip the bride and groom will be at home to their friends after October 15 in their new home on Thompson avenue.

IN HONOR OF A GUEST

Miss Nellie Porter Pleasantly Entertains a Number of Friends.

Miss Nellie Porter yesterday evening gave a very pleasant 5 o'clock tea in honor of Miss Bessie Quay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Quay, of Wellsburg, W. Va., who is a guest at the Porter home on Pennsylvania avenue. Miss Quay was formerly a resident of this city, and the time spent was fully enjoyed in discussing former events.

Quay's friends were present and received the hospitality of the hostess, Miss Porter, who was assisted by her sister, Miss Martha Porter, and Mrs. John S. Goodwin.

A very pretty feature in the dining room was the decoration of the table in beautiful bunches of sweet peas in various colors, the place of each guest being designated by a bouquet of these fragrant flowers. Miss Quay will remain the guest of Miss Porter until the first of next week.

Wilson-Moody.

Emmet L. Wilson, of this city, and Miss Margaret Moody, daughter of S. W. Moody, of Hookstown, were married today at high noon at the home of the bride, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. Hosick. A large number of guests, including relatives and friends, witnessed the marriage, after which Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left on their wedding trip. Both the bride and groom are well known in this city and Chester, and have received the congratulations of a large circle of friends.

Birthday Surprise.

Mr. Edwin Smith, of Second street, was last evening agreeably surprised when over forty of his friends assembled at his home to remind him of the fact that he had passed his seventy-fourth birthday. For twelve years Mr. Smith has been well known in this city as a very fine decorator, and was previously identified for many years as a leading decorator with the Minton Pottery company, at Stoke, England. Mr. Smith was the recipient of a number of gifts.

Kountz-Lindsay.

A pretty marriage took place at high noon today when Miss Mame Kountz, the estimable daughter of Jacob G. Kountz, a prominent business man of Wellsburg, and James Lindsay, a decorating potter, were united. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. E. Clark, at the home of the bride. The couple left this afternoon for an extended eastern trip.

Children's Party.

Miss Ruby Smurthwaite, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smurthwaite, gave a pleasant party yesterday to a few of her little girl friends at her home on St. George street in the East End. It was evident from the merriment which predominated that the event was a happy one for the little folks.

Whist Club Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber H. Blythe agreeably entertained the whist club last evening in honor of their guest, Mrs. Robert L. Andrews, of Cleveland.

It was not long after the mother had made the purchase until she read it. Her son was continually getting in trouble with it and to prevent possibly serious trouble the mother a few days ago made a proposition to him that he sell it to her. He agreed, but the money, something in the neighborhood of $500, was not turned over to the son.

Carrying out his daily practice of at least two weeks O'Connor started out yesterday afternoon to fill up on his favorite beverage. He landed at the saloon of James Walters early in the afternoon and there he met a number of acquaintances and by early evening his supply of money had run short. The thought struck him that his mother owed him the money for the automobile and he telephoned from the saloon to her for the amount. Of course she refused to take it to him, and a short time later he went to his home and demanded the entire sum. Just what occurred after his arrival there is not known, Mrs. O'Connor refusing to substantiate the general report which was to the effect that upon her refusal to give him the money he pulled a revolver and shot at her three times. She states that he did not shoot at her and that he was simply shooting in the house to terrify her.

The noise produced in the home excited the neighbors and some one telephoned to the central fire station for an officer. Chief Morley answered the call and sent Officers Dawson and Woods to the scene. On their way the officers were joined by Policemen Aufderheide and Mahoney. Together the quartet walked to the door and demanded admittance. O'Connor opened the door and with a cry raised the Winchester, pointed it at Dawson and pulled the trigger.

All that saved Dawson's life was the failure of the cartridge to explode. The plucky officer well realized his position and rushed in on the angered man, seized the gun and by a strenuous effort wrenched it from his hands. O'Connor then ran up the stairs to the garret. He was closely followed by the officers, who found him lying under a bed. They pulled him out and escorted him down the stairs. There he rebelled against arrest, but Chief Wyman, who had arrived by that time, commanded that he be placed in the patrol wagon and hauled to the city hall. O'Connor objected to the treatment, but to no avail. He was landed behind the bars and was compelled to stay there until this morning when he was arraigned before the mayor on the charge of disorderly conduct. Attorney John McGarry entered a plea of guilty for the accused and the fine above mentioned was imposed.

Mayor Weaver states that he cannot lose sight of the fact that O'Connor drew a gun on Officer Dawson and that if he will prefer a charge against him the man will be given a severe dose. O'Connor's father appeared at city hall this morning and pleaded for his son. He stated that if the mayor would let him off easy he would have his son take the pledge.

Bathbone Installation.

The Bathbone Sisters installed officers last evening. The new officers are: Past chief of temple, Elizabeth Neal; most excellent chief, Lizzie Woolmaker; excellent senior, Dora Hardwick; excellent junior, Lizzie Bevington; manager of temple, Helen Lewis; mistress of correspondence, Fannie Grafton; mistress of finance, Susie Marshall; protector of temple, Belle Martin; guard of outer temple, Matilda McMillon. An enjoyable social session followed.

Further than reports, left the city hall declaring that they will make it warm for Heidrick if he continues his actions.

Further particulars were learned this afternoon regarding the trouble of Heidrick with his wife. The latter accosted Senire H. P. McCarron at about noon and applied to him for assistance in getting money from her husband. She stated that she and her two children were entirely without support and that he intended to leave them in a very uncomfortable situation. The advice of the justice was for her to file a charge against her husband, alleging non-support. She promised to do so, and if she keeps her word officers will place him under arrest before night.

The justice states that a woman living next door to the Heidrick home, Jefferson and Fourth streets, informed him that Mrs. Heidrick made a desperate attempt last night to end her life with carbolic acid. According to the woman, Mrs. Heidrick, upon being told that her husband fully intended to leave the city with a young woman, went to a drug store and purchased a bottle of carbolic acid, returned to her home and had the bottle uncorked and to her lips when the neighbor rushed in and interfered.

Mrs. Hendricks pleaded that she be allowed to commit the deed, stating that she would much rather be dead than to have her husband living with some other woman. Before the bottle was wrenched from her hands she allowed considerable of its contents to drop on her breast and arms and was burned badly.
